Offer Them Christ

The theme of the 1992 Annual Conference - Offer Them Christ - touches three important ingredients in the Church's life.

...Offer: the style of Christian life is invitational and hospitable

...Them: the family of God is concerned for persons, all persons, and cannot live faithfully if living only unto itself

...Christ: the gracious gift of Jesus Christ is the power and energy of faith, and the essential avenue for the saving, healing love of God.

The theme calls us to claim fully who we are. Thanks be to God for so great a gift!

1992-1993 CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

1992-1993 ASSOCIATE MEMBERS, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference associate members, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS (Daily Minutes)

OF THE 1992 ANNUAL CONFERENCE, Wednesday, June 10, 1992

The Executive Session for All Ministers in Full Connection: Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., called to order the Executive Session of the 1992 North Carolina Annual Conference in the Reeves Auditorium at Methodist College at 10:30 a.m.

Worship: Bishop Minnick announced the opening hymn, There's Within My Heart. The organist was Mark Gourley. The Bishop then opened with an invocation and special prayer for those ministers with illness or grief.

Passing of the Character of Clergy: Bishop Minnick asked, "Are all the clergy members of the North Carolina Annual Conference blameless in their character and official administration?" He asked each district superintendent to respond to the Conference concerning the ministers in their districts. Each district superintendent responded with the traditional phrase, "There is nothing against the ministers of my district." Bishop Minnick answered for district superintendents Baldrige and Crotwell.

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry: Chairperson Woodrow W. Wells, Jr., opened with an overview of the difficulties of clergy life and explained how the Board of Ordained Ministries assists candidates in addressing some of those issues prior to ordination. Wells presented the report of the board, and made corrections in the written report that was distributed to the Conference, and elected probationary members and members in full connection. Wells presented questions 37 and 38 with the election of probationary members and approval of ordination of Deacons. Candidates were presented before the body and were elected by a standing affirmation, and Question 28c, the election of Robert L. Carpenter, Jr., an elevation from associate member to probationary member. He was elected unanimously. Question 39, Richard C. Sharp was recommended for a probationary membership and the clergy elected him, then welcomed all probationary members. Questions 38 and 41 presented candidates for election into full membership and ordination as Elders. Bishop Minnick asked the required disciplinary questions. The candidates responded appropriately, and were elected by the full body with a standing affirmation. The following were presented by Wells for approval for election by the Annual Conference by the Executive Session: Questions 25, 26, 47 and sub-sections, questions 49, 50, 51, 52, 69. Nominees to NC Pastor's School were approved. Nominees to the Joint Review Committee for the remainder of the year were elected. Nominees for the 1993 Joint Review Committee were elected. Nominees to the Administrative Review Committee were elected. Questions 42, 43, 44 were approved. Question 45 listed deceased ministers and deceased spouses. The body stood in recognition and in memory of those who have gone on to glory. Wells then moved the approval of the report as a whole, which was done. (Business Questions are found in Section III and Board of Ordained Ministry Report in Section V of the Journal.)

The Bishop opened the floor for any other matters to come before the body. Administrative announcements were read by the secretary. Rocky Mount District Superintendent Caswell Shaw invited all the clergy to come and take part in the Clergy Choir for the Annual Conference to sing on Thursday evening. The Bishop led the session in singing, He Lives.

Adjournment: Bishop Minnick declared the executive session adjourned.

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION, Wednesday, June 10, 1992

The General Session for all Lay and Clergy Members: Following the prelude by Mark Gourley, St. Paul UMC, Goldsboro and Conference organist for the business session of the Annual Conference, the general session of all lay and clergy members was called. The session began with the traditional singing of And Are We Yet Alive.

Communion: A service of Word and Table with Holy Communion for the Annual Conference members and visitors followed. The celebrant for this meaningful service was Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., assisted by members of the cabinet and other clergy.

Recess: The Bishop declared ten minutes be given to clear the stage and prepare for the convening of the Conference for business.

Conference Convened: Bishop Carlton P. Minnick, Jr. called the Conference to order.

Greetings: President Elton P. Hendricks of Methodist College spoke words of special greeting. His words of welcome were warmly received. The Bishop called upon the Honorable J. L. Dawkins, mayor of the City of Fayetteville, and the Rev. Thomas G. Holtsclaw, Superintendent of the host New Bern District, who also brought words of greeting and welcome. Mrs. Sam McMillan presented an orchid to Mrs. Mary Ann Minnick on behalf of the Conference and Mrs. Minnick expressed her appreciation to the Conference. Chairperson Susan Pate Greenwood of the Committee on Courtesies and Introduction conveyed greetings from other annual conferences. The Bishop directed that the Conference send greetings in return.

Organization of the Conference: The Bishop recognized Conference Secretary James Coile for motions concerning the organization of the Conference. Coile presented the following motions:

"I move that the bar of the Conference be the main floor and the stage of Reeves Auditorium." This was approved.

"I move that the registration kept by the registrars at the registration tables be designated and declared the official roll of the Conference." This was approved.

We worked in many congregations through the efforts of very capable consultants. The Capital Funds Campaign, with a goal of $8,000,000 has received to date $4,700,000 for camps and also for the development of new congregations. New congregations have been born with more in the planning stage. The Bishop formed an Into the 21st Century Committee. The Conference responded to his remarks with a standing ovation.

Report of the Committee to Study Legal Responsibility: E. Powell Osteen, Jr. referred to the printed report. The proposal is designed to take a middle ground between our legal liabilities and our responsibilities in managing ministries through our institutions. The purpose of the proposition is that institutions of the Conference be authorized to set their own by-laws and that the Conference not elect more than 40% of the boards of trustees or governors. Finally, institutional property would not revert to the ownership of the Annual Conference upon dissolution of the institution. The committee recommended the formation of a Board of Institutions which would serve as a legal buffer, providing limited administrative oversight of aspects of our institutions. The board's focus was solely on legal issues and not on the moral or theological considerations of the involvement of the NC Conference in the ministries of these institutions. Discussion followed with some questions. Chancellor Judge Phil Carlton responded. Discussion followed considering the degree to which institutions acting without majority control of this Conference might unilaterally alter their programs apart from the desires and intentions of the Conference.

Amendment: Roger Elliott moved to amend the report, "I move that no Board of Institutions Trustee serve more than two terms consecutively. They may serve again after a term off Board of Institutions." The amendment passed.

Questions were raised concerning the effectiveness of this measure. Specifically, will this action actually protect the Conference from civil liability? The chancellor responded that this measure would provide some protection to the Conference from civil liabilities based on other models, such as control of hospitals.

Discussion was offered on whether the amendment deleted references to sections pertaining to the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and the Commission on Camping and Outdoor Ministry. Wynn responded that he intended the deletion of sections pertaining to those boards and commissions. After some debate, Langill Watson moved the previous question on all that was before the Conference. Conference called the previous question by the required 2/3 majority. The Wynn amendment failed.

The report as a whole passed. (Full report in Section V of the Journal.)

Report of the Insurance Committee: Wilber I. Jackson presented the report with recommendation that the Insurance Committee provide the same coverage at a lower rate for the coming year. The proposed coverage was adopted by the Annual Conference. Jackson then described the potential of moving into a denomination wide health care plan as early as 1994. That option is to be studied and presented to the Conference as they learn more about it. Jackson then moved the adoption of the total on Term Life Insurance increasing the coverage with a slight increase in the monthly premium.

Sam Wynn moved to amend and delete the reduction of coverage beyond the age of 72. The Wynn amendment failed.

The recommendation of the committee passed.

Quinton Covington moved that an emergency fund be established to provide payment of health insurance for pastors in the event that the local church failed to pay its premiums on health insurance.

John Jansen moved to amend the Covington amendment to assign to equitable salaries the responsibility for premiums rather than establishing a new line item in the budget. The Jansen amendment to the amendment failed.

Patricia Edwards moved to postpone the vote until the following day to allow the treasurer to provide extra data needed. As the Treasurer's Office could not provide the data, the motion was withdrawn. The previous question was moved. The Covington amendment failed.

The report as a whole was approved. (Full report in Section V of the Journal.)

Nominations were accepted from the floor and were elected. McKenzie expressed his gratitude to the Committee on Nominations for their diligent work. He directed the Conference to Item 11 in the Book of Handouts, the Charter of the NC Conference Council on Ministries. McKenzie explained the purpose of the charter was to bring it into conformity with the restructuring which had just been approved. The charter was approved.

After several corrections to Item 1, the District Boards of Trustees were elected. On Item 2, District Committee on Superintendency, McKenzie presented some changes and the list was elected. On Item 3, the District Lay Leaders, the list was presented intact and the nominees were elected.

Amendment to Amendment: The Conference Secretary proposed an editorial change to the McGill amendment "that the member of the Annual Conference who has served as over-seas missionary be changed to 'a member of the Annual Conference who has served outside of the US as a missionary.'" It was accepted.

After introducing the work for the orientation of children's ministries, she presented Charles Michael Smith, who presented the report of the committee on behalf of Chairperson Glenda Snotherly. He described the work of the commission and its research of issues pertaining to children and its explorations of ways this Conference can address the needs of children. Smith described how the Rocky Mount and Raleigh Districts had already had "State of the Child" task force orientation sessions. Smith presented several slides which show the state of the child in Eastern NC. He reported that most of the children living below the poverty level in NC were within the bounds of our Conference. Smith described how Eastern NC has a high percentage of female headed households living below the poverty level which demands a higher need for child care. He indicated that NC ranks as number 31 among 50 states for poverty among children. He advocated that rural churches become involved in ministries to children. Smith placed before the Conference recommendations found in the Book of Recommendations. Smith introduced Ethel Carr, the representative from the WNC Conference who works with children's ministries. She described her work in the WNC Conference and how improvements have been made in that conference with and among children. The report with certain amendments was presented to the Conference for approval and it was adopted unanimously. (Full report

Shuler continued by encouraging the Conference to support Africa University by payment of apportionments and by the development of a 10 million dollar scholarship fund for the university. Shuler introduced a group of Africans who are originally from a variety of countries throughout the continent of Africa and are currently members of Edenton Street UMC. They presented several messages in song and sung in French. Members of Annual Conference brought the offerings that had been collected in support of this Scholarship Fund in previous weeks. The report closed with the presentation of the offering, and words of thanks and praise from Shuler.

Felton directed the Conference to the Report on Task Forces and Committees, page 11. She indicated that the Conference should be in the retirement home business with qualifications. She presented the recommendations contained on page 14. The Bishop explained that the recommendation to establish a new chaplaincy position at the Methodist Homes was not a matter properly before the body of the Conference. He noted that all of the recommendations presented by this committee would be more properly presented as a recommendation by this body to the Methodist Homes for consideration in their own administrations. The Bishop also assured the body that he would provide a forum for further discussion of each of the issues raised. The Bishop expressed his preference that the boards and agencies of the Conference consider the recommendations rather than his having to rule them out of order at this session. He expressed his concern that this would not indicate a fundamental disagreement with the recommendations themselves. (Full report in Section V of the Journal.)

Motion: Malloy Owen moved "that the report on 'Whether or not we should be in the Retirement Homes Business,' be received with appreciation and that the Resolutions section be referred to the new Board of Institutions and to the Trustees of the Retirement

There was further discussion regarding the concerns about the Retirement Home System and efforts are being undertaken to improve the financial status of the homes. A question was raised concerning a motion that had been made last year for a report that was requested on the Methodist Retirement Home. The recommendations from the Board of Trustees on the Hall's Creek UMC was that the property be deeded to the Hall's Creek Community Ruritan Club with certain stipulations.

Robert Pullman asked for a point of personal privilege regarding Hall's UMC and indicated that he would vote for the recommendation as given by the committee but that he will vote with a very, very, heavy heart. The church dates back to the Civil War and it has some refreshing memories for him in his early days as a pastor.

Kermit Braswell moved no action be taken on the Hall's UMC. He moved further that it be referred back to the trustees to be certain that there is proper liability coverage on the property. Motion to refer was withdrawn by Braswell.

After much discussion, the Conference was advised by several Ruritans that the Ruritan Club carries liability coverage on property owned by them. Jimmy Cummings moved the previous question. The report, as a whole, was approved. On Halls UMC, the second recommendation was approved. All members of the Board of Trustees were acknowledged and received by the Annual Conference.

Motion: Gene Tyson moved "that the Annual Conference Board of Trustees begin a feasibility study for the relocation of the Conference Headquarters of the NC Annual Conference. This would include a Conference Center for Discipleship for the purpose of training, teaching, and equipping of laypersons and clergypersons for the planning and implementation of the music and ministries of the NC Annual Conference. The Board of Trustees would report to the 1993 Annual Conference." The Center would be available for local church groups, district committees, Conference boards and agencies. Funding for the study would come from CFA, line item 5 which is COM Special Task Forces for $5,000. The motion was seconded. A question was raised by Bob McKenzie that the particular line item as indicated would not be the fund from which this recommendation could be funded. The Bishop indicated that the feeling was that CFA would need to indicate where this funding would come from. He asked for a standing vote after some questions. The motion carried.

The report as a whole was approved. (Full report in Section V of the Journal.)

Decision on Conference Budget: Bishop Minnick inquired of President Evans if the previous motion could be funded by CFA. Evans indicated that CFA could possibly fund it up to $2,500 from supplemental appropriations, however, if we went beyond that point, he would need to be in consultation with the full committee. Attention was directed to the handout that replaces pages 56 and 57 of the Book of Reports. Evans indicated that the budget as proposed is a reasonable and attainable budget for our Conference. Using the words of John Wesley, "Make all you can, save all you can, give all you can." This is an excellent pattern, he indicated, for Christian stewardship. Only a 2.28% increase in the COM budget was indicated. This is an attempt to do that which Christ has called us to do in a more efficient manner. He indicated that this budget is a spiritual statement and that it is important to give for God's work. The adoption was moved by Evans.

A question was raised if whether the Banks motion proposed yesterday conflicted with the motion that is before us. The response was that there does not appear to be a conflict.

Maness Mitchell raised a question about the cutting of equitable salaries by approximately one third. Kermit Braswell responded that it does not mean there has been some cut in equitable salary. The Bishop indicated in response to the question raised by Mitchell that if his request is that pastors receive more, this must be taken care of in another setting. Another question was raised by Barton Baldwin of Mt. Olive and it was answered. The budget was then approved. (Full report in Section V of the Journal.)

In Memoriam

Blessed are the dead who died in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them.

Prelude Cantilene Religieuse Dubois

The Words of Grace

Jesus said, "I am the Resurrection and I am the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, yet shall they live, and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Because I live you shall live also."

Hymn of Praise No. 709

Come, Let Us Join Our Friends Above

The Greeting

We come together in grief, acknowledging our human loss. May God grant us grace, that in pain we may find comfort, in sorrow hope, and in death resurrection.

Eternal God, we praise you for the great company of all those who have finished their course in faith, and who now rest from their labors. Help us so to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens. Amen.

Hymn of Promise

Revelation 7: 2-3; 9-17

O God, who gave us birth, you are ever more ready to hear than we are to pray. You know our needs before we ask, and our ignorance in asking. Give to us now your grace, that as we shrink before the mystery of death, we may see the light of eternity. Speak to us once more your solemn message of life and of death. Help us to live as those who are prepared to die. And when our days are accomplished, enable us to die as those who go forth to live, so that living or dying, our life may be in you, and that nothing in life or in death will be able to separate us from your great love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Psalm 23

For All the Saints

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of your Son, Christ our Lord! Grant us peace so to follow your holy saints in all virtuous and holy living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAVID LAUGHLIN MOE1915 - 1991

David Laughlin Moe, 76 years old, was born March 11, 1915 in China, to the late Reverend John J. and Martha Laughlin Moe. He died June 27, 1991. David came to this country and was educated at Asbury Seminary, where he met and later married Martha Jane Williamson Moe on April 12, 1953. They had two children, Bill, now in California, and Beverly (Mrs. Hubert Cheers, Jr.) of Wilmington.

David was a US Marine Corps veteran, admitted as a United Methodist minister in the New York Conference in 1947, and transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1957. Churches he served in the North Carolina Conference were Fayetteville: St. Matthews, 1957; Vass, 1961; Swansboro, 1964; Tabor City, 1968; Rose Hill, 1970; Carthage, 1974; Carrboro, 1976; Shallotte: Camp, 1977; and he retired in 1980.

He was a kind and loving man who had a deep concern for the salvation of man's soul. He kept up his witness for the Lord all his life. The day he died he rode his bike over to a friend's house to get a Sunday School quarterly so he could teach on Sunday. And then, in a few minutes time while his wife was gone to take food to a sick friend, he passed into the life eternal.

David and Martha built their retirement home beside the sea at 308 58th St. NE, Long Beach, NC 28465. Funeral services were conducted at 3:00 p.m., June 30, at the Ocean View United Methodist Church in Yaupon Beach with the Reverend Gabriel Galdo, the Reverend Fred Roberts, and Wilmington District Superintendent Dr. Samuel McMillan officiating. Graveside services followed at 5:00 p.m. in Sharon United Methodist Church cemetery, Holden Beach. The Reverend Hobart W. Burnside, Jr., assisted at the graveside.

Serving as pallbearers were Bill Moe, John Hayes, Charles Overman, Paul Brown, Hubert Cheers, Jr., and Hobe Millard. Serving as honorary pallbearers were Bud Rinehart, Ted Starr, and Wally Davis.

JAMES GRAYSON SNYPES

Jim Snypes loved people and people loved him. In the light of our faith in the risen Christ, I prefer to put that sentence in the present tense. Jim still loves and is loved, and I thank God our paths crossed.

James Grayson Snypes was born in Goldsboro, November 5, 1923, to Mamie Ballenger Snypes and Luther Isaac Snypes, devout Christians who from his early childhood taught him to love the Lord and the Church. He was active in the First Baptist Church in Goldsboro until the Lord called him into the Methodist ministry. Jim married his childhood sweetheart, Marie Davis, on October 6, 1943. They were blessed with two daughters, Carolyn and Toni. Carolyn and her husband, Ellsworth Johnson, live in Wilmington. She has one son, James Grayson Jackson, who with his wife, Leanna, lives in Houston, TX. Toni and her husband, Harold Cardwell, live in Goldsboro and have one daughter, Kelly Marie, who is a freshman in high school.

Jim died July 1, 1991, after suffering a heart attack in the dentist's office. He was rushed to the hospital where he died almost immediately. His funeral was held July 5, 1991 at Shumate-Faulk Funeral Home in Goldsboro, with burial at Willowdale Cemetery. Goldboro District Superintendent J. Malloy Owen III, and the Reverend Thomas E. Loftis, pastor of St. Paul Church in Goldsboro, conducted the services.

A patriotic citizen who loved his country, Jim Snypes served in the Navy during World War II. He then worked as a salesman in his father's business prior to entering the ministry. The Reverend Hiram King, who was his district superintendent, advised Jim about the studies at the Duke Pastors' School necessary for him to be licensed to preach. He completed these summer studies while attending Atlantic Christian College (now Barton) in Wilson.

In June of 1956, he was appointed pastor of the Eureka-Yelverton Charge. After two years, he went to the Florida Conference, but due to health reasons stayed there only one year.

Soon he was appointed to the Wesley Circuit in Sampson County (Wesley's Chapel, Black's Chapel, Hopewell, and Mt. Moriah), where he served two years. That charge was then divided, and Jim was appointed to Hopewell-Mt. Moriah, where he served five more years. Both churches were completely renovated and a new parsonage was built and paid for under his leadership.

In 1965, he was received into full connection and in 1966 appointed to West Rockingham-Zion, serving two years and leading the Sanford District in net gain in evangelism. Major surgery was then followed by a year on disability. After recovering, Jim served Salem at Goldsboro, then Vanceboro, then Pink Hill, and finally St. Mark's-Lane's of Kinston followed by supernumerary status. During his supernumerary years, he served as chaplain to the apartment industry in Houston, TX, wrote a column for the Houston apartment industry's monthly magazine, and chaired a Ministries Committee for the huge Houston Apartment Association. Jim's committee trained lay persons and ministers to minister to apartment residents.

Returning to NC in 1979, Jim was appointed to Sunset Park in Wilmington where he served until his retirement in 1981. Living in Winston-Salem, he had two heart attacks and moved back to Goldsboro, his hometown. After six months as minister of visitation at St. Luke, he became part-time pastor of Asbury Church in Smithfield and continued there for six years. He preached his last sermon at Asbury UMC on June 30, 1991, the day before he died. Devoted to his Lord Jesus Christ, Jim Snypes was in love with his wife, Marie, and their family, serving as a vital and effective minister of the Gospel to the end. Jim endeared himself to us and we miss him. For his funeral service, his daughter, Toni, wrote a poem in loving memory of her father, which follows:

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY FATHER, JAMES G. SNYPES

My heart is so burdened and filled with such pain,
 The tears keep on falling from all the stress and the strain;
 I keep asking myself, did I tell you all the things that I wanted to say,
 Or were there words left unspoken, thinking there was time, and yet another day;
 You spent so many years, Dear Daddy, doing such good deeds in your life;
 You wanted only the best for each of us, your children, grandchildren, and most especially your wife;
 But, Jesus was first in your heart, His teachings you tried to convey;
 To let others know there was peace and joy by living for Him each day;
 You've fought so hard these past few years, doing all you could do, making sure everything was done;
 Now the pain and the suffering's all gone, the battle has finally been won;
 Though our hearts are burdened with sadness, we hear our Dear Jesus say:
 "Don't cry, dear children, put a smile on your face;
 Your daddy and husband is in a wonderful place;
 Streets lined with gold, mansions of glory, he's with Me in My home up above;
 So, sing praises to God and songs of glory, Jim's now surrounded by peace, joy, and love.

WILLIAM HERBERT FARMER, SR.1922 - 1991

The Reverend William H. (Billy) Farmer, retired Methodist minister, died December 29, 1991 in Wayne Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness. The son of Lamar G. and Mary Hooks Farmer, Billy was born September 1, 1922, in the Rones Chapel section of Duplin County, near Mount Olive. He was educated at Mount Olive College, Louisburg College and Duke University. He married Eula E. Lewis June 16, 1943.

Billy, a successful businessman and farmer in the Mount Olive area for many years, was very active in church, civic, and community affairs. He was a dedicated layman of Rones Chapel UMC, a charter member of the Rones Chapel Lions Club, and served on the Mount Olive School board. He loved the outdoors, and was an avid quail hunter and golfer.

In 1969, Billy entered the ministry, and faithfully served as pastor of Airboro UMC in Goldsboro for fifteen years before going on disability leave in June of 1984 due to ill health, and taking the retired relationship in June of 1989. His ministry at Airboro was characterized by his loyalty to God, and his genuine love and concern for his congregation.

Preceded in death by a grandson, William H. Farmer III, Billy is survived by his wife, Eula, of Mount Olive; a son, William, Jr., of Rock Ridge; two daughters, Carolyn Melton of Raleigh, and Linda K. Farmer of Powhatan, VA; three grandchildren, Beth and Scott Goodson, and Carrie Farmer; and a brother, Garland L. Farmer of Goldsboro.

Funeral services were held on December 31 in Mount Olive, with his longtime friend, Dr. Paul Edwards, officiating. Interment was in Wayne Memorial Park in Goldsboro.

Billy's involvement in the Mount Olive community, his love for his family, and indeed, his ministry at Airboro, can perhaps be best summarized by these words:

"I expect to pass through this world but once; therefore any good I can do or any kindness I can show, let me do it now; let me not deter nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again." (Attributed to Grellet)

CLARENCE POE MORRIS

1911 - 1992

C. P. Morris was a Christian educator with a pastor's heart. In the style and spirit of the Master Teacher he gave himself with selfless compassion to helping others become better equipped to be helpers of others.

The 81 years that his life spanned, 1911-1992, were epochal years in the life of Methodism in eastern NC - years that were touched in some rather profound ways by his gentle and caring ministry.

C. P. served Methodist Protestant churches in Kannapolis and in Danville, VA. Following the merger with the Methodist Episcopal Church and Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1937, he was pastor of Orange Charge, 1937; East Rockingham, 1942; and Troy: Trinity, 1946.

Beginning in 1950, and for more than twenty years, he served as Executive Secretary of the NC Conference Board of Education. With the merger with the Evangelical United Brethren Church in 1968, The United Methodist Church was formed and the Council on Ministries concept was added. C. P. gave strategic leadership to the Conference during that period while serving as associate director of that very first Conference Council on Ministries staff beginning in 1970.

In the early 1950's a decision was made by the Conference to move intentionally and aggressively into a small-group Camping Ministry. C. P. was a key leader of that movement, and was instrumental in the acquisition and development of our four Conference camps: Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee, Kerr Lake, and Rockfish. These programs of outdoor Christian Education and Fellowship were soon recognized throughout the American Camping Association as exemplary in quality and pioneering in character.

A key to the effectiveness of the NC Conference camping programs through the years has been quality leadership. The camps came along in an era when Christian Workers Schools and Laboratory Schools were in place for the training of leaders, teachers, and counselors for children, youth, and adults. Likewise, in the camping program, C. P. began serving as camp director of Don Lee in 1973, and he placed great emphasis on the role of skilled and dedicated Christian counselors who would spend 24 hours a day with a small group of campers, helping them to learn about, as well as experience, the meaning of Christian Community, by living it out in their activities, and in the relationships within the group.

Among his many gifts, C. P. Morris was known for his ability to embellish and tell a story. Many who worked closely with him will remember how he could entertain a group for some time reliving the drama of a prized antique piano that had been donated to Camp Don Lee, and the remarkable scene underneath the stop light at a major intersection in New Bern when, on its way to its new home at camp, the piano rolled off the back of the pick-up truck.

The unfolding of that story revealed something of his sense of humor, his gift as a door-opener for those looking for ways to give of themselves in the cause of Christ, and his ability to see value in the simple and ordinary parts of God's creation.

Just as the camper was encouraged to take a pebble, a pine cone, an acorn, a square foot of soil, and find in it a clue to God's creative handiwork, C. P. seemed to possess an intuitive recognition and appreciation of strength and worth in those around him which they themselves often were not able to see. That insightful love for people radiated compassion and encouragement, and became central to a style of leadership development that has provided motivation and training for tens of thousands of persons in the churches in eastern NC, and beyond. C. P. retired in 1976.

Clarence Poe Morris was born January 31, 1911, at Fallston, and died January 10, 1992 at Burlington. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Jack L. Hunter, pastor of Front Street UMC. Interment was at Alamance Memorial Park in Burlington.

He is survived by his wife, Myra Vaden Morris of Burlington, whom he married September 20, 1937; one daughter, Myra Harris also of Burlington; and three sons, Jerome of Falls Church, VA, Joel of West Bloomfield, MI, and David of Lexington, SC.

LEON ELWOOD HILL

Leon Elwood Hill was born in Smithfield on June 30, 1945 and died in Montgomery, AL on January 11, 1992. He was the son of the late Richard Elwood and Edith Vaden Blackmon Hill. He was a graduate of Smithfield High School, Campbell University, and Southeastern Theological Seminary. In 1970, he answered God's calling to become a minister and became a member of the NC Conference. He pastored the Aulander-Colerain-Lewiston Churches, Bethel-Rones Chapel Churches in the Mount Olive Community, Corinth-Antioch Churches in Four Oaks, and Brooks Frizzelle-Mt. Herman Churches in Maury.

In 1982, he fulfilled a longtime dream of becoming a military chaplain. He was sworn into the Air Force in June, 1982, and in August of that year was assigned to Altus Air Force Base, OK. After two years, he was transferred to Taegu, Korea where he served another two years. In October, 1986, he returned to NC to Seymour Johnson Air Force Base and remained there until July, 1991. During this period, he served in Desert Shield/Desert Storm in the Persian Gulf for six and one-half months. He considered this experience the highlight of his career because he felt that he was truly serving as God had called him to serve. Being able to minister to the young troops who were far from home was a real joy to him. At the time of his death he had attained the rank of major and had received the following medals: Air Force Commendation Medal with 1 Oak Leaf Cluster; the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award; the National Defense Service Medal; the South West Asia Medal with 2 stars; the Air Force Overseas, short tour; the Air Force Overseas, long tour; the Air Force Longevity Ribbon with 1 device; and the Air Force Training Ribbon.

In August, 1991, he was selected as one of only four chaplains to attend the Air Force Air Command and Staff College at Maxwell Air Force Base. Because of the small number of chaplains chosen to attend, this was a really big honor for him. He had attended classes earlier on the day that he became suddenly ill. He died the next morning following emergency surgery.

Leon was a wonderful husband, father, friend, and overall human being, as was shown by the magnitude of the crowd that attended the funeral services to pay their last respects to a man they would miss greatly.

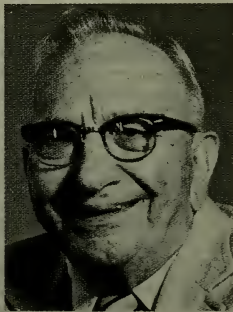

Funeral services were conducted at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base Chapel on January 15, 1992 by Chaplain Captain Steward A. Smith; Goldsboro District Superintendent J. Malloy Owen III, Chaplain Brigadier General Gerald Chancellor of the Command Chaplains' Office, Washington, DC; and Chaplain Colonel Al Hockaday, Commandant of the Chaplains School at Maxwell Air Force Base, AL. Interment followed in Wayne Memorial Park with full military honors.

Leon is survived by his wife, Peggy Higgins Hill, whom he married September 3, 1966; a son, Jimmy Wayne Hill of Kinston; a daughter, Sherry Hill Bowden of Raleigh; brothers, J. T. (Pete) Hill of Smithfield, Harvey Gene Hill of Selma, the Reverend Ralph Hill of Newton Grove, and Dixon Hill of Clayton; two sisters, Olive Creech of Smithfield, and Mary Elizabeth Austin of Selma.

Elwin H. Measamer was born in Union County on February 3, 1904, and moved at an early age to Sanford. His parents were Lewis A. and Nancy Starnes Measamer. He was educated in the Lee County Schools and later at John Brown Academy in Siloam Springs, AR; Weaver College in Weaverville; and Duke Divinity School in Durham. He took correspondence work from Emory University in Atlanta, GA and UNC - Chapel Hill. He married his first wife on December 25, 1927, the former Una Mae Elder of Chanute, KS, who shared the many years of his active ministry, but died in 1980.

The Measamers had two daughters, Anne Measamer Thompson of Chesapeake, VA, and Nancy Measamer Grady who died in 1981; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

After his retirement, Elwin married Mary Blanche Stokes on September 28, 1980, who was a member of the last church that he served. She survives him and is a resident of the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham. Other survivors include a brother, Percy Measamer of Sebring, FL.

Elwin was admitted into the NC Conference in 1930 and served for 40 years, more than half of that time in churches of the Rocky Mount District. His appointments included Town Creek, 1930; Newport, 1932; Rougemont, 1934; Fairfield, 1936; Dover, 1937; Laurel Hill, 1938; Orange, 1942; Littleton Circuit, 1945; Whitakers, 1948; Kenly, 1953; Aulander, 1958; Spring Hope, 1960; Wilson: First (associate), 1963; Middlesex, 1965; and Pinetops, 1967. After his retirement in 1970, he continued to live in the Pinetops Community until moving to the retirement home in 1983.

Elwin loved the NC Conference as a covenant community; he eagerly attended its sessions as long as he was physically able.

He died in Durham on March 2, 1992. A memorial service was conducted at St. John's Chapel in the Methodist Retirement Community on March 8 by the Reverend Diane M. C. Blanchard and the Reverend Dr. Gayle C. Felton.

If being a minister means above all to be a representative of Jesus Christ, then Elwin Measamer was one of the finest ministers that this Conference has ever known. In John 12, some Greeks came to Jerusalem telling the disciples that they wished to see Jesus. When Elwin preached, people saw Jesus - not simply in what he said, but more in who he was. His power came not from unusual learning or from extraordinary eloquence, it came out of the intimacy of his relationship with Christ. He manifested the presence and radiated the love of God as we know that love in Jesus Christ. He recognized, like John Wesley, that the mission of the church to the world was to "offer them Christ." When his church members hesitated to witness to their faith and to visit from house to house, he would acknowledge the many objections that people voice against the church. Then, in his meek and humble way, he would reply: "People can come up with all kinds of excuses when you invite them to come to church. What we need to do is to go out and invite them to come to Jesus." This he did throughout his long ministry.

Elwin lived for many years with constant pain and nagging disability which made him unable even to tie his own shoes. He evinced quiet courage and simple trust in God whose answer to him was the same as it had been to Paul: "My grace is sufficient for you; my strength is made perfect in your weakness." He was enabled to maintain his patience, his perseverance, his smile. To see him move about with cane or walker was to receive a sermon in how Christians can deal with adversity.

His life was a blessing; his ministry, a vehicle of grace; his death, a triumphal celebration of resurrection into life eternal. As Elwin Measamer enters the gates of heaven, surely he hears the voice of God saying to him: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter now into the joy of your Master."

Joseph J. Grimes was born in Duplin County on October 5, 1924. He was the son of Joseph and Maggie Teachey Grimes. As a young man, Joe was manager of an A & P Grocery, and was very active in the new Trinity Church in New Bern which was worshipping at that time in a meeting hall over Stallings Gas Company. The pastor became too sick to finish out the Conference year, and the church asked District Superintendent Hiram King if it would be all right for Joe to supply the pulpit for them for the remaining months until Annual Conference. After this time the PPR Committee told Mr. King that this young man had missed his calling and he belonged in the ministry. Joe was approached about this and after talking with his wife, Alene Stafford Grimes, he accepted something he had felt for some time - God's calling into the ministry.

He began serving Trenton, Oak Grove, and Maple Grove Churches in 1953 as a lay pastor, while working on the requirements to be taken into the NC Conference. These requirements were completed at Louisburg College and at Pastor's Summer School at Duke. He was ordained a deacon in 1957 and elder in 1968. He also served Trenton, 1953; Grimesland, 1954; Tempérance Hall, 1960; Pilmoor, 1961; Lanes-Bethany, 1965; Swan Quarter, 1968; South Camden, 1972; Springs-Chapel, 1974; Goshen-Keener, 1976; Gaston, 1980; Louisburg Circuit, 1983; Creswell, 1985; and Pasquatank, 1988. He retired in 1990; and since that time he, along with his wife, daughter and grandchildren, had been a very active part of Smith UMC in Roanoke Rapids.

He died on March 8, 1992 at Halifax Memorial Hospital. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Joe Lister, pastor of Smith UMC, and Rocky Mount District Superintendent Caswell Shaw. Interment was at the Smith Church Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Ruby Alene Stafford Grimes, whom he married August 24, 1944; four daughters, Wanda G. Labozzetta of Manassas, VA; Gloria Boyles of Greenville, SC; Patricia Clary of Roanoke Rapids, and Nancy Cox of Smithfield; two sons, Kenneth Grimes of Memphis, TN, and William Grimes of Gaston; two sisters, Bertha Evans of Wallace, and Vera Price of Seven Springs; a brother, Bill Grimes of Lake Lure; ten grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

He served the church faithfully as a pastor for over 37 years. Since his retirement he had endeared himself to the people at Smith UMC. He will be remembered there, and I am sure in many other places where he served, as a friend, a good churchman, and a loyal servant of Jesus Christ.

EMMIT CARNELIA McCALL

Emmit Carnelia McCall was born in Anderson, SC, November 6, 1922. He died March 25, 1992, in Grandy.

He served three and one-half years with the US Navy during World War II.

Emmit surrendered to the ministry of Jesus Christ in 1951. His education includes: Associate of Arts Degree, North Greenville Jr. College; Certificate of Theology, Fruitland Bible Institute; Master of Theology, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary; and Duke Pastors' School, a division of Duke Divinity School in Durham. He became a deacon in 1974, and was admitted into the NC Conference in 1976 as an Associate Member of the NC Conference, following several years service as a lay pastor.

He held the following pastorates: Aurora Charge (Greenville District), 1972; South River Charge (Fayetteville District), 1974; Star (Sanford District), 1978; Cobb Circuit (Burlington District), 1979; Shady Grove-Cypress Creek (New Bern District), 1981; Bladen Circuit (Wilmington District), 1984; and Currituck Charge (Elizabeth City District), 1987.

Emmit was scheduled to retire during the Annual Conference in June of 1992, but God called him home March 25, 1992. The funeral service was held at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, March 28, 1992 at Butler Funeral Home in Roseboro by Elizabeth City District Superintendent M. Randall Baker and the Reverend William J Witt, Jr. A graveside service was held March 29, 1992, 3:00 p.m. at Hillcrest Memorial Park at Pickens, SC, by the Reverends Lester C. Rich and Wayne F. Harper.

Emmit married Blanche Heaton October 12, 1946. Out of this union they were blessed by three sons and two daughters.

He is survived by his wife, Blanche; three sons, George A. of Manassas, VA, Gene L. of Mobile, AL, and Myron A. of Anderson, SC; two daughters, Janice Biggs of Kalamazoo, MI, and Rose M. McCall of Autryville.

Emmit McCall, affectionately called "Preacher" by his family, was a dedicated Christian man, called by God to be a preacher in word and deed. He was a pastor who cared for and loved those whom God gave him to minister over. Knowing of Emmit's faith in God, his dedication to his Church and to his family, I am reminded of St. Paul's words: "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." I am equally sure that he was greeted at heaven's door with these words: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou the joy of the Lord."

JERE ALTON ROUSE

The Reverend Jere A. Rouse was born on October 3, 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rouse in Lenoir County. At the completion of his education, he began working for DuPont where he made a significant contribution for 31 years before his formal retirement. Shortly after meeting his wife, Marie Poole, a nurse from LaGrange, they were married August 24, 1957.

The untimely death of Jere on June 5, 1992, left a void that only heightened the love and admiration that his church families felt for him. He is survived by his wife, Marie; his daughter, Virginia Richardson; three grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. Carol Rouse; and a brother, David. A memorial service was held in LaGrange on June 7 by the Reverend Paul L. Leeland.

Jere obtained a license to preach in 1963 and became a deacon in 1966. He began his pastoral ministry as a local pastor at Lucama Methodist Church. He served Beston and Bethel United Methodist Churches where the people of Beston came under his preaching and influence for 17 years. His commitment to churches of small membership continued when he accepted an appointment to Woodington-Webb United Methodist Churches for 12 years prior to his death.

The call of God upon Jere's life while working at DuPont allowed him to bring a maturity of spirit and wealth of practical experience to his pulpit that gave his congregations a great sense of security. This spring he received 12 confirmands on the same day. This same maturity fostered a spiritual insight that encouraged his colleagues in ministry to seek him out for continued support and counsel. The high esteem in which this gentle pastor was held was reflected in the large attendance of his ministerial colleagues at the time of his death.

While the biblical qualities of guiding, sustaining, nurturing, healing, and personal care gave Jere the character of a great shepherd, it was his love of God, and the people of God, that best saw him reflected in the words of the Psalmist,

"Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked,

Nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water, that yields its fruit in its season,

And its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers." (Psalm 1)

The sacred call of ministry invited Jere to give great attention to detail and perfection. In the recent Capital Funds Campaign for the NC Conference, he gave strong leadership in aiding his congregations at Woodington-Webb to be among the first churches in the Conference to pay its complete goal to support new church development and camping ministry.

Often seen as a man of patience and thoughtfulness, his spiritual testimony provided his congregations a strong sense of trust, encouragement, and hope that the people of God have come to expect from those who are called by God to preach and to pastor. Jere faithfully ministered to the spiritual needs of the people under his care through their illness and disappointments. His compassion toward others provided a paradigm for all who are initiated into the Body of Christ.

Our hearts overflow in grateful appreciation for this servant of Christ whom many were privileged to call Friend.

MARY VANDEAN WILKINSON JOYNER

1903 - 1991

Mary Wilkinson Joyner, born April 12, 1903, in Mecklenburg County, the daughter of A. M. and Ferrie Smith Wilkinson, was graduated in 1924 from Duke University. She married Frank Belton Joyner, a Methodist minister, on September 1, 1926. Their first appointment was Kenly, followed by Cary, Faison, Chadbourn, Fairmont, and Siler City, where her husband, Belton, died in 1949.

After the death of her husband, Mary taught in the Siler City and Silk Hope public schools.

In 1970 Mary moved from Siler City to Greensboro and became just as faithful to her new church, West Market Street United Methodist Church, as she had been to those she had served with her husband.

Mary died in Greensboro June 26, 1991, and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Siler City. Dr. Garland Young and the Reverend Earl Gibson conducted a Service of Remembrance at West Market Street Church in Greensboro June 28, 1991.

Surviving Mary are three children, Beth Joyner Conerly of Sandy Ridge, Peggy Ann Joyner of Greensboro, and F. Belton Joyner, Jr., of Raleigh, five grandchildren, and eleven great-grandchildren. She was predeceased by one grandchild.

Mary was the wife of a Methodist minister (the Reverend F. B. Joyner, Sr.); the daughter-in-law of a Methodist minister (the Reverend L. H. Joyner); the mother of a Methodist minister (Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., currently district superintendent of the Raleigh District); and mother-in-law of a Methodist minister (the Reverend R. H. Conerly, for 28 years a missionary in Mexico).

The legacy Mary Joyner left for others was built on her abiding faith in the graciousness of God, Whom she knew as a friend and as a special source of strength.

EDNA MARGUERITE FLORENCE POLLOCK

Edna Marguerite Pollock was born on January 29, 1909 near Stanford, Kentucky to Otis and Juanita Florence. While a young high school girl in Wilmore, Kentucky, she met and fell in love with Henry Fulton Pollock, then a student at Asbury College. They were married September 17, 1927. To this marriage came five sons, one of whom died in infancy, Francis Asbury Pollock, at the age of fifteen months. The other four sons are all United Methodist pastors: Henry Morrison of Reidsville; Robert Fulton of Effingham, IL; James Simpson of Kingsport, TN; and Charles Luther of Durham.

Marguerite was a faithful companion to her clergy husband. In her younger years she worked faithfully beside him in the churches they served together. In addition to her musical contributions, she worked in the areas of Christian Education and Drama. Together, they served the following churches in Pennsylvania, her husband's native state: West Liberty, Connellsville, Addison, Fayette City, Maple Town, Wurtemburg, Midway, Marion Center, Kittanning, Washington, Dravosburg, New Florence, and Belsano. In 1953, the Pollocks transferred to the North Carolina Conference where they served: Maury-Mt. Herman, Goshen-Keener, Kenly-Buckhorn, Atlantic, Beech Grove Charge, Woodington-Webb, and Kinston Circuit from which they retired in 1967. In January of 1982, they became residents of the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham.

Marguerite always received great pleasure from others. Her eyes especially would sparkle at the mention of her husband, or one of her four "preacher boys." Having passed her musical talents along to her sons, she delighted many years in their singing.

Marguerite Florence Pollock died July 11, 1991 in Durham. A Memorial Service was held at Aldersgate UMC of Durham on Sunday, July 14, led by the Reverends Nathan Byrd, Albert Shuler, and Kimberly Garner. Internment was at Keener UMC near Clinton.

Her heritage is found in the smile, gentleness, and humor passed on to her sons and grandchildren, and to the witness of the faith in Jesus Christ now carried by her family.

Marguerite is survived by her husband, her sons, their spouses, two sisters, sixteen grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren.

Robert Fulton Pollock, Sr.

BEULAH MAE McLEAN McPHAIL REGAN

Beulah McLean McPhail Regan was born February 2, 1903 in Cumberland County. She was one of twelve children of Marshall A. McLean and Laura Mae McDonald McLean.

Beulah was a graduate of Buies Creek Academy, now known as Campbell University. She taught school in Hope Mills for several years. Her first husband was John William McPhail of Robeson County. Beulah loved children, although she never had any of her own, she was always doing for other children in the family. She was known by some of her nieces and nephews as "Aunt B." After her marriage to Robert, she then became "Grandma" to his grandchildren. She enjoyed being with young people and they liked being with her. All her life she stayed busy working and doing for others. She had a green thumb and loved her flowers. She also liked to cook, especially cakes, and gave them to family members, friends, and neighbors. For several years she was a dressmaker and a well-known sales lady for some dress shops in Lumberton. She did beautiful crochet work and enjoyed sharing it with others. She was always working with her hands and was able to do so until about two weeks before her death.

Beulah was the second wife of the Reverend James Robert Regan, Sr., who had retired from over 30 years in the ministry in 1968. Beulah and Robert had known each other in high school. After Robert retired from the ministry and his first wife, Selma Cain Regan, had passed, and Beulah had been a widow for many years, their paths crossed again in 1981. They were married in the chapel of Haymount UMC in Fayetteville on April 27, 1982. They maintained both homes during their marriage - her home in Lumberton and his home in Fayetteville. Robert died on July 17, 1989 after an illness of several months.

Beulah Regan died on August 14, 1991 in a nursing home in Fayetteville. Funeral services were held in Lumberton on August 16, with the Reverend Herman Winberry conducting the service. Burial was in Meadowbrook Cemetery in Lumberton.

She is survived by one brother and one sister, Angus McLean, Sr., of Wilmington, and Mrs. (James) Lucille Saunders of Fayetteville; several nieces and nephews; two stepsons, the Reverend James Robert Regan, Jr., of Fredericksburg, VA, and Herbert Alexander Regan of Raleigh; eight step-grandchildren; and eight step-great grandchildren.

EVA MAE POWELL GREGORY1911 - 1991

Eva Mae Powell Gregory, a member of New Hope United Methodist Church in the Rocky Mount District, was born October 18, 1911 in Halifax County, the daughter of the late Herbert and Nora Morris Powell.

Following several years of failing health, at the age of 79, she entered into eternal rest on Saturday morning, August 31, 1991 while at Halifax Memorial Hospital. She is survived by her husband, the Reverend Walter Bryan Gregory, Sr.; two sons, Walter B. Gregory, Jr., of Matthews, and William David Gregory of Lilburn, GA; and four grandchildren.

Dr. James (Jerry) L. Bryan conducted services on Monday at 2:00 p.m. at the New Hope Church. Burial was held in the Morris family cemetery. Hockaday Funeral Home of Roanoke Rapids handled the funeral arrangements.

Eva Mae was married to Bryan Gregory on October 24, 1943. Prior to retirement in 1980, they served pastorates together for over 37 years in the North Carolina Conference: City Road-White Memorial in Henderson, South Camden, Town Creek, Stumpy Point, Hatteras, Kitty Hawk, Creswell, Whiteville Circuit, Bath, Harrellsville, Shallotte, Dublin, Garland, and Bonlee.

Eva Mae was more than helpmate to her husband, more than mother to her sons, and more than friend to those in her midst. She was a blessing to all who knew and loved her because she was of the spirit, that gentle and quiet spirit as spoken of in I Peter 3:4.

VIRGINIA MAY PARTINGTON PRITCHARD

1913 - 1991

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." (Psalm 116:15) On September 14, 1991, the Lord welcomed home one of His saints when Virginia May Partington Pritchard died as the result of a brain tumor.

Virginia was born on March 22, 1913, in Evansville, IN, to William S. and Lula Doss Partington.

After graduating from high school in Evansville, she entered Stephens College in Columbia, MO, where she met and became engaged to Ralph William Pritchard. They were married on August 30, 1935, and entered the Methodist ministry in Indiana.

After serving several churches in Indiana and Massachusetts, they moved to North Carolina. Here, they served the Rich Square Circuit, Wesley Heights in Fayetteville, Cordova, Swepsonville, and Wesley Memorial in Raleigh.

Virginia was a dedicated and faithful wife and mother. She served the Lord quietly and unselfishly as a pianist, Sunday School teacher, choir member, member of the UMW, and in many other jobs. She was active in scouts and many other community activities wherever they lived. She was generous with her time, love and talents, and was loved by all who knew her.

After retiring from the ministry, they lived for a time in Raleigh, where they continued to be active in the church. They moved to Clover, SC, to be near their daughters and some of their grandchildren. In Clover, they joined First United Methodist Church and local senior citizens groups where Virginia continued to be active for several years.

Virginia and Ralph are the parents of four children: Ralph William Pritchard II, who died in 1986; Jerry Paul Pritchard of Raleigh; Martha Pritchard Bostick of Gastonia; and Virginia Pritchard Johnson of Clover, SC. She is also survived by a brother, Paul V. Partington of Evansville, IN; and seven grandchildren.

A funeral service was conducted by the Reverend William L. Edwards and the Reverend A. Mickey Fisher at First United Methodist Church, Clover, SC, on September 17, 1991. Interment was at Lakeview Memory Gardens, York, SC.

CHARLOTTE ELIZABETH SAVORY CHARLTON

Charlotte Savory Charlton was born in Petersburg, VA on November 23, 1902, the daughter of Herbert Alfred Savory and Carletta Irene Goodwin. She was educated in the public schools and attended the Baptist Institute in Philadelphia, PA, where she earned a degree in Christian Education. While in school she met David Wayland Charlton, Sr., who was then a student at Crozier Theological Seminary.

They were married on June 11, 1925, and began serving the First Baptist Church in Altavista, VA. It was here that two sons were born. David W. Charlton, Jr., who is now a retired member of the WNC Conference, and William Love Charlton, who is now a retired school principal from Goldsboro City Schools.

As the years went by, mother became a grandmother, rejoiced, enjoyed, and loved six grandchildren. One of her greatest joys in life was to be with and watch grow up: Joy, David III, Ralph, Herb, LouAnn, and Preston. Mother now has two great-grandchildren, Lindsay and Jamie, and we, as a family, wish so much that she could have known and enjoyed them.

Mother had an interesting church background. Her father was a life-time member of West End Baptist Church in Petersburg, VA, and her mother was a faithful member of High Street UMC. The way this played out was that she married a Baptist minister, and served 20 years in Virginia and Maryland. They then became United Methodists. Dad became a member of the NC Conference and their first appointment was in Manteo. I don't think I ever saw mother quite as happy and at peace as she was in the parsonage at Manteo. They went on to serve churches in Manteo, Goldsboro Circuit, Bethesda, Daniels Memorial in Goldsboro, Wesley Heights in Fayetteville, Enfield, and Swansboro. After retirement he served St. Mark in Kinston and as minister of visitation at St. Paul in Goldsboro.

In retirement, they lived in Goldsboro until my dad's death on January 9, 1978. Mother was uniquely qualified to be a minister's wife. She was trained in Christian Education, trained in music, played the organ, piano, and sang. The truth of the matter was that during those years, the churches were getting a "team ministry," as she was active in every phase of church life. The churches were getting two ministers for the price of one. There were "lean years," but mother excelled as a cook, housekeeper, and in general, "making ends meet." She was indeed a devoted and dedicated mother and minister's wife.

It is very difficult to write about the last years of mother's life. After dad's death in 1978, she moved to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. She never adjusted well to life there due to many health problems, and finally ended up in the Health Care Center.

Her health continued to decline and deteriorate. It is hard to make much sense out of this kind of existence. It became more difficult to communicate with her, and somewhere along the way we had "lost our mother."

Her physical death came on October 17, 1991. Services were conducted at the Wayne Memorial Cemetery Chapel by the Reverend Tom Loftis and the Reverend Bob Bame on October 19, 1991.

Mother's life was never easy. There was pain, heartache, and struggle; however, there also were many joys and much fulfillment. At her memorial service, I shared with family and friends these words that seem so exactly appropriate for her. These famous words of Dr. Martin Luther King: "Free at last, Free at last, Thank God Almighty, I'm free at last."

Her son, David

ELOISE HARRIS SORRELL ROBBINS

1908 - 1991

Eloise Harris Sorrell Robbins was born April 10, 1908 in Chapel Hill, and went to be with her Lord October 22, 1991 in the Coble Health Care Center of the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham. She was graduated in 1925 from the Chapel Hill High School and continued her studies in music in Richmond, VA.

Eloise joined the Marrow's Chapel UMC near Bullock in Vance County on July 12, 1917 when she was nine years of age. The church was named for her family, the Marrow family, her mother being Bessie Marrow. Eloise was named for her grandmother, the former Eloise Harris, who married Daniel Isham Marrow. The Marrow family was actively involved in all areas of the church, with special emphasis placed on the finances. Each year they made their rounds to the farmers soliciting their help with the church budget. The farmers gave what they could afford, and the Marrow family finished out the church budget for the year. Eloise attended the Sunday School and worship services, was pianist-choir director, a steward, and Sunday School teacher for many years.

It was in July of 1932 that she met Cecil Wayne Robbins who, along with Warren Candler Budd, came to Marrow's Chapel Church for a revival as a part of their work at the Duke University Divinity School in association with the Duke Endowment Rural Church Program. Eloise and Cecil were married on April 12, 1933 in the Marrow family home by the late Reverend Paul Fields, pastor of Marrow's Chapel Church, and Raleigh District Superintendent Dr. F. S. Love. Marrow's Chapel lost its musician-choir director as they moved to Marners UMC, serving there for two years. They also served Jenkins Memorial in Raleigh, Fremont, Mount Olive-Calypso, and the Warrenton Charge. The couple served 16 years in pastorates of the NC Annual Conference.

The Methodist Board of Publication elected Cecil as editor and manager of the NC Christian Advocate. He assumed that responsibility on February 1, 1949. He served in that capacity until July 1, 1955 when he assumed the presidency of Louisburg College, which he served through 1974. The couple continued to live in Louisburg until May 19, 1981 when they moved to the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham.

Eloise was a devoted wife and companion, and was deeply loved by the people in every appointment that they served. She had never moved but one time before she joined the Methodist itinerancy, but once she got settled in each new place of service, it was difficult for her to leave. She was always loyal and supportive of her husband, her church, and those they served. She loved her home in Louisburg and did not want to leave, but as her health began to fail, they moved to the Methodist Retirement Community. Once she was settled in, she never complained, and she was happy during the 10 and one-half years there.

Eloise had a very sharp mind, and a very special sense of humor, which remained with her right up to the last days of her life.

She loved and supported Marrow's Chapel Church throughout the years and returned there to worship every time she got the opportunity.

Eloise's love for Marrow's Chapel and the UM institutions will always be remembered. It was in her last years that she expressed her desire to do something more for the church she loved so much. It was during these discussions that she decided to donate portions of the proceeds of the sale of the original Marrow family plantation, which she had inherited from the Marrow family, as follows: a bequest to the Methodist Retirement Community; to the Marrow's Chapel UMC to establish the Marrow Endowment Fund, with the income to be used for the upkeep of the buildings, cemetery, and grounds; to Louisburg College to set up a music scholarship with the income being awarded to aid several students each year who wish to study piano, organ, or voice, but felt that the extra tuition cost would be difficult to pay. Eloise loved music as was witnessed by her serving as organist at Louisburg College for many years, and as organist at the Louisburg UMC for 14 years. Our hearts are touched and reminded of her continued love and support of the ministry of The UMC.

It was an honor and privilege to celebrate the Eloise Sorrell Robbins Day at Marrow's Chapel Church in October 1988. Eloise was there to enjoy her day, to address the church regarding her love for the church, and her hopes for it to continue to minister to the needs of the people for the glory of God.

Eloise Sorrell Robbins was a true saint of God, and her life and ministry will continue to be a blessing to the people of Marrow's Chapel and to the Methodist people of NC. She is not with us physically, but we will always be reminded of her spiritual presence with us. We shall miss her presence among us, but we shall continue to love her and to cherish those fond memories we have of the life we have shared with her.

Eloise is survived by her husband, Dr. Cecil W. Robbins; a son, William Robert; a daughter, Faye Eloise Robbins; a grandson, William Robert, Jr.; and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral service was held in the Louisburg UMC by the following ministers: Dr. Wallace Kirby, Chaplain Diane Blanchard, the Reverends Gray Southern, Floyd Morrow, and Wade Goldston. Interment was in the family plot of the Louisburg Cemetery.

May God rest the soul of Eloise Sorrell Robbins, His faithful servant.

Floyd R. Morrow

NELL DAVIS FORBES

The Apocryphal writing of Sirach declares: "A good wife is a generous gift bestowed upon him who fears the Lord." (Sirach 26:3 NAB) Nell Davis Forbes incarnated this profound truth in her marriage to Daniel Mercer Forbes, Jr.

Nell was born April 22, 1931 in Old Trap, Camden County, to Edward J. and Mary Burgess Davis. She was married to Daniel Mercer Forbes, Jr., December 20, 1947. Early about 4:00 a.m. Sunday morning, December 22, 1991, Nell slipped quietly into the "valley of the shadow of death" at home, following a valiant six year struggle with cancer. She is survived by her husband and their two children, Wilford Davis Forbes of Belvidere, and Betty Christine Forbes Blaylock, who resides at home with her father; three grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Two memorial services were held to praise the living God and celebrate Nell's life. The first was conducted at Trinity UMC of Kinston on Monday evening, December 23, 1991 at 7:00 p.m. with Goldsboro District Superintendent J. Malloy Owen III, presiding. The second memorial service was held at Nell's home church, Wesley UMC in Camden County, on Thursday afternoon, December 26, 1991 at 3:00 p.m. That service was conducted by the Reverend J. Malloy Owen III, and Elizabeth City District Superintendent M. Randall Baker.

The late Methodist Bishop, Ralph Spaulding Cushman, wrote of a sublime truth in his poem, "The Glorious Minority," when he penned these lines:

There are two kinds of people - you know them,
As you journey along on life's track
The people who take your strength from you,
And others who put it all back.

Nell was one of those dear persons who enabled others to find renewed strength. She was a burden-bearer who sought to lighten the burdens of others. She was an "encourager" who constantly sought to enable others and cheer them on, especially in life's dreary hour.

This writer knew Nell Forbes as a sweet-spirited, gracious, compassionate, and faithful servant of our Lord. Her keen wit and effervescent personality were twin attributes that endeared her to us all.

Nell was truly an unselfish and caring person whose gentle spirit and kind manner contributed mightily to the many deep and abiding friendships she developed with church members and fellow employees in the greater community. Her sense of allegiance to our Lord was unyielding and secondary to nothing else. Her servanthood is a testament to her single-minded obedience to the living Lord whom she so greatly loved and so devoutly served in the Church of our Lord.

Nell indeed was a good wife, a good mother, and simply a good and decent person who would not wish to be "enlarged in death beyond what she was in life."

While she is much missed, we claim as truth the immortal words of Whittier:

God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly what He hath given;

They live on earth, in thought and deed, as truly as in His heaven.

ESTELLE CHANNELL ROSE CAUDILL

Estelle Channell Rose Caudill was born in Seaboard on December 10, 1903, the daughter of James Walter and Mattie Piland Rose. She died December 26, 1991 at the Coble Health Care Center of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham.

She grew up in Seaboard, attended schools there, and went to Trinity College in Durham, until the death of her mother, at which time she was compelled to return home to take care of her father and younger brother. At Trinity, she met my father, Russell Horton Caudill, and they were married February 16, 1924. While living in Durham waiting for my father to finish Divinity School, she taught music and played piano at the Erwin Auditorium for silent movies.

She was a constant helpmate for my father as they first joined the Western North Carolina Conference and later the North Carolina Conference. She made a special home for my father, my two brothers and myself in the many charges they were assigned. They were Hot Springs (a charge of eight churches), Biltmore Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, Gastonia, Leland, Princeton, Clayton, Rockingham, and Spring Lake. At every location she was very active. Her talent and love for music was great. She was choir director, played the piano or organ, usually taught music, and still found time to be a loving wife and mother.

For many, many years I remember her as a dedicated minister's wife, a very loving mother, a gracious hostess, and a very proud "Nannymama" to her 11 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren. However, her last six years were sad as we watched Alzheimer's claim her talents and her memory, but never her spirit. Always she was loved by many, and so it was to the end.

She died at the Coble Health Care Center in Durham near the place of happier days of her youth and early marriage. The funeral service was in Fuquay-Varina, led by her youngest son, Chaplain Charles Caudill, Chaplain of VMI at Lexington, VA. Her children, James R. Caudill of Fuquay-Varina, and Venita C. Peterson (Mrs. Wayne) of Todd, as well as Chaplain Caudill, survive her. She was buried beside her husband, Russell, who died on October 22, 1975. Her interment was at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens in Fuquay-Varina.

Her Daughter

Doris C. Hill was born March 5, 1933, in Johnston County, daughter of Aaron Redding and Bessy Collins Cobb. She was the second of seven children. On August 8, 1949, she married Richard Charles Hill. It was a union that would last until his death 37 years later. Together, they were blessed with the birth of five children, whom they brought up in a warm, loving, Christian environment. Doris, my mother, is survived by all her children: Deborah Jones and Donna Hill of Smithfield, Bonnie Andrews and the Reverend Robert Hill of Trenton, and the Reverend Richard C. Hill, Jr., of Selma, as well as eight grandchildren.

In 1968, my father entered into the ministry of The United Methodist Church. Initially, he was unsure of what his call to God's ministry involved. My mother told him that if God had called them into the ministry, He would provide for their needs. In the churches to which my father was appointed, I recall that young people adopted my mother as mom. Those her own age became sisters, and still other women often became like mothers to her. Because of her unselfish kindness, compassion, and acceptance of all people, she was well-loved. She often opened her home to others, sometimes for a meal, or a place to stay for a while. She never complained, to her this was not a duty because she knew it was another way of service to the Lord. She remembered the words "Whatsoever you do to the least of my brothers, that you do unto me."

Diligent in many things, I saw a great deal of faith in my mother. She lived her faith, and even copied four different translations of the Bible in long-hand, and had completed one-half of another translation just before her death. She was a shining example in the life of all who knew her. My sisters, my brother, and I are very proud to be the children of such a loving, giving person.

She wanted each of us to pass from this world into the next with the opportunity to be reunited in Heaven. In the early morning of February 2, 1992, she left this world in pain never to suffer again. The service of worship for her interment was held at Sanders Chapel UMC of Smithfield.

Mama, we miss you, but have the assurance that we will meet again.

Richard C. Hill, Jr.

EMMA LEE HAYES PEELE

Emma H. Peele lacked only a few months of serving God for 20 years as the parish partner of a United Methodist minister. She loved people, she loved her family, she loved airplanes, and she loved God.

Emma died February 5, 1992. A memorial service and reception were held at Zion UMC in Leland, with the Reverend Doctor Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Wilmington District superintendent, preaching.

She was born Emma Lee Hayes on February 15, 1933, in Laurinburg, the daughter of Luther P. and Nellie B. Hayes. She married L. M. (Billy) Peele on August 6, 1950, and raised three children: L. Martin of Salisbury; R. Hampton of Baton Rouge, LA; and Audrey Melinda of Wilmington.

Emma and Billy entered the United Methodist ministry in 1972, and together served three appointments: nine years at Wrightsboro, four years at Oleander-Devon Park, and seven years at Zion, all in the Wilmington District.

Emma had a natural talent of expressing herself and her love of God through poetry. If she could, she probably would say to us now as she said on Christmas of 1990:

LOVE BURST FORTH

His Love burst forth in purest form that first blest Christmas day.
 The Son of God, our Christ, was born and in a manger lay.
 The silent, star-lit night lay hushed in majesty and awe.
 A new born babe, the world's new hope, lay pillowed on the straw.
 The presence of Almighty God, incarnate in a babe,
 Brought joy and healing to mankind, whom he had come to save.
 The angels sang the great good news to shepherds in the fields.
 "Fear not..." The angel's message rang through valleys and through hills.
 "For unto you is born this day...A Saviour...Christ, the Lord."
 The Saviour came that all might live in peace, with one accord.
 We tell the story - old, yet new - again each year with joy;
 Of Mary, and of Joseph, and of Jesus, baby boy,
 The animals, the swaddling clothes, the manger bed, the stall,
 The angels, shepherds, heavenly host; we love to tell it all;
 The wise men from the East who came, with gifts, to see the child;
 The one bright, shining, guiding star that led them all the while.
 Somehow it seems so simple, yet it's hard to understand:
 Since God loved us enough to come and give himself for man,
 Can we not love each other, too - live up to his desire?

Can we not let OUR love burst forth to comfort and inspire?
Yes, Love burst forth in purest form on that first Christmas day.
The steadfast love of God came down to hold us in full sway,
To save us and to comfort us, to give us life and hope,
To give us joy and peace of mind, that love might come full scope.
Let's let OUR love burst forth at last. Steadfastly, Lord, we pray
That all mankind may know and love the Love born Christmas day.

Emma H. Peele is being missed by many people.

VERA DELORES STEWART PHILLIPS

Dee Phillips, through her ministry of nursing, had helped patient after patient fight whatever invaded their health. And when the diagnosis of cancer came in January, 1987, she began her own fight. It was a long struggle, five years of surgery, chemotherapy, radiation, and following the advice of those who sought to help at Duke Medical Center in Durham, Rex Hospital in Raleigh, and the National Cancer Institute in Bethesda, MD. She wrote in her journal, "I do not want to die, so I will try not to anytime soon," and she did try valiantly, finally surrendering to death just before her forty-sixth birthday.

Dee was born on March 1, 1946 at Fredericksburg, MD, the daughter of John Calvin and Jewelle Clinton Stewart. Graduating from high school in Stanton, VA in 1964, she entered the NC Baptist School of Nursing at Bowman-Gray Hospital in Winston-Salem. After finishing there and being licensed by the state, she began her practice in the pediatric unit of Wake Medical Center in Raleigh. Attending worship at Layden Memorial UMC, she and the pastor, Grady Paul Phillips III, fell in love and were married at Duke University Chapel on April 20, 1968. She and Paul became the parents of Elizabeth Grey (Beth) and David Blair (Blair), born in 1972 and 1975.

When Paul was appointed to the Carolina Beach Church shortly after their marriage in 1968, Dee joined the nursing staff at the Babies Hospital in Wilmington and remained there until Beth was born in 1972. History repeated itself when the Scotland Neck appointment was made in 1973, as Dee began her practice at Our Community Hospital, leaving that position when Blair was born in 1975. The next move was to McMannen Church in Durham (1977) and she devoted her energies to being a full-time homemaker. In 1980, when Paul was appointed to First Church in Mount Gilead, Dee switched to geriatrics at the Biscoe Nursing Home. Because of Paul's strong ministry to children and his interest in outdoor ministries, he was appointed as Associate Director of the CCOM in 1985, and the family moved to Raleigh. Before her health problems, Dee practiced at the Brian Center.

The Phillips bought a home at Lake Junaluska which became their "special place apart," and from there she saw, during her summer stays, that all NC folks felt a special welcome to the assembly ground. Shoney's strawberry pies were constantly being brought back from Waynesville to be distributed to those who needed some special care. Besides her tasks as a wife and mother and nurse, Dee was an antique buff and would see that the car stopped at any place that looked as though it might have some ancient treasures.

The battle with cancer lasted for five years. Dee died at Rex Hospital in Raleigh on Wednesday, February 19, 1992. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Steven A. Hickie at Fairmont UMC in Raleigh on Saturday, February 22. Burial was at the McMannen UMC cemetery in Durham. In addition to Paul, Beth, and Blair, she is survived by her mother, Jewelle Stewart, and her sister, Cecelia S. Harris, both of Sanford.

Dee's faith, even though she journaled that she did not want to die, gave her the assurance that "not even death would separate her from God." That faith sustains those of us who grieve.

MARGARET LILLIAN MARKS COOPER

Margaret Lillian Marks Cooper was born September 26, 1910 in Louisburg, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie W. Marks.

On November 25, 1932, she married the late Reverend John Alwyn Cooper (1909-1959) of Franklin County.

Margaret became a full-time minister's wife in 1948 when her husband was appointed pastor of the Lumberton Circuit, and remained by his side through appointments to the Bladen Charge, Newton Grove Charge, and Pollocksville Charge. Two Sundays a month while at the Lumberton Circuit the family would have to leave home at 8:00 in the morning not returning until 9:00 or 10:00 in the evening, dining with and working among members of three churches. What a tremendous amount of grace, patience, love, and dedication that took to keep going that along with three small children.

Upon her husband's death after a brief illness in 1959, Margaret Cooper, and her daughter, Louise, immediately moved to Fayetteville to live with her daughter, Jessie Mae Smith, and she has remained in Fayetteville continuously since that time.

I have known Margaret Cooper for the past three years as pastor of Culbreth UMC where she has been a member for the past 31 years. I have never met a kinder, more loving person than Margaret. She was what love is all about - "...very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, never haughty or selfish or rude." She did not demand her own way but was always giving, always caring, always unselfish, and always loving and kind. When I visited her and started to leave asking if I might have a word of prayer, she would say, "You can't leave until you do." On every visit she told me of her love for the Lord and how she was ready to go to Him when He was ready to call her home. She would tell me of her love for her late husband, her children, her grandchildren, and her great-grandchildren.

Margaret Cooper passed away at Highsmith-Rainey Memorial Hospital in Fayetteville on March 30, 1992, after almost two years in a skilled care nursing facility, after several years of failing health and numerous surgical procedures.

Surviving are two daughters, Louise Goodman, and Jessie Mae Smith of Fayetteville; one son, John Marks Cooper of Newton Grove; one brother, L. W. Marks of Charlotte; one sister, Grace Spencer of Louisburg; four grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

I Need the Quiet by D. F. Perry fits the spirit of Margaret Cooper:

I needed the quiet so he drew me aside In the shadows where we could confide,
Away from the bustle where all day long I hurried and worried when active and strong.
I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled but gently my cross he upheld
And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things. Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings,
To heights never dreamed of when active and gay. He loved me so greatly, He drew me away.

I needed the quiet no prison my bed, But a beautiful valley of blessing instead,
A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide, I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.

HAZEL JONES WHEELER

Hazel Jones Wheeler died at Waterman Memorial Hospital in Eustis, FL, on May 7, 1992 at the age of 81. She was the wife of the Reverend Kermit Roosevelt Wheeler, who retired from the North Carolina Conference in 1979 after serving over a span of 39 years. They then moved to Mount Dora, FL.

Her funeral was on Mother's Day at Mount Dora United Methodist Church, where the Reverend Mr. Wheeler serves as an assistant minister. Mrs. Wheeler also was active in the Mount Dora church, serving as president of the United Methodist Women. She was buried in Pine Forest Cemetery in Mount Dora.

In the North Carolina Conference, the couple faithfully served churches and carried the Methodist Christian message to the following areas: Rougemont, 1940; Aurora, 1943;

Wilmington: Wesley Memorial, 1944; Roseboro, 1948; Wallace, 1950; Durham: Calvary, 1954; Raeford, 1957; Roxboro: Long Memorial, 1962; Burlington: Davis Street, 1965; Laurinburg: First, 1968; Farmville, 1972; and Red Springs: Trinity, 1976.

Viola Cameron Wright was born March 2, 1899 in Durham, the daughter of Daniel Bruce and Jennie Woods Cameron. As a young woman, Viola studied music, and was graduated from the Southern Conservatory of Music.

On January 3, 1923, she married the Reverend Nathan Martin Wright. Their union was blessed with the birth of two sons: Wilson Bruce and Nathan Collins. For 15 years the Wrights worked together in Christian ministry, serving Windsor (1923-26); Richmond Circuit (1927-28); Swan Quarter Circuit (1929); Elizabeth Circuit (1930-31); Maysville Circuit (1932); Tabor Circuit (1933-34); and the Lillington Circuit (1935-38).

When the Reverend Mr. Wright died on May 13, 1939, Viola and her children returned to her hometown of Durham, where she resumed her career teaching piano, a career which continued until she was nearly 89 years of age! Viola had a wonderful rapport with the young people she taught and was well loved by her students. She was a charter member of the Durham Woman's Club and a past member of the Durham Music Club.

Calvary Church was a special place for Viola. She was reared in this church and returned to it after the death of her husband. From that point onward, Calvary was blessed by her gracious smile and her gifts of music. She was a vital member of the choir. She shared her musical talents by playing the organ for worship and the piano for the Primary Department. Viola was a faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ as well as a trustworthy steward of God's gifts to her. Her nature was one that looked for the potential in everyone.

About three years ago, Viola suffered from a fall which resulted in a broken hip. From that point forward, her health declined. Viola faced her death with a quiet dignity.

She died peacefully while asleep, on May 23, 1992, in Durham. The funeral was held at Calvary UMC and was conducted by the Reverend Brian W. Wingo. She was interred at the Maplewood Cemetery.

I feel that her quiet dignity was a source of strength for her and for all persons who had the opportunity to know her.

Viola is survived by her two sons, Wilson B. Wright of Durham and N. Collins Wright of Chickamauga, GA; two grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and countless friends.

GRACE ELAINE AYSCUE BREEDIN

Grace Ayscue Breedin was born May 9, 1915, in Franklin County. She was the daughter of Roy H. and Ella Lassiter Ayscue. She died on May 24, 1992 at Duke Medical Center in Durham following a stroke which occurred May 20. A graveside Memorial Service was held at Sunset Hills Cemetery in Littleton on May 27. The Reverend Kevin Stiles, minister of the Weaver's Chapel Church, officiated at the service.

Grace acquired her education through high school at Epsom School. She attended East Carolina Teachers College for her B.S. degree, which in later years, through much effort, she upgraded to an "A" teacher's certificate. She taught school in NC for 30 years.

She married our father, Clarence R. Breedin, Jr., on August 19, 1938. At that time he also was a teacher. He finally reached his true calling to the ministry when he obtained his first charge in the NC Conference in 1957 at Sandy Cross.

My parents had completed their family before he entered the ministry. The three of us: Clarence R. III (Renny); Anne Elaine (now Anne DeVere of Henderson); and me, Emily Louise (now Emily Babcock of Cary) were never neglected by a lack of attention or love, and mother's extraordinary efforts were bestowed on us to allow us every need, wish, and chance to live a Christian family life.

There were hardships, illnesses, family crises, and trials which were handled by the strongest of faiths. Our mother stood fast in her efforts to keep the family in a bond of love. She stood strong through the years, supporting our father to the best of her ability, while upgrading her education, and bravely bore any trials which she faced. She never appeared to falter under the strain.

She faced the illness and death of our brother in March of 1988, understanding that the pain of this which she bore, relieved the pain that he was bearing and thus helped the family to bear his loss by seeing her strength. Within six months we lost our father, and once again her grief, was held inside to relieve the family of their worry about her. This couple had been through much, and we knew she was suppressing that void which she felt at his death. Her support of and love for her family will never be forgotten.

She especially loved the poem, "Footprints." In this poem, someone spoke of a dream, where they walked with the Lord. The person noticed that during the lowest times of their life there was only one set of footprints, and they questioned why this was so:

"Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why in the times when I needed you most, you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child. I love you and I would never, never leave you during your times of trial and suffering. When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

The Lord carried our Mother just as she carried her family. She shared the strength He bestowed on her; seeing that each of us was cared for, and we knew she was always there when we needed her. With her humor and love we enjoyed a wonderful life which we will carry with us always. We rejoice that her pain is gone now, and that in time we will all be reunited.

A. LEGISLATION

CHILDREN, TASK FORCE ON

For too long eastern NC has turned its back on far too many children who silently suffer. We have all heard in the last few years the distressing news of infant mortality rates in NC. And that is only a "tip of the iceberg," so to speak. Children are perishing in the streets; children are being abused and/or neglected in residences we dare to call "home;" teenagers are starting families they are not ready to deal with; youth are dropping out of school at an alarming rate. Some deal with our neglect in resentful ways; some commit suicide. And the child/youth suicide rate in NC is on the rise.

The Task Force on Children began our work compiling information and exploring ways in which the NC Conference might take a stand and make a difference for the children who suffer in our midst. Our membership covers a wide variety of interests in work with children: child care, health care, Christian education, social work, pastoral care. We have incorporated both data and personnel resources of the NC Child Advocacy Institute and take great pride in the work and concern that the Methodist Home for Children, Inc. has shared with us.

Our study has shown undeniably that our Annual Conference houses the majority of children living in poverty. Because women now make up about half of the state's work force, quality and affordable child care is a growing necessity. We have found without surprise that eastern NC is largely rural, but unfortunately we have also found that rural people are over-represented among the poor, the unemployed, the under-employed, the poorly housed and the poorly educated. It will not surprise you to know that poverty is the most powerful factor in the quality of a child's life. Affordable and quality child care is, therefore, a major concern.

The WNC Conference has, in the past several years, addressed these issues with glowing success. Through the placement of Ethel Carr as a child care consultant - on behalf of both the annual conference and the Methodist Home for Children - child care within the conference has grown, both in numbers and quality, by leaps and bounds. Through her ministry local churches have found new avenues of ministry made possible that before they could only dream of. Through her ministry the Methodist Home for Children has boosted its contact with and service to the local churches. What a difference a vision and a focus can make!

Our wading through what seemed to be endless statistics has shown us that eastern NC is in dire need of this kind of vision and focus for the sake of our children. We cannot let this word fall on deaf ears. We cannot let children - who cannot vote, cannot speak for themselves, cannot lobby for their rights - continue to suffer without making an effort to ease their pain.

The year has passed all too quickly to act on needs of such immense proportions. While we have spent the year hard at work, we have found that problems which are the result of years of neglect and side-stepping cannot be handled "overnight." Because of the magnitude of the issues, we would recommend to this Annual Conference that the Task Force on Children be continued until the 1993 session of this conference and be charged to do the following:

1. Pursue with the Methodist Home for Children funding for an Outreach Coordinator for Local Church Children's Ministries beginning January 1, 1993. This conference might make this a cooperative effort by asking The Council on Finance and Administration to increase their line item for Methodist Homes for Children by 50% of the cost of the new position for 1993. The Conference financial commitment to this position could then be decreased to 35% in 1994, 20% in 1995 and phased out completely in the 1996 budget.

2. Work with the Methodist Home for Children, Inc. to ask Duke Endowment's Child Care Division for seed money over a three year period to help get this underway.
3. Seek assistance from the Bishop and Cabinet to work with us in getting a request to Duke Endowment Rural Church Division to establish one or two districts as pilot project sites for establishing new or expanded childcare programs in a few rural churches.
4. Distribute questionnaires through the 1992 Charge Conference "Brown Bags" to each local church to help evaluate the willingness and interest of churches in new or expanded day care programs. The Task Force will begin to assist a small number of local churches with child care consultation using funds already made available by the Council on Finance and Administration.
5. Complete a resource booklet to be distributed to each local church which would be valuable for the church in considering and meeting the needs of children.

In recommendations to the local church, the task force encourages local churches to take care in identifying a Children's Age Level Coordinator who will lift up the needs of children both within the church and community-wide. Once specific needs have been identified, they should be shared with the Council on Ministries/Administrative Council. We would encourage Church and Society to consider sponsoring at least one special program each year to address contemporary challenges of children such as divorce, child abuse, parental unemployment, "hurried child syndrome," teen pregnancy prevention, drug abuse. The Family Life Coordinator/Committee of the local church might consider supporting family life by encouraging such things as a family night at home, intergenerational programs, adopt-a-grandparent from the church family, and parenting skills/nurture classes or groups. Local church trustees certainly might encourage the church to consider ways to become a community center for children by opening the doors during non-Sunday traditional times for programs such as scouting, preschool, after-school and/or day care, tutorial assistance, summer vacation camp, or workplace day care partnership. Health and Welfare might be attuned to the health care of children by encouraging the church to provide services such as prenatal care transportation, vision screening volunteers, first aid classes for baby-sitters and/or health insurance scholarship. The Supportive Community section of UMW, in conjunction with Campaign for Children, might consider involvement with foster care parenting, volunteer emergency foster care, a women/children's "safe house" and/or emergency crisis center or grants for start up expenses for child care in homes.

The needs of children in this annual conference are immeasurable. Jesus reprimanded his disciples when they refused to let the children come to him. We have an opportunity to not only lead the souls of more children to our Savior, but to make this physical life worth living for them as well. Budgets are tight now, but as the economy struggles and worsens for church budgets, the needs for starving and abused children are greater as well.

We find ourselves in an exciting place: blessed with the presence of the Methodist Home for Children, Inc. and the Duke Endowment, both eager to work with us in pursuing our goals to make life better for so many innocent NC children. These children had no say about whether they would be born in poverty or wealth, with or without health insurance, having or not having had prenatal care, or into what child care situation they would be placed.

We are grateful to the Annual Conference for granting us this past year to study and look more closely at the needs of these children. Seeking ways to help eastern NC children in need is our aim. We look forward to continuing our work in the year to come.

Glenda D. Snotherly, Chairperson

CONFERENCE CLERGY LIVING COMMITTEE

The NC Conference Clergy Living Committee met on August 8, 1991, and the committee recommends the following changes in the Parsonage Minimum Standards brochure to be approved by the 1992 Annual Conference:

A Parsonage Guide

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the North Carolina Annual Conference that every pastoral charge shall provide a parsonage (or an adequate housing allowance, on a temporary basis, set by the charge conference but recommended by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in consultation with the pastor) for the senior pastor and his/her family. Housing shall also be provided for associate pastors.

It is recommended that in each pastoral charge having a parsonage committee, which shall be elected by the charge conference upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel, that said committee shall be amenable the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and work closely with trustees in providing adequate housing for the pastor. (Reference is made to The Parsonage Committee in ¶ 2532.3 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.) This Committee should meet twice yearly at the parsonage. In charges of more than one church, each church should be represented on the Committee according to the percentage of ownership. Ex-officio members of the Committee should include the pastor, the pastor's spouse, chairperson of the trustees, and chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

The following suggestions are standards toward which to work. They are given so that the pastoral charge shall know what is expected of it, and that the parsonage family may know what to expect.

REPAIRS, FURNISHINGS, AND/OR SALE OF PARSONAGE

1. Repairs and furnishings should be divided among churches on a multiple charge by percentage of ownership.
2. When no interest is owned in a parsonage on a multiple church charge by one or more churches, each church having no ownership should pay its pro-rata share of the fair rental value of the parsonage and furnishings. Rental money should be placed in a savings account for furnishings and repairs. The church or churches which own the parsonage should repair and furnish the parsonage.
3. When a parsonage is sold, the principal proceeds resulting from the sale may not be used for the operating budget. (¶ 2542, The Book of Discipline, 1988)

THE HOUSE

1. Minimum of three bedrooms (four are preferable) with ample closet space in each. One of the three bedrooms should be on the first floor.
2. A family room with book shelves, preferably separate and apart from the kitchen
3. Kitchen with ample built-in cabinets and large enough for family eating space, or a breakfast nook
4. Area large enough for washer, dryer
5. Two full baths
6. Living room, large enough for parsonage entertaining
7. A dining room is desirable, but where there is no dining room, the dining area should adjoin the living room in a living-dining room combination.
8. A home study in the parsonage is a desirable option in addition to the church office-study. It should have an outside entrance and be suitably equipped.
9. Garage with electric doors or a carport
10. Dry storage space
11. Adequate heating and air conditioning equipment and insulation, including storm or thermal pane windows and doors

12. Adequate rotary TV antenna or cablevision hook-up, if available. The purpose of this recommendation is to save the roof of the house from excessive wear due to moving antennas.
13. Uninterrupted utilities (electricity, water, gas, phone) in the name of the charge
14. The outgoing pastor is responsible for leaving the parsonage fuel tank full.
15. The chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Relations Committee and the chairperson of the Trustees are responsible for reviewing all items on the "So You're Moving Check Sheet" to be certain that each item has been completed.

THE FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should provide:

1. All heavy furnishings, including electric or gas range, refrigerator with freezer compartment, water heater, washer, dryer, and a dishwasher. (A garbage disposal and a freezer are desirable options.)
2. Bedroom, dining room, den and living room furniture. (One bedroom should be left unfurnished, so as to allow the pastor to have his/her own bedroom suite. This should be done no later than July 1, 1993.)
3. Good mattresses, floor covering, shades, blinds, curtains or draperies in all rooms
4. Some lamps and occasional tables
5. Discarded furniture should not be used in furnishing the parsonage
6. The minister's family should provide linens, blankets, pillows, baby beds, dishes, china, crystal, silverware, cooking utensils, radio, TV, and other personal items which they desire.
7. The storage and payment thereof of unused parsonage furnishings and the pastor's furnishings is to be negotiated between the pastor and the charge.
8. An up-to-date inventory of furnishings which includes dates of purchases and costs. This should be reviewed and updated at each Committee meeting. Pictures or video tapes are recommended and should be kept in a safe place other than the parsonage.

PARSONAGE GROUNDS

Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees, adequate yard space for children, paved driveway and walks, and power mower.

CARE OF PROPERTY

A clean parsonage is much to be desired by all. It is urged that a parsonage family keep the home clean and attractive.

Any abuse of the furnishings or house beyond normal wear should be the responsibility of the parsonage family.

The following pet policy consistent with the standard policy for rental property is established.

1. The pet owner is responsible for any property damage caused by pet(s).
2. The pet owner must conform to all state and local ordinances.
3. The pet owner is responsible for liability for any injury caused by the pet(s).
4. The pet owner is responsible for professional pest extermination of the parsonage when moving.

Walls, woodwork, and exterior should be painted as needed. The expense of painting, sanding and refinishing floors, repairs, periodic pest extermination, cleaning of carpets and draperies, are expenses to be borne by the church.

It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to leave the parsonage clean and in good condition when they move to another charge. As close to moving time as possible, each family should wash windows, screens and window sills, and leave curtains, draperies, carpets, shades, and blinds clean. Special attention should be given to closets, cabinets, and drawers. Bathrooms, kitchens, storage rooms, and attics should be clean.

Refrigerators and stoves as well as all other appliances should be clean and in working order. Check light fixtures, exhaust fans, hot and cold air ducts to assure cleanliness. The parsonage yard should be well groomed.

The following information should be left by the pastor for his/her successor: All warranties, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment belonging to the parsonage, and an inventory including dates of purchase and cost of parsonage furnishings. The pastor should indicate when and from whom equipment was purchased, and whom to call for service. The pastor should leave, also, a list of persons to call for various reasons, where to find various items, and when and by whom various improvements are made.

THE PARSONAGE COMMITTEE

The persons responsible for the parsonage should have a current inventory of parsonage furnishings. A copy of the inventory should be given to the minister and the trustees of the parsonage property. This inventory should include date of purchase of each item listed, its cost, and dates of renovations and repairs.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should meet with the pastor and his/her spouse twice annually. Furnishings should be evaluated at this time to decide the condition of pieces, to discard unacceptable items, check for needed repairs, and replace items if needed. The charge shall maintain adequate insurance for the replacement of parsonage and furnishings. The pastor is responsible for insurance on the family's personal possessions.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should recommend to the Finance Committee an amount to be set aside each year, or included in the budget, for repairs and maintenance. A special parsonage maintenance fund should be established. A minimum of 1% per year of the replacement value of the parsonage should be placed in this fund, and this should continue to accrue until the fund reaches a minimum of 5% of the replacement value of the parsonage and then be maintained at that level. Each charge conference is urged to designate the chair of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee, chair of trustees, or chair of parsonage committee to make decisions for emergency replacements and/or repairs. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor/Staff Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.

BUILDING OR RENOVATING A PARSONAGE

In all matters pertaining to the location, renovation, and building of a parsonage, the Discipline should be consulted. The required legislation related to the above is found in ¶ 2535-2543 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.

Parsonage sites should be selected that will hold their value and be a wise investment, preferably in a sub-division. Whenever a new parsonage is built, its many uses should be considered.

Churches building new parsonages should be responsive to the handicapping procedures in the state building codes. Congregations receiving parsonage families with handicapping conditions should be responsive to their housing needs.

Arbitration Policy - Clergy Living Committee

The 1987 NC Annual Conference Session created the Clergy Living Committee whose responsibilities include "to hear unreconciled problems regarding parsonage usage and to recommend solutions and alternatives" (1987 Conference Journal, page 326).

The following is a proposed policy for the Clergy Living Committee to carry out this Annual Conference mandate:

1. Provision for clergy housing is the responsibility of the local church.
2. Issues regarding housing should be resolved between the clergy family and the local church.
3. If housing matters cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of all involved parties, the respective District Superintendent should be invited for mediation by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.
4. The Arbitration Sub-committee of the Conference Clergy Living Committee may only be invited to arbitrate clergy housing issues at the initiative of the District Superintendent. Travel expenses will be borne by the Clergy Living Committee.
5. The sub-committee shall come to the local church or charge to hear the concerns of all interested parties, and offer recommendations and/or solutions that shall be mutually binding.
6. Recommendations and solutions offered by the sub-committee shall be consistent with the parsonage standards of the North Carolina Conference.

P3. Advance Special: That each local church shall consider giving to at least one project in each lane of the Advance: World, Missionary Salary Support, National, UMCOR, and Conference, thereby becoming a Rainbow Covenant Church.

A. Lane One: World Missions

- 1) Special Emphasis: Ganta United Methodist Elementary School. Liberia, Africa. This 50 year old school needs immediate repairs and renovations. Scholarships for students are needed - since without them, many parents could not afford for their children to go to school. Needs have been made more urgent by the events of the recent civil war in Liberia, during which the school was looted and the area was economically devastated. (Two Advance numbers - #011000-6BN-Repairs; #011001-7RB-Scholarships).
- 2) Andean Rural Health Care Program, LK. Bolivia. (#010158-2 R-A) To provide vaccinations, nutritional monitoring of children, prenatal care, and other preventative health care services. Funds given under this Advance number are divided equally between the Andean Rural Health Care Program and other health care programs of the Bolivian Methodist Church, as per agreement made between ARHC and church leaders in Bolivia.
- 3) Methodist Churches in Bulgaria. To provide salary support for pastors who have been imprisoned for religious activities and are now being released and to produce printed religious materials to aid them in their work.
- 4) Any other World Advance Special as listed in Partnership in Missions.

B. Lane Two: National Missions

- 1) Special Emphasis: Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference.
 - a) Cookson Hills Center. A rural mission program with Native Americans that includes scholarships, health programs, a thrift store, a food cooperative, vocational training and emergency assistance. (#583395-5)

- 2) The following National Advance Projects located within North Carolina:

 - 9) Any other missionaries sent out by the General Board of Global Ministries.
- D. Lane Four: UMCOR
- 1) Special Emphasis: Ethiopia Rehabilitation. (#115790-8). Working closely with the Ethiopian Orthodox Church, this UMCOR project seeks to address immediate relief needs in response to famine, rehabilitation through education, vocational training and housing, and long-term developmental needs through agriculture and reforestation.
 - 2) Middle East Refugee Programs. (#601750-4). Working through the Middle East Council of Churches, this project seeks to help refugees through emergency assistance, income-generating projects, food and medical aid. (This project chosen to coordinate with 1993 mission study on the Middle East.)
 - 3) World Hunger/Poverty (#982920-4). Provides both short-term crisis relief and long-term developmental assistance to eliminate the root causes of hunger.

- 5) Chatham County Hispanic Ministries. A ministry to a rapidly growing Hispanic population in Siler City and Pittsboro, served by a full-time Spanish-speaking pastor appointed by the Conference. In addition to the development of worship, study, and fellowship opportunities, the ministry provides much needed human services such as English lessons, needs for housing, clothing, food, transportation, and community orientation.
- 6) Ethnic Minority Local Church Projects in the Rockingham District. Funds will be used to assist ethnic churches with critical needs. Projects will be selected by a committee in the district. Two special needs are:
 - a) Fairview UMC - a 63-member Native American congregation. Need funds for outreach programs into the community.

CONFERENCE'S LEGAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH AFFILIATED INSTITUTIONS, COMMITTEE TO STUDY

Pursuant to a resolution of the North Carolina Annual Conference adopted on June 13, 1991, Bishop Minnick appointed a committee to study the legal issues of the Conference's present relationships with all of its affiliated institutions. This committee is made up of clergy, several Methodist attorneys, and representatives of United Methodist agencies and institutions affiliated with the Conference. This committee was directed to report back to the June, 1992 Annual Conference concerning the appropriate legal relationships between the Conference and its related institutions. The original impetus of this inquiry was based on the serious financial problems which had for several years been facing the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. However, the Conference's resolution encompassed all of its affiliated, incorporated agencies, including three colleges, a retirement home, a children's home, group homes for the handicapped (which are still in the planning stage), and Conference camps.

The Committee to Study the Conference's Legal Relationships with Affiliated Institutions appointed by Bishop Minnick has met periodically over the past nine months to examine the Conference's existing relationships with its related institutions as well as many of those adopted by conferences in other states. Based primarily on liability concerns and the perceived need to ensure the quality and expertise of members of affiliated boards of trustees appointed by the Annual Conference, the committee has prepared the attached proposal for consideration of the Annual Conference.

The committee believes that the Conference wants to continue its missions in the areas of higher education, health and welfare and camping and has attempted to determine what is the best form of legal relationships for the Conference to have with these institutions. Under the proposal, the Conference will maintain its ties with those institutions. Existing boards and commissions of the conference will continue to relate to the affiliated institutions and will not be replaced by the new board. The proposal comes after careful scrutiny of today's increasingly litigious legal environment and the need to protect the Conference's broader objectives by modifying its legal relationships with these institutions.

As indicated by the attachment, the committee proposes a restructuring of the present relationships by creating a new corporation known as the Board of Institutions, whose board of trustees shall be elected by the Conference. The Board of Institutions will be responsible, upon consultation with the appropriate Conference boards, for nominating and electing 40 percent of all voting members of each of the board of trustees of the affiliated institutions. The only exception is the board of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., which under state law must be elected by the Conference to ensure local property tax exemption for its facilities. The Board of Institutions will also review financial statements submitted by the institutions, interpret these statements and report to the appropriate conference board concerning the financial status of those institutions. Other details of the new relationships between the Board of Institutions, the affiliated institutions and the Conference are set forth in the attached document.

At the request of Bishop Minnick, Chancellor Phil Carlton requested the legal opinion of Craig Hoskins, General Counsel for the General Council on Finance and Administration in Evanston, Illinois concerning the protections which this proposal would give to the Conference, the bishop and The United Methodist Church as a denomination. Mr. Hoskins has opined that he considers this plan to be useful and sound in limiting the legal liability of the Conference and denomination and to be consistent with the provisions of The Book of Discipline.

The members of the Committee on Legal Relationships have reviewed this document closely and endorse this proposal for adoption by the Annual Conference at its June meeting.

PROPOSAL for North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. and Reordered Conference Relationships with Affiliate Institutions

The following is a proposal for the restructuring of the relationships between the North Carolina Annual Conference ("Conference") and its affiliated institutions. This restructuring involves the creation of a separate corporate entity, North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. ("BI").

1. The Purpose of this Proposal is to define more accurately the relationship which exists between the Conference and its affiliated institutions. The Conference wishes to maintain its past close ties with those institutions which have been established historically by the Conference, are related to it by faith and whose programs remain consistent with the Conference's policies and with The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. As a result of a changing legal environment, however, the Conference wishes to protect its broader objectives by modifying its legal relationships with the institutions in the manner described below. Under this proposal, the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries and Conference Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries will continue their present working relationships with the corresponding institutions. However, the Conference finds it necessary to create a new corporation, BI, to provide technical and legal oversight, particularly concerning institutional governance and the financial health of affiliated institutions.

2. The Conference, upon the nomination of the Conference Committee on Nominations, shall elect all the members of the Board of Trustees of a new corporation, the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. ("BI"), in staggered, four year terms. No BI trustee shall serve more than two consecutive quadrenniums. They may serve again after a term off of the BI.
 - a. The voting members shall consist of eight laypersons who are members of local United Methodist churches within the Conference and seven clergy members of the Conference.
 - b. The new board shall nominate and elect vacancies among the voting members as they occur, subject to subsequent confirmation by the Conference. If these newly elected members are not confirmed by the Conference, their positions may be filled through election by the Annual Conference after nomination from the floor or nomination by the Conference Committee on Nominations.
 - c. The non-voting members of the BI board serving ex officio shall include the bishop or his designee and the chief executives of each of the institutions affiliated with the Conference.
 - d. Members of the BI board may serve on the boards of any institutions affiliated with the Conference and on any Conference Boards. However, if any voting member of the BI board also serves as a trustee of one of the affiliated institutions named in this proposal, no other person presently serving as a trustee of that institution may be elected to serve as a member of the BI board during the term of the first-mentioned member.
 - e. The board of BI shall develop and adopt its own governing instruments, including articles of incorporation and by-laws, subject to approval by the Conference but shall otherwise be excepted from Conference rules.
 - f. The bishop, after consultation with the Conference Committee on Nominations, shall appoint the members of the initial board of BI by September 1, 1992, at which time BI shall commence its functions. The initial BI board shall serve until the Conference meets in June, 1993 and elects the successor board.
 - g. By January 1, 1993, the boards of the affiliated institutions shall have modified their governing instruments in accordance with this proposal. Said instruments shall be effective and the new boards shall be in place on that date.
3. BI shall have the responsibility, upon consultation with the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, or the Conference Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, as appropriate, for nominating and electing forty (40) percent of all voting members of each of the boards of trustees of the affiliated institutions. The number of members serving on each of the boards of trustees of the affiliated institutions shall be determined by the new or amended governing instruments of each institution.
 - a. BI shall review any annual financial statements submitted by the institutions, to interpret those statements and to advise and report to the appropriate conference board or commission concerning the financial status of those institutions.

- b. BI shall review the policies of liability insurance purchased for the affiliated institutions to determine the sufficiency of their coverage and shall review materials used by such institutions which reflect on their legal relationships with the Conference and The United Methodist Church.
 - c. BI shall also have such other duties as the Conference shall delegate to it consistent with BI's corporate purposes and the provisions of The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church.
4. The Asbury Homes, Inc., Methodist Home for Children, Inc., Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. and any other health and welfare institution affiliated with the Conference in the future shall each have a relationship with the Conference and with BI as defined by the following:
- a. Each institution is incorporated as a separate, nonprofit corporation pursuant to Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina. Neither the Conference, nor The United Methodist church, nor any other unit or person of United Methodism assumes or guarantees any debts, contracts, liabilities or legal obligations of any kind or nature of the institution.
 - b. The board of each institution shall have the exclusive right and responsibility for the development, adoption and implementation of its governing instruments, including the articles of incorporation and by-laws. The governing instruments shall state that the institution shall not in any way have the power to bind or create any obligation or liability on the part of the Conference, The United Methodist Church, or any other unit or person of United Methodism other than itself. Copies of these instruments and any amendments thereto shall be furnished to the Conference. The present boards of The Asbury Homes, Inc., Methodist Homes for Children, Inc., Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. and any other health and welfare institution shall each be responsible for amending their respective governing instruments to conform with this proposal.
 - c. The Board of Trustees of BI shall, upon the recommendation of the board of the individual institution and consultation with the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, nominate and elect forty (40) percent of the members of the board of trustees of The Asbury Homes, Inc., Methodist Home for Children, Inc., and other health and welfare institution in staggered, four year terms.
 - i. The remaining sixty (60) percent of the members of each of these institutions' board shall be, both in the first instance and subsequently upon the expiration of the initial terms, nominated and elected by the board of the individual institution for such terms and in the manner described above.
 - ii. All members of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. or of any similar institution affiliated with the Conference in the future, on the other hand, shall both initially and thereafter be nominated by the BI board after receipt of recommendations from the Board of Trustees of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. or similar institution, and upon consultation with the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. The members of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. or similar institution shall then be elected by the Conference.

- iii. The foregoing provisions shall not pertain to non-voting members of each institution's board of trustees, if any, who serve ex officio or on an honorary basis in accordance with the by-laws of the individual institution.
 - d. The Conference and each institution shall, upon consultation with the Chancellor, develop a mutual statement of covenant relationship with the Conference, to be reviewed annually.
 - e. The institutions shall continue to be related by faith to the Conference and to support the similar objectives and common mission of the institution and the Conference. While the development and implementation of policies and programs are the exclusive rights and responsibilities of the institutions, the institutions shall attempt to adopt policies and programs which are not inconsistent with the policies of the Conference and The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. To further that end, the institutions shall maintain a relationship with and report any major changes in program or direction to the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. Any policies or procedures contrary to those of the Conference or to The Book of Discipline may jeopardize support by the Conference.
 - f. Each institution may provide in its governing instruments that a vote of two-thirds of the institution's board of trustees is required for certain corporate actions which substantially affect or sever its ties with the Conference, including but not limited to corporate dissolution, the transfer of substantial assets, a major change in its mission or purpose or the selection of any members of its board by an entity not related to the Conference.
 - g. Title to all properties of each institution shall be vested in the board of trustees of the institution. In the event of dissolution of the institution, all remaining assets after the payment of the institution's liabilities shall be transferred to an organization exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended.
 - h. Each institution may furnish to BI and the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries annually an audited financial report and a report of the operations of the institution.
 - i. Each institution may use elements of the name and logo of The United Methodist Church and/or the Conference only with the express permission of the bishop or bishop's designee, which may be withdrawn at any time, and only if the use of said name or logo would not reasonably create the impression that the institution is operated or controlled by the Conference.
5. Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. and any similar institution affiliated with the Conference in the future shall have a relationship with the Conference and with BI as defined by the following:
- a. Each institution is incorporated as a separate, nonprofit corporation pursuant to Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina. Neither the Conference, nor The United Methodist Church, nor any other unit or person of United Methodism assumes or guarantees any debts, contracts, liabilities or legal obligations of any kind or nature of the institution.
 - b. The board of each corporation shall have the exclusive right and responsibility for the development, adoption and implementation of its governing instruments, including the articles of incorporation and by-laws. The governing instruments shall state that the institution shall not in any way have the power to bind or create any obligation or liability on the part of the Conference, The United Methodist Church, or any other unit or person of United Methodism other than itself. Copies of these instruments and any amendments thereto shall be furnished to the Conference. The present board of this corporation shall be responsible for amending its governing instruments to conform with this proposal.

- c. The Board of Trustees of BI shall, upon the recommendation of the board of Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. or similar institution and consultation with the Conference Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, nominate and elect forty (40) percent of the institution's board of trustees in staggered, four year terms. The remaining sixty (60) percent of the members of the institution's board shall be nominated and elected by the institution's board for such terms and in the manner described above. The foregoing provisions shall not pertain to non-voting members of the institution's board of trustees, if any, who serve ex officio or on an honorary basis in accordance with the by-laws of the institution.
 - d. The institution shall continue to be related by faith to the Conference and to support the similar objectives and common mission of the institution and the Conference. While the development and implementation of policies and programs are the exclusive rights and responsibilities of the institution, the institution shall attempt to adopt policies and programs which are not inconsistent with the policies of the Conference and The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church. To further that end, the institution shall maintain a relationship with and report any major changes in program or direction to the Conference Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries. Any policies or procedures contrary to those of the Conference or to The Book of Discipline may jeopardize support by the Conference.
 - e. Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. or similar institution may provide in its governing instruments that a vote of two-thirds of the institution's board of trustees is required for certain corporate actions which substantially affect or sever its ties with the Conference, including but not limited to corporate dissolution, the transfer of substantial assets, a major change in its mission or purpose or the selection of any members of its board by an entity not related to the Conference.
 - f. Title to all properties of Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. or similar institution shall be vested in the board of trustees of the institution. In the event of dissolution of the institution, all remaining assets after the payment of the institution's liabilities shall be transferred to an organization exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended.
 - g. Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. or similar institution may furnish to BI and the Conference Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries annually an audited financial report and a report of the operations of the institution.
 - h. The institution may use elements of the name and logo of The United Methodist Church and/or the Conference only with the express permission of the bishop or bishop's designee, which may be withdrawn at any time, and only if the use of said name or logo would not reasonably create the impression that the institution is operated or controlled by the Conference.
6. Louisburg College, Inc., Methodist College, Inc., and North Carolina Wesleyan College, Inc. and any other institution of higher education affiliated with the Conference in the future, shall each have a relationship with the Conference and with BI as defined by the following:
- a. Each institution is incorporated as a separate, nonprofit corporation pursuant to Chapter 55A of the General Statutes of North Carolina. Neither the Conference, nor The United Methodist Church, nor any other unit or person of United Methodism assumes or guarantees any debts, contracts, liabilities or legal obligations of any kind or nature of the institution.

- b. The board of each institution shall have the exclusive right and responsibility for the development and implementation of its governing instruments, including the articles of incorporation and by-laws. The governing instruments shall state that the institution shall not in any way have the power to bind or create any obligation or liability on the part of the Conference, The United Methodist Church, or any other unit or person of United Methodism other than itself. Copies of these instruments and any amendments thereto shall be furnished to the Conference. The present board of each institution shall be responsible for amending its governing instruments to conform with this proposal.
- c. The Board of Trustees of BI shall, upon the recommendation of the board of the individual institution and consultation with the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, nominate and elect forty (40) percent of each institution's board of trustees in staggered, four year terms. The remaining sixty (60) percent of each institution's board shall be, both in the first instance and subsequently upon the expiration of the initial terms, nominated and elected by the board of the individual institution for such staggered terms and in the manner described above. The foregoing provisions shall not pertain to non-voting members of each institution's board of trustees, if any, who serve ex officio or on an honorary basis in accordance with the by-laws of the individual institution.

To further that end, the institutions shall maintain a relationship with and report any major changes in program or direction to the Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry. That Board shall present to the Conference Council on Ministries and Conference Council on Finance and Administration any financial needs for adequate support of these institutions. Any policies or procedures contrary to those of the Conference or to The Book of Discipline may jeopardize support by the Conference.
- e. DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Board of Diaconal Ministry has sought to meet the following two priorities in its work this quadrennium: 1) To recruit and nurture persons into the vocations of Christian Education, Church Music, Church Administration, and Youth Ministry; and 2) To develop an extensive program of promotion and interpretation of Diaconal Ministry at every level of the NC Conference.

We are pleased to present to the Conference Patricia J. Lykins for consecration as a Diaconal Minister. She has been examined by the Board of Diaconal Ministry and has been found to be spiritually grounded, psychologically fit, and academically prepared for ministry.

Since last year's report, R. Jean McPherson from the Rocky Mountain Conference in Colorado has transferred into our Conference. She is Director of Music at Centenary Church in Smithfield.

Five persons are declared candidates, receiving the support of the Board of Diaconal Ministry as they pursue their calling and prepare themselves academically. They are: Jane Brannock, Marty Cauley, Bess Edwards-Sawyer, Lori Schoelkopf, and David Sluder.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry maintains an active relationship with all lay professionals in our Conference through the annual process of review and renewal of certification. In the Fall of 1992 we cooperated with the Christian Educators Fellowship and the Musicians Fellowship to sponsor a "Multiple-Staff Workshop" to foster good working relationships and team ministry.

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1992 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference. The medical form should be completed and acted upon by the General Board of Pensions prior to the submission of the application.
2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee will bear the expense of the examination.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the validity of the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. All materials will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pensions, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan shall be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance shall be paid also by the Joint Committee on Disability.
5. Those pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a monthly grant of $300.00 will be made for the first six months a pastor is granted Disability Leave. At the end of six months this grant will terminate.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Joint Committee on Disability will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY, TASK FORCE ON

After careful study and reflection on district superintendent salaries across the nation, past formulas used by our annual conference, conversations with the cabinet, and review of our current salary structure, your study committee unanimously recommends to the annual conference the continuation of the present formula. It was felt that while no formula is perfect, this formula is adequate and fair to both District Superintendents as well as the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference. This committee expressed the view that persons who serve as district superintendents should have the maturity and skills to effectively supervise all pastors within a given district, including those pastors at the higher ranges in salary.

The formula for determining the salary for district superintendents is "The percentage change in District Superintendent's salary for 1986 and subsequent years shall be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for that year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the North Carolina Annual Conference." This formula was adopted at the 1985 session of Annual Conference.

EQUITABLE SALARIES, COMMISSION ON

Part I

By disciplinary provision and moral obligation, the Commission on Equitable Salaries is instructed "to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference by (1) recommending Conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in salary supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations." (Discipline, ¶ 722.2)

The above provision often places the Commission in a contradictory position. "Assumption of the obligations of the itineracy, required to be made at the time of admission into the traveling connection, puts upon the Church the counterobligation of providing support for the entire ordained ministry of the Church." (Discipline, ¶ 717) "The Commission shall carefully study the needs for...additional support within the Conference and the sources of income, and shall recommend annually to the Conference for its action a schedule of minimum salaries for all full-time pastors or those clergy members of the Annual Conference appointed less than full time to a local church, subject to such rules and regulations as the Conference may adopt." (Discipline, ¶ 722.3) In other words, ministers are required to spend considerable expense, time, and energy in preparing for and executing ministry. Common sense recognizes the increased pressure upon a local church to provide an ever increasing salary for its minister. Churches with dwindling resources find themselves spending more and more on pastoral compensation and less and less on property, program, and expansion. Clergy and laity are caught in the proverbial place between a rock and a hard spot.

The Commission has spent considerable time in examining the situation. Solutions are not included in this report. However, we do have recommendations whose implementation will help us move towards "fair and equitable salaries" for all those who "assume the obligations of the itinerancy," and simultaneous "fair and equitable management" of the resources of the local church in ministry and mission.

I. Recommended Schedule of Minimum Salaries for 1993

A. Salary Schedule

1. With respect to the ever increasing cost of living for all, we recommend that the minimum full-time salary level be raised by a percentage equal to the percentage of raise enjoyed by all ministers in the Conference year 1992.

MINISTERS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT	1992	1993
(Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)
Salary	$20,294	$21,396
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$22,294	$23,396
STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$12,491	$13,207
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$14,491	$15,207

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum salary levels be adjusted annually by the percentage figure of average raises in the Conference for the current Conference year.
3. Guidelines affecting student pastors as adopted by previous Annual Conference sessions will continue to govern the use of equitable salary funds for student pastors. (For reference, the Discipline, ¶ 441, 717, and 722, and the Journal of 1983, provide the basis for our work.)

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of ministerial expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $2,400 for travel expense. A charge receiving equitable salary support may provide this $2,400 travel expense, but any travel expense in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable salary support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Salary Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's cash salary (including funds from the Equitable Salary Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash salary designated by the General Board of Pensions or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of parsonage). Cash salary plus housing is Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Salary Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Salary Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Salary Fund. Salary support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.

B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Salary Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Salaries and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Salary support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Salary Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.

In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Salaries provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.
 2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.
- E. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Salary Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Salary Funds than granted the previous year.
- F. Grants from the Commission on Equitable Salaries for Housing will be discontinued by the following method:

Date	Reduction
01/01/93	25%
01/01/94	25%
01/01/96	25%

G. Any Equitable Salary Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.

- H. Equitable Salary Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.
- I. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $200 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection.
Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Salaries upon recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase.
This policy does not restrict the Equitable Salaries Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.
- J. Churches receiving Equitable Salary Funds will conduct an annual financial campaign to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.
- K. We remind the Conference of provisions in the Discipline, which state: (1) "Primary responsibility for the payment of pastoral salaries remains with individual pastoral charges." (§ 722.8) (2) "The guidelines of the Annual Conference program of equitable clergy support shall insofar as possible be observed by the bishops and district superintendents in arranging charges and making appointments." (§ 722.10)
- L. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Salary Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference.

The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

Part II - Report of the Task Force to Study Supplemental Salaries

Our Task Force was appointed by Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., to respond to the Reverend Benjamin R. Melvin's motion at the 1991 Annual Conference. Mr. Melvin moved that a Task Force be appointed "to study the feasibility of improving clergy morale and salaries by rewarding longevity and satisfactory performance of ministry." The Task Force is composed of three lay persons, three clergy persons, the chairpersons of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, the Board of Ordained Ministry, and a representative of the Cabinet. The Assistant to the Bishop served as consultant.

We met three times and discussed the level of clergy compensation. We discussed plans to increase that level, thereby elevating the self-esteem of the clergy. After group discussion and individual thought, we came to believe that the basic assumption of a direct correlation between the level of compensation and the morale of the clergy is flawed. After further reflection, we came to the opinion that the issue of clergy morale is a complicated one that will not be solved with cash awards or kind words.

We offer an alternative possibility to the clergy morale problem. Lyle Shaller states that churches with an average of less than 120 in average worship attendance are severely underfunded for program and ministry. He does not mean that these churches are not faithful to the Gospel or that they are not contributing to the mission of the Connection. These underfunded congregations are not able to keep up with the skyrocketing cost of ministry. Churches with less than 120 in worship are expending their limited resources on the essentials of: building maintenance and upkeep; pastor's compensation; and Conference and World Service askings. Local church programs are often under-funded. An increase in any of the above areas produces considerable strain and anguish within the church, with the corresponding truckload of negative feelings falling at the feet of the pastor.

Nearly 80% of the congregations in our Annual Conference fall within the category in question. Many of these are in circuits, which helps somewhat. Our Task Force struggled with the question: What is it like for pastors to have put in 4 years of college, 3-4 years of seminary, (often incurring large debt in the process) to have struggled through the candidacy process only to discover that they serve a church with severe financial limitations? Further, the prospects are very real that one may not receive a more viable appointment at Conference next year.

To make the pastor of such a congregation feel even more discouraged are the reminders in spoken and printed form that World Service and Conference Benevolence payments are falling below last year, and that Insurance costs while holding the line this year, will continue to escalate in the future. So now guilt is added to the struggle. Maybe we don't have a morale problem. Could it be with all the discouragement, guilt and negative reinforcement, what we have is passive-aggressive anger?

A survey of clergy of several denominations by Robert Wilson and Paul Mickey suggests that the level of compensation is not a major factor in clergy morale. In fact, it appears that morale is higher among clergy in denominations with a lower compensation scale. Wilson and Mickey assert that the main issue of clergy career satisfaction deals with the call to ministry and not the level of compensation. Their research found the greatest incidence of low clergy morale among the highest paid.

We see at least two positive signs within our Conference:

- 1) The Into the 21st Century Committee is developing clarity as to our future mission as a Conference. Their emphasis is on the local church, dealing with questions such as: What are we about? What are we trying to accomplish? How does the Connection express care and supply positive interventions to local church problems? From their study will come strategies for action.

- 2) The Vitalization Project is working well with congregations who show promise of viability. Hopefully their number will be increased.

We offer the following suggestions to the Cabinet and Commission on Equitable Salaries for consideration:

- To increase the number of Circuits and Cooperative Parishes to bring appointments up to financial viability status.

- To recover the broad use of the part-time lay pastor as an assistant to the elder who is the primary pastoral leadership of under-funded churches.
- To make use of retired ministers, retired military chaplains, and bi-vocational persons, under the supervision of a District Superintendent or Elder.
- To encourage the Board of Ordained Ministry and Cabinet to study the supply and demand of future clergy, especially if the intention is to reduce the number of appointments of clergy in Full Connection. A realistic picture of what it means to serve an underfunded church must be shared with persons who are beginning the candidacy process.
- Our seminaries must be encouraged to share the vision, with its implications, of providing alternatives to an M.Div. in every appointment.
- We must reduce the number of cash supplements, not add to them, if our churches and clergy are to live with a level of morale that enables them to function faithfully in the ministry of Jesus Christ.
- The spiritual and emotional health of the clergy is an issue that will not be solved even if every church suddenly becomes financially viable. While our appointive system works against the District Superintendent being the principal figure in this area, the DS should regularly encourage pastors to seek out their own support groups and spiritual mentors. Pastors should be taught to convene peer groups to discuss and support one another's call to and within the ministry. Continuing Education events on Spiritual Formation for clergy should be offered regularly.

Our understanding is that in forwarding the above thoughts and suggestions to the Cabinet, Commission on Equitable Salaries, and Annual Conference, our work is completed.

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
 - World Service and Conference Benevolences
 - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
 - Episcopal Fund
 - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
 - Black Colleges
 - African University Fund
 - SEJ Missional Growth Fund
2. Formula Effective January 1, 1993 (for all except SEJ missional Growth Fund): The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year. The change in apportionments from the previous year shall not increase in excess of 25%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Administration, and Episcopal Fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to the conference average for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop.
3. Upon action of SEJ, the SEJ Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1993-1997 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1991 as reported in the 1992 Journal.
4. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
5. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 17, 1992. Should an appeal be deemed necessary by the district superintendent because of demonstrable and significant changes, an appeal may be made to the Council on Finance and Administration no later than November 25, 1992.

- B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace and Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.

- C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the Council on Finance and Administration for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church.
- D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.
- E. The Episcopal Fund, General Administration Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, World Service, College Sustaining Fund, Ministerial Education Fund, Methodist Building Maintenance, and College Debt Retirement will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the Council on Finance and Administration.
- F. Investment Policy: (a) The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church. (b) South African Policy: The Council will not do business with or invest in banks making loans to the government of South Africa or its agencies, or who have operations within South Africa. The Council has no investments in South Africa and has adopted a policy of making no investments in South Africa.
- G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1992 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1993.
- H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 708.4.b.
- I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 709.10 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference. The Council on Finance and Administration recommends that a moratorium on Conference capital campaigns be declared and 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the quadrennial priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship become a missional focus, Conference priority.

- A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
- B. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
- C. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.

- D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
- E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety), or contact with pastors without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.
- F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
- G. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference.
- H. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

The salary for the District Superintendents for 1994 and subsequent years shall be recommended in actual dollars to the Annual Conference for approval. The percentage change in salary shall be computed as the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, utilities, and travel) for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. The last available calculation of the annual percentage change of the full-time pastors shall be used. (Adopted in 1992)

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

- A. The Council on Finance and Administration uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
- B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the Council on Finance and Administration shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect an additional member to the executive committee from its voting membership.
- C. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
- D. The treasurer, at his discretion, may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.
- E. Any request for adjustments to apportionments must be made to the Council on Finance and Administration on or before the Wednesday prior to Thanksgiving (November 25, 1992). The Council of Finance and Administration will consider only those appeals supported by the district superintendent on behalf of churches which have experienced demonstrable and significant changes in areas such as worship attendance and net disbursements that make the apportionment formula inequitable for that year.
- F. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of the United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.

- G. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.
- H. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.
- I. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Salary Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the N.C. Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year (i.e. Office of Planned Giving, Vitalization Project, etc.)
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the Council on Finance and Administration which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.
- Funds appropriated to the Task Force on Hunger and Human Need to assist various ministries across the Annual Conference. The Council shall consider an appropriation to the Conference Fund for Human Need at the close of the fiscal year. The formula adopted by the Council in February 1990 to determine the appropriation is 10% of the net interest earnings on Central Fund investments less 10% of the budget shortfall. The supplemental appropriation for 1992 to the Fund for Human Need was $22,000.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the Treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee who will make a recommendation to the full Council.
3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference Treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.

- J. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign (until they are authorized to be transferred to operational funds), Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.
- K. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.
- L. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation.
- M. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the Council shall maintain reserve funds equal to 10% of the conference operating budget. Both cash reserves, realized, and unrealized gains/losses shall be considered as a part of the 10% reserve goal. Funds in excess of cash requirements shall be invested in the United Methodist Foundation in proportion to the percent of reserves on hand (i.e. if the reserve goal of 10% or greater has been obtained, the investment will be 100%. If 8% is in reserve, 80% will be invested in the Foundation and 20% will be in fixed income investments).
- N. CFA Meeting Schedule: The executive committee meets at the call of the President. Scheduled meetings are:
 - June 1992: There may be a called meeting in conjunction with Annual Conference if necessary to elect officers or conduct other business.
 - September 2, 1992: An optional meeting to be held if necessary at the call of the President.

INSURANCE, COMMITTEE ON

I. Group Term Life Insurance

The current life insurance program is provided through CIGNA. Our coverage is $15,000 for active participants, $7,500 for retired pastors up to age 72; $1,000 for pastors over age 72. Benefits for any pastor retiring prior to 1978 remain at $5,000. Current spouse and child coverage is $1,000 per person. The spouse's insurance terminates at age 65 or upon retirement of the subscriber, whichever comes first. Accidental Death and Dismemberment is provided to active participants in amounts equal to current life coverage but does not cover retirees, spouses, or children.

THE FOLLOWING CLAIMS WERE PAID IN 1991:

James G. Snypes	$7,500.00
William H. Farmer, Sr.	7,500.00
David L. Moe	1,000.00
Phyllis W. McKee	1,000.00
Melvin R. Miller	1,000.00
William M. Howard, Jr.	1,000.00
Henry R. Bizzell	1,000.00
Nell D. Forbes	1,000.00
TOTAL BENEFITS PAID	$21,000.00

The Insurance Committee recommends an increase in life insurance coverage effective January 1, 1993. The proposed coverage is $25,000 for active participants, $12,500 for retired pastors up to age 72, $1,000 for pastors over age 72, $10,000 for each family member over 6 months of age. The monthly premium for single coverage will be $12.50. The monthly premium for family coverage will be $15.00.

II. Blue Cross/Blue Shield

A. General

1. The Insurance Committee mails the health insurance proposal to the delegates immediately before each Annual Conference session. The rapid escalation in health care costs makes planning difficult. The committee considers the financial information that is available through May 1 before adopting their recommendations. Enclosure A-1 presents the Committee's 1993 proposed rates. Benefits are not recommended to change.
2. The committee has been asked by CFA to consider alternative benefits and rate structure for the Conference health insurance. Alternates were examined in benefits and rate structure and the proposed plan is considered the most beneficial for the Conference as a whole.
3. Insurance companies who make inquiries, for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
4. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee and conducted by the Board of Health and Human Services. The committee has decided to provide this service on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.
5. The Insurance Committee is made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pensions; 2, Division of Health and Welfare; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 1, Board of Diaconal Ministry; 1, District Lay Leader; 1, Cabinet;

Conference Treasurer (without vote), Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies.

B. Policy and Rules

1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee upon the recommendation of the Committee's consultant.
2. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Contact MedReview at 1-800-722-2157. Contact MedReview within 48 hours following emergency admissions (see MedReview brochure available from the Treasurer's office for additional information). Subscribers covered by the Medicare Supplement do not need to contact MedReview.
3. Effective January 1, 1991, the penalty for failing to call MedReview will be that the co-payment rate for in-hospital charges will be increased from 20% to 50% for non-certified days.
4. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (pastor or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement.
5. The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer.
6. A service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts is charged to help defray the cost of paying premiums for churches making late payments.
7. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Minister's personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.
8. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
9. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
10. Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
11. Lay persons or ministers on maternity leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
12. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Effective July 1, 1992, (for premiums billed after July 1, 1992) insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.

13. Effective March 1, 1991, ministers or laypersons who choose not to join the group within 30 days of becoming eligible, or ministers, or laypersons who choose to terminate their coverage in the group, shall be required to submit in writing 2 years in advance, a request to re-enroll in the group. Adding family members or changing the type of coverage while enrolled is not subject to this rule. A one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions after enrollment will continue to be required. Eligible students are excluded from the two-year rule. An exception to this rule would be possible (by 2/3 vote of the Insurance Committee) when a subscriber is transferring from another insurance plan to the Conference plan. Open enrollment will be allowed on January 1, 1994 when UMCARE is mandated.
14. At the time of retirement, ministers become eligible for coverage under the Board of Pensions group insurance plan currently administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC. The two-year rule does not apply to a retiring minister who wishes to obtain coverage through this plan.
15. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.

III. Eligibility Policies

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

- A. Ministers who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary members, associate members, student local pastors, part-time local pastors, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
 1. One of the churches or charges of the North Carolina Conference.
 2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
 3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
 - (a) The minister shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, the Two-year rule and a one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
 - (b) The minister shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
 4. Ministers eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.
- B. Ministers on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference Treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.
- C. Lay Employees:
 1. Effective August 1, 1991, each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference

- plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal ministers are not subject to this rule.
2. The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment (initial enrollment period was November 1-30, 1985, coverage effective January 1, 1986 for employees already at the church; within 30 days of date of hire for new employees); otherwise there will be a one year waiting period for any pre-existing conditions.
 3. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for ministers.

INTO THE 21ST CENTURY COMMITTEE

During the 1990 session of the annual conference I informed the conference that I had put in place a committee of laity and clergy designated as our "Into the 21st Century Committee" to consider with me the mission of the North Carolina Annual Conference for the 1990's and into the next century. This committee was given the responsibility to evaluate all areas of our life and work as United Methodists in eastern North Carolina, including annual conference structures, staff, and programs, to set forth our missional purpose as a conference, and to delineate the role of the annual conference connection in supporting, resourcing, and facilitating the mission of Jesus Christ through local congregations.

Initially, Dr. William J. Carter of the Holston Conference was invited to meet with the committee to devise a strategy for our study. Then, the Reverend Rene O. Bideaux and Dr. Stephen C. Compton were asked to serve as process facilitators for the committee.

To gather data from the grassroots for consideration by this committee, I visited every district in the fall of 1990. In these sessions, clergy and laity shared insights, concerns, and suggestions for consideration by the committee. A summary of the data which I received was sent back to every local pastor and congregation for reflection and comment. Eight key issues were identified by the committee from responses made and these issues, as defined, were shared with all conference congregations. More than two hundred congregational responses were received by me to these proposed key issues for consideration by the Into the 21st Century Committee. Of the eight issues defined for attention, two were considered to be of greatest concern to the respondents: advancing the local congregation as a center for mission, and the enhancement of spiritual leadership among laity and clergy.

Throughout 1991, proposals, objectives, and goals being considered by the committee were shared with the cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries, and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. In the fall of 1991, Dr. Kennon L. Callahan was invited to serve as a resource consultant to a joint retreat group consisting of the members of the Conference COM, Conference CFA, Conference COM staff, representatives of the Office of Ministerial Relations, other key conference leaders, and members of the Into the 21st Century Committee. Subsequently, the committee's members and I devised for your consideration the statement of mission for the annual conference and the missional plan which follow. No plan of this nature will be without its shortcomings, but the members of the Into the 21st Century and I strongly commend it to you as a step toward a future in mission led by Vital Congregations and Faithful Disciples.

A STATEMENT OF MISSION

for the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church

Having reflected upon issues identified by members and pastors of local congregations and by the members of the Into the 21st Century Committee, and recognizing that each local United Methodist congregation is a connectional society of persons who have professed their faith in Christ, have been baptized, have assumed the vows of membership, and are subject to the church's Discipline (§1203), we propose that as the North Carolina Annual Conference approaches and enters the 21st century, the goal of its structure, staff, and programs shall be to help prepare and empower local congregations to be the strategic centers for ministry and mission by:

- I. FURTHER ADVANCING THE MISSION OF LOCAL CONGREGATIONS
developing an ongoing ministry of evangelism, outreach, and Christian nurture, with emphasis on membership growth, attendance increase, organizing new congregations, and greater involvement of youth and young adults.
- II. FURTHER INCREASING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF PASTORAL AND LAY LEADERSHIP encouraging, developing, and sustaining spiritual formation for lay and clergy leaders who are equipped and inspired to give effective missional leadership to the local church for ministry and administration.
- III. FURTHER IMPROVING MISSION AND SERVICE GIVING
developing a long-range stewardship emphasis, rooted in our calling to compassionate ministry, both in the local congregation and through our connected ministries, including a reassessment of the apportionment formula to enable local congregations to address their financial stewardship responsibilities and commitments with joy and thanksgiving.
- IV. FURTHER STRENGTHENING STAFFING AND STRUCTURE
redefining the roles and responsibilities of district superintendents, annual conference staff, and conference boards and agencies so that major attention can be given to resourcing and equipping local congregations for their ministry and mission.

THE MISSIONAL PLAN

If approved by the Annual Conference, implementation of this missional plan will begin immediately, in appropriate stages, with full implementation in place or in process by June, 1993.

I. FURTHER ADVANCING THE MISSION OF LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

To advance the mission of local congregations:

- A. Each district superintendent will invest approximately 120 days directly in local congregations of the district with the consent and support of the bishop. This time will be invested in the following categories of service:
 1. advancing the strengths for effective ministry in local congregations
 2. developing solid appointment matches
 3. increasing the competencies of pastors
 4. consulting with troubled congregations
 5. improving mission and service giving

Seventy-five percent of the time would normally be used in working in the first and second areas. One appropriate model is:

- advancing the strengths for effective ministry in ten local congregations five days each year 50 days
- developing solid appointment matches 40 days
- increasing the competencies of pastors 10 days
- consulting with troubled congregations 10 days
- improving mission and service giving 10 days

District Superintendents will consult with local congregations and pastors to discover where need exists for assistance.

- B. Each conference Council on Ministries program staff member will invest approximately 120 days directly in local congregations each year in the following way:
 1. advancing the strengths for effective ministry in local congregations each year 75-100 days
 2. resourcing conference boards and agencies 20 days

CCOM staff members will consult with local congregations and pastors to discover where need exists for assistance.

- C. District superintendents are members of the CCOM, but will not be appointed to conference program boards or agencies or their standing committees, unless the Discipline requires otherwise, or unless recommended by the conference Committee on Nominations and approved by the Annual Conference.
- D. Each superintendent shares with the bishop and cabinet and each Council on Ministries staff member shares with the director of the Council on Ministries a plan for annual consultation with the congregations he or she plans to assist in advancing their mission. The bishop, cabinet, and Council director will work together to coordinate consultations to maximize the effectiveness of the work.
- E. Council staff will be selected for their proven general skills and specialized skills in ministry development, spiritual direction and leadership.
- F. It is recommended that district superintendents be chosen with careful attention to the redefined role of the district superintendent as described in section A above.
- G. The following conference-wide goals will be established for greater involvement of youth and young adults through the local church:

1. Increase the number of youth (6 - 12th grades, 11 - 18 years old) served in mission* by 10% each year between 1993 and 1998.
 2. Increase the number of young adult relational groups across the conference by at least 150 each year between 1993 and 1998.
 3. Increase the number of young adults (18 - 35 years) served in mission across the conference by 10% each year between 1993 and 1998.
- H. By January 1, 1994, the Conference Council on Ministries will offer to local congregations, through conference boards and agencies, resources and leadership for programs (e.g. Vision 2000) whose goals will give attention to:
1. average worship attendance
 2. average Sunday School attendance
 3. professions of faith
 4. new tithers
 5. persons going into full-time Christian vocations
 6. new local ministries to be begun
 7. number of new congregations helped
 8. number of new overseas ministries helped
 9. new ministries to be staffed
 10. changes in physical facilities
 11. social issues to be addressed
- I. By January 1, 1994, strengthen our conference program for organizing new congregations and reorganizing existing congregations by implementing the following objectives:
1. Organize new congregations at an annual rate equal to approximately one percent of the previous year's total number of charges. Presume rapid growth, early financial independence from subsidies, and quick closure of those new churches that do not show significant missional cause to be continued. Deal with exceptions to these presumptions on a case by case basis.
 2. Reorganize existing congregations into "re-newed" churches at an annual rate equal to approximately one percent of the previous year's total number of charges. These churches may relocate, refocus their ministry objectives, offer alternative worship experiences, or serve constituencies in their community that differ from those served in the past, in an effort to become "new" again.
 3. Restructure conference plans for subsidizing new churches to reduce the creation of dependency patterns of behavior and to maximize the number of new churches started.
 4. Begin new churches in all kinds of communities, urban, suburban, small town, and rural, and among diverse social, ethnic, and economic strata within the population. Use diverse sources of leadership including ordained pastors, local pastors, and laity to organize these churches.
 5. Expand the $10 Club program.
 6. Solicit gifts of land, buildings, and/or cash for the purchase of sites for new churches and/or for the relocation of churches.
- J. The Annual Conference Board of Missions shall establish a task force to bring recommendations to the 1994 session of Annual Conference for addressing issues related to the future of congregations which evidence marginal missional effectiveness.

- K. A separate task force shall be created and named by the bishop to study the special role of the large membership church and its potential for reaching more persons for Christ as we move into the 21st Century.

II. FURTHER INCREASING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF PASTORAL AND LAY LEADERSHIP

To increase the effectiveness of pastoral and lay leadership:

- A. Consultive evaluation will be the conference practice to assist each pastor in growing forward his or her competencies as a missionary pastor. The goal is increased effectiveness in pastoral leadership in the appointment where he or she presently serves.
- B. A pastoral appointment will be made annually with the expectation that the pastor will remain for at least six years. Exceptions might occur.
- C. The bishop and cabinet will review regularly the progress of each appointment and, at the same time, plan to make approximately 50-80 appointment changes each year.
- D. The superintendent will make a helpful on-site consultation with the pastor and appropriate lay leaders sometime after the fourth month of a new appointment looking at ways to advance the congregation's mission during the first three years, and also in the early spring of the third year to assist the pastor and local congregation leaders in advancing the congregation's mission during the fourth through sixth years.
- E. The Conference Council on Ministries, in cooperation with the Board of Laity, shall evaluate the effectiveness of all present programs for leadership development (e.g. lay speaker program, January Workshops, Conference Summer School, Ministry Training Teams), continue those that are effective, and consider new programs.
- F. Form a Committee on Spiritual Formation* (3 representatives each from Board of Laity, Board of Ordained Ministry, and Board of Diaconal Ministry) to identify resources, recommend their use, and monitor their use, with suggestions made for implementation made to each agency as appropriate. CCOM staff will convene, organize, and provide resource leadership to this committee.

III. FURTHER IMPROVING MISSION AND SERVICE GIVING

To improve mission and service giving to local and connectional ministries:

- A. Focus more fully on the major motivational resources of compassion and community and somewhat less so on challenge, reasonability, and commitment.
- B. Communicate clearly and fully five to eight compelling "pictures" of helpful, effective, compassionate ministry done through the resources of mission and service giving.
- C. Establish an Annual Conference rule that there shall be no special conference-wide financial campaigns in the years 1993, 1994, or 1995 except for each local congregation to contribute its full fair share to conference mission and service giving.
- D. Any conference-wide special campaign for fund-raising occurring less than four years following a prior campaign will require a two-thirds vote of the annual conference.
- E. Give very positive recognition to those local congregations which meet or exceed their full fair share of conference mission and service giving. Also, give recognition to those congregations which contribute financially, through volunteers, and/or through the use of building space to community-based mission.

- F. The bishop shall name a long-range mission and service giving task force which will bring to the 1994 annual conference session a ten-year plan for the years 1996-2005.
1. Consider in this plan how members of local congregations can gain an increased sense of ownership in the connexional ministries they support through conference mission and service giving.
 2. The task force shall determine whether or not the apportionment formula is equitable, and shall recommend to CF&A adjustments as necessary.
 3. The task force should examine current levels of giving for the support of colleges, retirement facilities, children's home ministries, and camps to determine if amounts contributed by the conference can be lessened over time without harm to their function and mission.
 4. Any anticipated requests for conference-wide fund-raising will be considered in the development of the ten-year mission and service giving plan.
 5. The task force should consider issues related to pension funding and health insurance cost in its study.

IV. FURTHER STRENGTHENING STAFFING AND STRUCTURE

Having carefully addressed the issues and questions related to the optimum number of district superintendents and annual conference staff persons for the North Carolina Annual Conference, and believing that a valid judgment on this matter can only be made after these district superintendents and conference staff persons have been involved in their redefined roles for at least two years, we recommend that the bishop initiate a task force to study the total effect of changes in the roles of district superintendents and conference staff persons on the ministries of local congregations and to make recommendations to the 1995 session of the Annual Conference concerning the number of district superintendents and staff persons needed to fulfill the mission of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

- * A person served in mission is someone (who may or may not be a church member) who benefits directly from a congregation's ministry.
-  A relational group is any ongoing small group (at least once a month for six or more months) which offers opportunities for relationships to develop (e.g. Sunday School class, service team, athletic teams).
-  The term missionary pastor is used to suggest a change in mind-set from a professional minister model of ministry, that is perceived to essentially exist to serve the church, to one that exists to serve the full parish constituency, church and unchurched alike.
- * The term spiritual formation is used to describe the practice of a regular discipline of reading and praying, scripture study, retreat participation, spiritual direction, and worship that transforms the life of an individual to become more Christ-like.
-  The term conference-wide financial campaigns includes campaigns initiated and conducted by the Annual Conference, but does not include institutional ministry campaigns (e.g. Methodist Home for Children, colleges, etc.)

MINISTERS' MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

Effective Date - January 1, 1993

The Ministers' Moving Expense Committee met several times and studied a number of possibilities for providing moving expense. A company that will contract to move all ministers gave an estimate. This seemed to be too rigid and offered the possibility of error. Secondly, consultation was done with a moving company and it seemed the cost could be exorbitant unless a poundage limit was imposed.

After much careful consideration, the Committee makes the following recommendation.

I. Eligibility

- A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
- B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
- C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved disability leave or return into active service from approved disability leave.
- D. Widows or widowers of ministers in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
- E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
- F. Interim Supply pastors
- G. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.

II. Payment of Claims

- A. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
 1. Active ministers in section I.A. and I.B. (except retiring ministers, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,100.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
 2. Retiring ministers, widows, or widowers will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,780.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.
 3. Clergy couples will receive a base payment of $250.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,100.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one minister of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.
- B. Travel Allowance: An allowance of $1.00 per mile will be granted to all who are eligible to make claim. The mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the appointment to the Conference boundary, or the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement) whichever is less. Clergy couples will receive $1.00 per mile as defined above.
- C. The Conference treasurer will make payment to eligible ministers as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed. This will fulfill the 1988 Discipline, ¶ 269.2f(4), which states "The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and pastor shall make an annual review of the church owned parsonage(s) to assure proper maintenance."

- D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible ministers to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendents. This advance payment may be adjusted to cover adequately the initial up front money that must be paid by the moving clergy who move themselves. Any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer. The checklist entitled, "So You're Moving," must be properly signed and returned to the district superintendents, along with the receipts for moving, before the balance of the moving expense can be mailed by the Conference treasurer.
- E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.
- F. The base payment of $125.00 is intended to cover incidental moving expenses. Therefore, the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, mobile homes, etc., and the cleaning of the parsonage are not eligible for reimbursement.

III. Review Committee

- A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.
- B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

In 1971 the North Carolina Annual Conference established The Committee on Pastoral Care for the purpose of providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment to clergy and Diaconal Ministers and their families. The financial grants are provided to cover up to one-half of the cost of each counseling session until the $300 annual allowance per family has been disbursed. Ministers under the NC Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Health Insurance program should review the Health Care Benefit Program Book as up to 80% of financial coverage is provided for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants shall not exceed 100% of the fees charged.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and Diaconal Ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of twenty-two.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the N. C. Annual Conference in the status of active, retired, or on leave according to ¶¶ 448, 449, or 450 of The Book of Discipline (1998), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the N. C. Annual Conference, and in the status of active, retired, or on Leave in accordance with ¶ 313.1 of The Book of Discipline, (1988), or a dependent.

Special Circumstances:

1. Grant eligibility is provided when ministerial couples undergo marital separation or divorce. This is in the amount of $300 for each spouse for a maximum of two years after the separation.
2. Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, and for surviving spouses of ministers.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events. This includes the concerns and needs of single ministers as well as married. Grants of $50 per individual, couple, or family are made available for up to two events per year. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leadders' names and credentials, and verification of participation by the leaders should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Pastoral Care Committee:

Counselors: Clinical Members of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT);

Pastoral Counselors: Members of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC);

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification;

Psychologists (Clinical) - Licensed Practicing Psychologists; and

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of a qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care for a grant in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the Chairperson of the Pastoral Care Committee. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
2. Once the application, Conference Directory, and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members are assigned the same case number.
3. The therapist will receive the financial grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning this process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment for services that are provided.

Recommendation to the North Carolina Annual Conference

Whereas the Committee on Pastoral Care is established by the annual conference, the committee recommends the following structure for the membership of the committee: The membership of the Committee on Pastoral Care shall be composed of 4 members from the Board of Ordained Ministry, one of whom will be elected as the Chairperson by the Board of Ordained Ministry; 1 Diaconal Minister, elected by the Board of Diaconal Ministers; 1 representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; 1 Pastoral Counselor (member of AAPC); 2 members from the Board of Health and Welfare, and a Cabinet Representative. The Committee further recommends that funding for the Pastoral Care Committee be included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and that the awarding of grants be made dependent upon the availability of funds.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

- A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.
- B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Salary. The 1993 CAS for the North Carolina Conference is $31,022.00.
- C. The current rate is $290.00 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Salary increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAS to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1993 be increased to $305.00 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Salary increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $25,893,786.

- D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.
- E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 1993 required by the General Board of Pensions is $2,033,786 (Due Date December 31, 1993). The amount needed in 1994 to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $795,455. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 1994 budget request is $1,132,832.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

- A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.

- B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g.	$20,000.00
Add 23% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance	4,600.00
Plan Compensation will be	$24,600.00

1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pensions to be items of local expense.
2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
 - a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
 - b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 23% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
 - c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
 - d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is: 20%-1990; 21%-1991; 22%-1992; 23%-1993; 24%-1994; 25%-1995.
4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)
- C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pensions. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.
- E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

- F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.
- III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)
- A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% upon retirement at any age.
 2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on disability.
 3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.
 4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pensions. (Effective January 1, 1990)
- B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of DAC). (Effective January 1, 1990)
- IV. Implementation of the Program
- The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.
- A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.
- FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of the DAC)
- STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
- LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation
- INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility
- B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pensions through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.
- C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pensions for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.

B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)

1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 35 years of pension credit and receives pension benefits, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%
14	70%	30%
13	65%	35%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
8	40%	60%
7	35%	65%
2	10%	90%

3. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 1988] Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinue as Full-time Local Pastors, ¶1410, or Probationary Members, ¶1418, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶1451.3; who are granted Honorable Location, ¶1452.1; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶1452.2; who surrender the ordained ministerial office, ¶1452.3; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶1452.4; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶1453.3 are ineligible to receive health insurance benefits or life insurance when payments from the General Board of Pensions begin.

4. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the Medicare supplement paid for those covered under Medicare. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in V B2.
5. Clergy Couples' Insurance
 - a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B2.
 - b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B2.
 - c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.

VI. Dental Insurance

The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement

Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses was increased from $50,000 to $100,000. (Effective February 1, 1989)

VIII. Special Provisions

The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

IX. Conclusion

Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only)

RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1992 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE FUND

The Ministers' Transition Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his/her housing. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition, and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this Fund. He/she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

APPORTIONMENTS AND ASSESSMENTS

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall be assessed and pay into the Fund one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he/she receives each year from the charge he/she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff. District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference average salary, whichever is greater.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF ASSESSMENT

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his/her required assessment for three consecutive years, he/she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

Base benefits shall be paid to retired members of the Transition Fund as follows:

If retired at the end of one year of membership	$200.00

DIVIDENDS

After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to his/her account

Any funds remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

DEATH BENEFITS

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the time that dividends are earned, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary/beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

At retirement, members who have accrued the same years credit in the Fund (during the same years) will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

A minister who retires with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he/she retires, the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members. A minister with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund shall be paid in two payments, the base benefit as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited. The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the balance in the member's account and is subject to income tax. The first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of Annual Conference. The second payment shall be paid in a lump sum between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister retires. This second payment will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at the current bank passbook interest rate paid by a bank located in the city of Raleigh (the "passbook rate") in effect on December 15 prior to the January payment.

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

Any minister continuing to serve, but who has attained the age of 60 prior to July 1, following Annual Conference, but who has not reached age 70, may terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund under the provisions of the retirement policy by making a written request to the Conference treasurer not later than December 31 following the Annual Conference Session.

DISABILITY LEAVE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
2. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
3. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
4. Receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference treasurer in writing of his/her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Salary while on leave.
2. Be treated the same as a transferring member.

LESS THAN FULL TIME SERVICE

A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference average salary while serving less than full time.
2. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions discussed hereafter.

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFERRING

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the transition benefit will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with passbook interest added from that date to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

WITHDRAWING

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference treasurer, he/she shall receive the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the above formula.

REINSTATEMENT

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his/her ministerial career.

HEARING COMMITTEE

The chairperson of the Board of Pensions shall annually nominate and the Board shall elect a committee of five (5) persons, keeping a balance between clergy, laity, ethnic origin, and gender, to have authority to arbitrate on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, the Constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund.

NEW RULES AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void.

Report E - Recommendations for Pastors' Total Years of Pension Credit

It has been the goal of the Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Annual Conference to establish the correct years of pension for each pastor of the North Carolina Conference for which the Conference has pension responsibility.

In order that this objective be achieved, each pastor was requested to provide relevant information concerning his/her pastoral status, appointments served, etc. This information was compared with information found in the Conference Journals and with the records of the General Board of Pensions. Each pastor's record was presented to the Conference Board of Pensions. The Board then made the recommendation to the Annual Conference for the total years that had been established for each pastor. Each pastor, whose pension record was researched, was notified of the total years of pension credit. Also, the pastor was asked to sign a statement verifying agreement with the years of pension credit. If the pastor did not agree with the total years of pension credit, he/she was given the opportunity to request a hearing with the Review Committee of the Board of Pensions to present evidence which might affect the total years of credit. If the pastor was not satisfied with the recommendation of the Review Committee, he/she could have appeared before the full Board of Pensions to present reasons for the years of pension credit to be corrected. Some hearings were conducted. The Conference Board of Pensions has the responsibility to determine and recommend the years that are approved for pension credit. (See ¶ 1606.6, p. 611, The Book of Discipline, 1988).

It was the goal of the Conference Board of Pensions to have completed establishing the pension record of each pastor of this conference not later than the 1992 Session of the Annual Conference. The following procedures were recommended to reach this objective:

1. All records researched and confirmed in writing by the respective pastors since the 1991 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference are presented in this Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports, 1992, indicating the year the research was completed for action.
2. Where the Conference Journal shows a pastor in two different categories, the Board of Pensions has recommended the category of ministry that provides the pastor the greater benefit towards his/her pension.
3. This report does not include those pastors' records reported to the 1990 and 1991 Sessions of the North Carolina Annual Conference.
4. Also included in this report are those records for which a signed statement has not been filed following the last recorded mailing to the pastor from the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions. These records have been researched and approved by the Conference Board of Pensions.
5. This concludes the reporting of pension credit for each pastor published through the year indicated on printed reports to the 1990 and 1991 Sessions of the North Carolina Annual Conference and this final report to the 1992 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The Annual Conference session cannot revise or correct any pastor's years of pension credit until a recommendation comes from the Board of Pensions to the Annual Conference for such action. (See ¶ 1606.6, p. 611, The Book of Discipline, 1988).

SUPPLEMENTAL SALARIES, TASK FORCE TO STUDY

Our Task Force was appointed by Bishop C.P. Minnick to respond to the Rev. Ben Melvin's motion at the 1991 Annual Conference. Mr. Melvin moved that a Task Force be appointed "to study the feasibility of improving clergy morale and salaries by rewarding longevity and satisfactory performance of ministry." The Task Force is composed of three lay persons, three clergy persons, and the chairpersons of the Commission On Equitable Salaries, the Board of Ordained Ministry, and a representative of the Cabinet. The Assistant to the Bishop served as consultant.

We met three times and discussed the level of clergy compensation. We discussed plans to increase that level, thereby elevating the self-esteem of the clergy. After group discussion and individual thought, we came to believe that the basic assumption of a direct correlation between the level of compensation and the morale of the clergy is flawed. After further reflection we came to the opinion that the issue of clergy morale is a complicated one that will not be solved with cash awards or kind words.

We offer an alternative possibility to the clergy morale problem. Lyle Schaller states that churches with an average of less than 120 in average worship attendance are severely underfunded for program and ministry. He does not mean that these churches are not faithful to the Gospel or that they are not contributing to the mission of the Connection. These underfunded congregations are not able to keep up with the skyrocketing cost of ministry. Churches with less than 120 in worship are expending their limited resources on the essentials of: building maintenance and upkeep; pastor's compensation; and Conference and World Service askings. Local church programs are often under-funded. An increase in any of the above areas produces considerable strain and anguish within the church, with the corresponding truckload of negative feelings falling at the feet of the pastor.

Nearly 80% of the congregations in our Annual Conference fall within the category in question. Many of these are in circuits, which helps somewhat. Our Task Force struggled with the question: What is it like for pastors to have put in 4 years of college, 3-4 years of seminary, (often incurring large debt in the process) to have struggled through the candidacy process only to discover that they serve a church with severe financial limitations? Further, the prospects are very real that one may not receive a more viable appointment at Conference next year.

To make the pastor of such a congregation feel even more discouraged are the reminders in spoken and printed form that World Service and Conference Benevolence payments are falling below last year, and that insurance costs while holding the line this year, will continue to escalate in the future. So now guilt is added to the struggle. Maybe we don't have a morale problem. Could it be with all the discouragement, guilt and negative reinforcement, what we have is passive-aggressive anger?

A survey of clergy of several denominations by Robert Wilson and Paul Mickey suggests that the level of compensation is not a major factor in clergy morale. In fact, it appears that morale is higher among clergy in denominations with a lower compensation scale. Wilson and Mickey assert that the main issue of clergy career satisfaction deals with the call to ministry and not the level of compensation. Their research found the greatest incidence of low clergy morale among the highest paid.

We see at least two positive signs within our Conference:

1. The "Into the 21st Century Committee" is developing clarity as to our future mission as a Conference. Their emphasis is on the local church, dealing with questions such as: What are we about? What are we trying to accomplish? How does the Connection express care and supply positive interventions to local church problems? From their study will come strategies for action.

2. The Vitalization Project is working well with congregations who show promise of viability. Hopefully their number will be increased.

We offer the following suggestions to the Cabinet and Commission on Equitable Salaries for consideration:

- To increase the number of Circuits and Cooperative Parishes to bring appointments up to financial viability status.

- To recover the broad use of the part-time lay pastor as primary pastoral leadership of under-funded churches.

- To make use of retired ministers, retired military chaplains, and bi-vocational persons, under the supervision of a District Superintendent or Elder.

- To encourage the Board of Ordained Ministry and Cabinet to study the supply and demand of future clergy, especially if the intention is to reduce the number of appointments of clergy in Full Connection. A realistic picture of what it means to serve an underfunded church must be shared with persons who are beginning the candidacy process.

- Our Seminaries must be encouraged to share the vision, with its implications, of providing alternatives to an M.Div. in every appointment.

- We must reduce the number of cash supplements, not add to them, if our churches and clergy are to live with a level of morale that enables them to function faithfully in the ministry of Jesus Christ.

- The spiritual and emotional health of the clergy is an issue that will not be solved even if every church suddenly becomes financially viable. While our appointive system works against the District Superintendent being the principal figure in this area, the D.S. should regularly encourage pastors to seek out their own support groups and spiritual mentors. Pastors should be taught to convene peer groups to discuss and support one another's call to and within the ministry. Continuing Education events on Spiritual Formation for clergy should be offered regularly.

Our understanding is that in forwarding the above thoughts and suggestions to the Cabinet, Commission on Equitable Salaries, and Annual Conference, our work is completed.

WHETHER OR NOT THIS CONFERENCE SHOULD BE IN THE RETIREMENT HOMES BUSINESS, COMMITTEE TO STUDY

A CHRISTIAN VISION FOR MINISTRY WITH THE ELDERLY

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; The former things shall not be remembered or come to mind....I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth....

from Isaiah 65:17-20 NRSV

The Church: The People of God

The people of God are bound to each other in covenant community which is a gift of the God who created us to be in loving relationships, sent Jesus Christ to redeem the world from brokenness and sin, and empowers us with grace through the Holy Spirit. Into this covenant with God and God's people we enter in our baptism; we receive our identity as Christians and our calling to lives of discipleship. In the sacrament of baptism, we are initiated into the Church of Jesus Christ and enlisted in its ministry. The grace which keeps us in saving relationship with Christ and enables our faithful service to other people is made ever new to us in the Eucharist through which we are nurtured and sustained. We are commissioned to witness to the transforming power of God's love and to manifest that love in compassion, peace, and justice as we work toward the fullness of the Reign of God. In death we celebrate the triumph of divine goodness which promises us resurrection and eternal participation in God's covenant community which is the communion of the saints.

In the covenant with Israel, God repeatedly commanded the community to remember its duty to care for all members especially those unable to provide for themselves. This duty included the imperative to, "Honor your father and your mother..." Some of the most bitter condemnations of Israel's violation of covenant are spoken through the prophets against those who fail to fulfill these obligations. In the ministry of Jesus Christ, God's care for the poor, the oppressed, and the powerless was expressed most clearly. By his explicit teaching, his selfless service, and his sacrificial death, Christ mandated that those who seek to follow him are to minister to "the least of these" (Matthew 25:40 and 45). In the earliest Christian church, this concern was so intense that "everything they owned was held in common" so that "there was not a needy person among them" (Acts 4:32 and 34). The authenticity of love was tested by the integrity of action: "How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?" (1 John 3:17).

The United Methodist Church stands in the tradition of John Wesley who taught, "The Gospel of Christ knows no religion but social, no holiness but social holiness." In the midst of his call to spiritual renewal, Wesley was deeply concerned for the physical wellbeing of needy persons in the society around him. He established clinics and dispensaries for medicines as well as devoting himself to charitable work to benefit the poor. For original Methodism, evangelicalism and social action were both essential components of the Gospel message and of responsible discipleship within the community of covenant.

Christian Care for the Elderly

In contemporary American society, the elderly constitute a group within the covenant community who have special needs as well as special gifts. Little respect is afforded to them by the popular glorification of youth, health and vitality. Changes in family patterns have left many aged persons bereft of the care they traditionally received from their younger relatives. Greatly increased longevity has compounded both the numbers and the needs of individuals who are past their most active stages of life. Information provided by the North Carolina Study Commission on Aging projects a continued increase in the age group of persons over 65. By the year 2010, the number of such persons in this state is estimated to be almost 1,200,000 or 15.2% of the population. Persons older than 85 will comprise 2.2% of our population - 169,000 individuals. Many institutions and agencies, both secular and religious, have been established which are attempting to meet these needs.

A prime question which the church should address is this: How is the care provided for the elderly in church-related settings distinctive from that provided in secular settings? If the church is simply another company engaged in the retirement and nursing home business, should the church be so engaged at all? If the needs of aged persons can be provided for as well or better by secular institutions, why should the church try to compete? "Whether or not this annual conference should be in the retirement home business?" - this is the question which this committee was charged to consider. Our answer is that the annual conference should, indeed, continue to care for retired and elderly persons and that this work should be carried out as an authentic Christian ministry which can serve as a model for the ways that the covenant people of God care for each other.

It is our belief that the church can and should offer to the elderly a degree and quality of care that is unique. Such care is an outgrowth of participation in the community of the divine covenant; it is motivated by the reality of divine grace and empowered by the indwelling of divine presence. Christian care for aged persons is recognition of our personal and corporate responsibility; it is fulfillment of the commands of Jesus Christ. Christian ministry to the elderly must foster "...intentional relationships that empower and engage persons in holy living and holy dying" (Holy Living & Holy Dying: A United Methodist/Roman Catholic Common Statement, p. 7). These relationships will include those with God, with the church, with other persons, and with self, nurtured within a holistic community of grace.

Care of the aged in institutions such as retirement and nursing homes is one of many options. Local congregations are challenged to assess the needs of people in their communities and to develop creative approaches to meeting them. These endeavors might include such efforts as smaller group homes in certain localities, similar to the model being used by the Methodist Children's Home. Other possibilities would be the provision of the kinds of assistance required to enable elderly persons to continue to live in their own homes, programs to offer a variety of help for caregivers of the aged, adult day care centers - perhaps in settings combined with child care so that the generations might enjoy mutual service. Opportunities for innovation are as unlimited as are our compassion and vision.

Christian Care in Retirement and Nursing Homes

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. is a not for profit corporation chartered by the State of North Carolina on January 24, 1946, and related in faith to the North Carolina Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church. We affirm the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

It is our mission to serve United Methodists in the North Carolina Conference and others who desire to live within a Christian retirement community and to extend support services beyond our campuses to ensure to the aging the respect and dignity that is their right as senior members of the human community.

It is our intent to provide benevolent assistance to those United Methodists who have need, with special reference to those who have rendered exemplary service to the church and community, provided that such can be granted without impairing the ability of the Corporation to operate on a sound financial basis. (From the Mission and Relationship Statement of the North Carolina Annual Conference and the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., as revised in June 1988.)

A prerequisite for Christian ministry in retirement and/or nursing home settings is that such efforts and institutions be clearly understood and identified as expressions of the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and of the Church which continues the work of Christ in the world. The criteria put forth in this statement of Christian vision should be used for evaluation of the present three homes of the annual conference and as guides for the establishment of other settings for care.

General Standards

For such ministry to be faithful, the institutions of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church which are devoted to this end should conform to the following standards:

1. They should provide holistic care designed to meet the range of human needs -- spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual, and social.
2. Access to the services provided should be open to all persons who want and need them, regardless of their economic limitations. Indeed, there should be special concern for the poor and the abandoned. Careful attention should be devoted to ensuring ethnic inclusiveness.
3. Efforts ought to be made to provide appropriate care for persons at various levels of physical and mental health, changing as the needs of individuals change, but continuing through the end of life.
4. In all aspects of this ministry, a Christian atmosphere of compassion, forgiveness, commitment, collegiality, and justice should prevail. The administrative leadership and all levels of the staff are to understand employment in such a setting as preeminently an arena of Christian service to human need.

Spiritual Nurture

It is of utmost importance that the care of the aged include care of their souls. The following criteria should be determinative:

1. The facilities of each of the major retirement and nursing homes should include a Christian chapel or sanctuary. If smaller group homes are established, they should provide settings with sacred space and symbols appropriate for corporate worship.
2. The full range of pastoral ministry should be offered. Chaplains should be recognized and treated as preeminently representatives of the church. As full participants in the connectional structure of the church, they must have sufficient authority and independence to enable the exercise of both priestly and prophetic functions.
3. Chaplains will be responsible for seeing that regular opportunities for worship, including frequent celebration of the sacraments, are made available to all persons. Preaching and teaching should call persons to intensified Christian commitment and deepened maturity in the faith.
4. Spiritual formation is a lifelong process with the goal of Christian perfection -- conformity to the image of Christ and motivation solely by the love of God. Individuals are to be nurtured in the continuing working of divine grace in their lives, to and through the experience of death.

Preservation of God-given Worth

Older persons who are residents of church-related institutions, or otherwise recipients of care offered by agencies of the church, do not surrender their God-given authority, dignity, and value as individuals. The following will serve to protect and enhance this status:

1. They should be the beneficiaries of intentional efforts to empower them to appreciate their own worth, to utilize their talents and experiences, and to engage in continuing service to others in as much as their abilities make possible.
2. This would include their participation in the governance of the community in ways that allow them to be meaningfully involved in decision-making about their own lives.
3. Elderly persons should be engaged in the larger secular and spiritual community, and enabled to maintain and enhance those relationships and activities which integrate them with their families, friends, churches, work and recreational settings.
4. The ambience in which these persons live should be culturally, socially, and spiritually elevating.

Recommendations

In the continuing efforts of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church to actualize this vision in the realities of our ministry with the elderly, the study committee offers the following recommendations:

1. The Annual Conference should offer financial assistance for the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. for two purposes only: the provision of Christian ministry and the support of those residents unable to pay full price for the care that they are rendered. The continued granting of these funds is to be contingent upon adherence to the Mission and Relationship Statement quoted above and to the standards established in this statement of Christian Vision for Ministry with the Elderly. The administration of the homes is to make specific accounting of the above funds quarterly to the Annual Conference.
2. Ministerial leadership for each of the present three retirement homes should be provided by the regular appointment of a chaplain with financial support by the Annual Conference. These appointments might be either to the home as a station or as part of a charge as needs and resources indicate.
3. The Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. should receive input from residents, local administrators, and managers in evaluating the overall administration and service of the homes. Chaplains should report to the board in person at least annually.
4. The Board of Health and Welfare and the Bishop of the North Carolina Annual Conference should work closely with the Board of Trustees and the administration of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. to see that the Christian vision articulated in this statement is implemented and maintained. The Annual Conference should receive, at least annually, reports which should be made publicly available.
5. The Annual Conference, districts, local churches, clergy and lay persons should actively and prayerfully seek to develop creative alternatives to provide care for the aged beyond our present institutions, such as within small group homes.

Conclusion

All aspects of ministry to aged persons in church-related settings should be directed by and accountable to the church. The vision of Christian ministry is a vision which sees the church both carrying out the responsibility and enjoying the privilege of active participation in the continuing work of Christ for the redemption of the world. The church today has a rich opportunity not only to care for the elderly, but to be enriched by the unique resources which they offer as we minister together as the covenant community of the people of God.

B. REPORTS

STATE OF THE CHURCH ADDRESS

Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples has been the theme for the NC Annual Conference during this quadrennium. Those words describe the vision which the United Methodist people of this conference have pursued and have sought to bring to reality in their life and mission.

For the current year we have added to that general theme the words, OFFER THEM CHRIST, as a reminder that the central concern and major program emphasis of our conference for 1992 is EVANGELISM. When these words are added to our banner, they become both an affirmation and a mandate. They affirm that vital congregations and faithful disciples do indeed offer Christ to the world; and vital congregations and faithful disciples live under this evangelistic mandate, OFFER THEM CHRIST!

During the first three years of this quadrennium God has used us to lead others to Jesus Christ through our ministries in evangelism. 9,463 persons were received into our churches on profession of faith. In addition, 9,876 persons were received from other United Methodist churches, and 6,679 persons were received into membership from other denominations. The total number of persons who became members of local congregations in our annual conference was 26,018. During that same period our membership losses by death, transfer to other denominations, transfer to other United Methodist churches, and membership withdrawn totaled 21,026. During 1991 our net gain in membership was 1,024. Our total membership at the close of 1991 was 219,480 members.

While we rejoice and thank God for those who have responded to our witness for Jesus Christ and have become members of our congregations, we must note that our growth as an annual conference has not kept pace with the increase in population in our area. Our deep hope and earnest prayer is that we shall respond with such zeal to our Lord's call to go and "make disciples" that 1992 and the years beyond will result in increasing numbers of persons brought into Christian discipleship by our evangelistic efforts.

During 1991 as an expression of our stewardship of financial resources, the United Methodist people of the NC Annual Conference gave a total of $61,437,931 to support the work of Jesus Christ in ministries at home and around the world. Let us today offer our thanks to God for all of those faithful disciples and congregations who have given joyfully and sacrificially to enable the church to reach out and touch people everywhere with the caring and saving love of God. But while we praise God for the commitment to Christian stewardship expressed by so many United Methodist people, we must remind ourselves that a per capita giving of $280.00 per year for United Methodist Christians in eastern NC falls far short of the biblical teaching concerning the tithe. Let us not be satisfied until every United Methodist is committed to the Christian doctrine and practice of the stewardship of financial resources.

Convinced that our theme, Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples is a call to shape and use annual conference resources, staff, structures, and programs to enhance local congregations and to assist them in moving toward their vision, our Local Church Vitalization Project was put in place by the annual conference in 1989. This project has involved 245 local congregations in an intensive process of self-evaluation and missional goal setting. A full-time team leader for this project was added to the annual conference staff. 23 consultants, including both laity and clergy, who have received extensive in-depth training for this program, are leading congregations in this project which is bringing new and added vitality to the life and mission of those congregations who are involved.

Our capital funds drive, The Spirit for Tomorrow, with a goal of $8,000,000 to be received for ministries in outdoor Christian education and church extension is being concluded this year. The goal was achieved in pledges, but the economic recession in eastern NC has made it difficult for many persons to give the amount which they originally intended to donate. However, the $4.7 million which has already been received has made possible many improvements and new additions to the physical facilities in our camps, thus enhancing the quality and enjoyment of camper life and experiences. Spirit for Tomorrow gifts have made possible, also, the establishment of and support for fourteen new United Methodist congregations in the NC Annual Conference, with two others in the planning and development stage. These recently organized congregations are providing ministries of exceptional quality to an ever-increasing number of people. 2,673 members and constituents are now sharing in the life and mission of these new congregations.

During the 1990 session of the Annual Conference I informed the conference that I had put in place a committee of laity and clergy designated as our "Into the Twenty-first Century Committee" to consider with me the mission of the NC Annual Conference for the 1990s and into the next century. This committee was given the responsibility to evaluate all areas of our life and work as United Methodists in eastern NC, including annual conference structures, staff, and programs, to set forth our missional purpose as a conference, and to delineate the role of the annual conference connection in supporting, resourcing, and facilitating the mission of Jesus Christ through local congregations.

To gather data from the grassroots for consideration by this committee, I visited every district in the fall of 1990. In these sessions, clergy and laity shared insights, concerns, and suggestions for consideration by the committee. A summary of the data which I received was sent back to every local pastor and congregation for reflection and comment. Eight key issues were identified by the committee from responses made, and these issues, as defined, were shared with all conference congregations. More than two hundred congregational responses were received by me to those proposed key issues for consideration by the Into the Twenty-first Century Committee. Of the eight issues defined for attention, two were considered to be of greatest concern to the respondents: advancing the local congregation as a center for mission, and the enhancement of spiritual leadership among laity and clergy.

During 1991, proposals, objectives, and goals being considered by the committee were shared with the Cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries, and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. In the fall of 1991 the members of the Conference Council on Ministries, Conference CFA, Conference COM staff, representatives of the Office of Ministerial Relations, other key conference leaders, and members of the Into the Twenty-first Century Committee met in a retreat to consider proposals, objectives, and goals being addressed by the committee. Subsequently, the committee's members devised for your consideration the Statement of Mission for the annual conference and the Missional Plan, which was mailed to you along with other materials, to be considered in this annual conference session. The Statement of Mission and the Missional Plan propose: "that as the NC Annual Conference approaches and enters the 21st Century, the goal of its structure, staff, and programs shall be to help prepare and empower local congregations to be the strategic centers for ministry and mission by: developing an ongoing ministry of evangelism, outreach, and Christian nurture, with emphasis on membership growth, attendance increase, organizing new congregations, and greater involvement of youth and young adults.

I. FURTHER ADVANCING THE MISSION OF LOCAL CONGREGATIONS

II. FURTHER INCREASING THE EFFECTIVENESS OF PASTORAL AND LAY LEADERSHIP

encouraging, developing, and sustaining spiritual formation for lay and clergy leaders who are equipped and inspired to give effective missional leadership to the local church for ministry and administration.

III. FURTHER IMPROVING MISSION AND SERVICE GIVING

developing a long-range stewardship emphasis, rooted in our calling to compassionate ministry, both in the local congregation and through our connected ministries, including a reassessment of the apportionment formula to enable local congregations to address their financial stewardship responsibilities and commitments with joy and thanksgiving.

IV. FURTHER STRENGTHENING STAFFING AND STRUCTURE

redefining the roles and responsibilities of district superintendents, annual conference staff, and conference boards and agencies so that major attention can be given to resourcing and equipping local congregations for their ministry and mission.

Brenda Brown and Rene Bideaux, who have served on the Into the Twenty-first Century Committee, will review for you now the proposed directions and guidelines for the annual conference as we move toward a future in mission led by vital congregations and faithful disciples. Let me note, before Rene and Brenda begin their presentations, that this report is not being submitted for line by line amendments, but rather to seek the response of the annual conference to the proposed directions in which this mission statement will lead us.

Robert Wallace, *President*Murry DeHart, *Vice-president*Jerry T. Smith, *Secretary-TreasurerCONFERENCE LAY LEADER, REPORT OF

The written report of the Board of Laity is contained in The Conference Program, Recommendations and Reports on page 115. Although I will not read that report to you, I do have a few additional comments.

Today Beth and I would like to express our appreciation for the privilege of my having served as your Conference Lay Leader for the past four years. It has certainly been for us an experience that has strengthened our faith and one that we shall never forget. In order to express this to you more fully, I will need your help. At the end of this address, the last two words are "Sunday's comin'," and I want you to say them with me. I think we need to have at least one practice. When I give you this signal with my hand, I would like you to say "Sunday's comin'." Let me hear how well you can do. (Hand gesture.) "Sunday's comin'." Not bad, but you can do better. Once again. (Hand gesture.) "Sunday's comin'." That's pretty good. Now, when I reach the end, I will give you two clues: the hand signal and a verbal clue - "...because we know that...."

In February of this year Beth and I were in Nashville, TN, for the meeting of the National Association of Conference Lay Leaders. We heard the addresses of the four finalists who were in competition for the privilege of presenting the Laity Address at General Conference. One of the finalists included a story that kept running through my mind as I thought about what I would share with you today. And this is my version of this true story.

At a church in Philadelphia there was an all-day preaching service. One of the young preachers was well prepared and his presentation was flawless. The congregation was touched by his message and by his preaching. They became really involved and participated with him. He finished his sermon with a standing congregation. During a few minutes break he was sharing his great feelings with an older pastor who listened carefully. The older minister let him talk for a bit and then responded, "You haven't seen anything yet. Just watch and listen to me." How true that turned out to be!

As the older pastor began to preach, he developed a rhythm that ran throughout the congregation and left them spellbound. He shared the story of Jesus' trial and crucifixion. He shared the agony and pain of Black Friday when Jesus was crucified. And then he reminded them that "Sunday's comin'." Sunday's coming - that glorious day of the resurrection. Sunday's coming - that day that reminded them and reminds us that God is in control and that God is the Master yet.

On and on he preached. "Do you have troubles? Have no fear for Sunday's comin'. Do you have debts? Have no fear for Sunday's comin'. Does the Devil tempt you more than you can handle? Have no fear for Sunday's comin'. Sunday's comin'. God's day of resurrection is coming. God is Lord of all."

And on he preached, "Sunday's comin'. The answer for all of our needs is to believe and to keep our hearts fixed on Sunday's comin'." Finally he finished, and the young pastor knew that he had watched the Holy Spirit at work in one of the truly great sermons.

For the privilege of being the NC Conference Lay Leader for the past four years, I want to say, "Thank you for reminding me that Sunday's comin'." When I was tired of driving to yet another meeting, some dear person of the NC Conference - sometimes a clergyperson and sometimes a layperson - would give me a friendly smile or a pat on the back that would say to me, "Sunday's comin'." When I was concerned over the finances of the Conference at a budget discussion, there was always from someone an encouraging word, "Have faith for Sunday's comin'." As I visited struggling congregations, time after time their faithful stewardship would say, "Everything is okay. Sunday's comin'." When I searched for new ways or ideas that I might suggest to help the Conference with our finances, I learned that the District Superintendents were not accepting all of the pay raise to which they were entitled by Conference regulations. Rejoice for Sunday's comin'. When I felt a concern for evangelism, I would see local churches involved in programs to reach the unchurched in the communities. Again Sunday's comin'. Development of new congregations in our Conference reminded me that Sunday's comin'. The day-by-day Christian faith that is continually expressed by our laity and our church kept reminding me and continues to impress on me that Sunday's comin'.

Your work, your love, your support, and your caring have all sustained me in my personal spiritual growth by reminding me that Sunday's comin'. And I thank you - each of you, laity and clergy alike - for all that you have meant to Beth and to me and all that you mean to the NC Conference.

As we face the years ahead, I know that we can face the future with faith, joy, love and security in Jesus the Christ because we know that "Sunday's Comin'."

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES, REPORTS OF

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

This past year the Native American History Book, The Lumbee Methodists - Getting to Know Them, received an award of excellence in the category of Religious Books from the NC Society of Historians. Mrs. C. W. Twiford, a member of our Commission, was voted Historian of the Year for Eastern NC, by the NC Society of Historians. Several members of the Commission attended the awards meeting.

"Methodist Beginnings in America" was the theme for the 1991 SEJ Historical Society meeting at Asbury College, Wilmore, KY. Vivian Mitchell and I attended the meeting.

I have been nominated to serve on the SEJ Commission on Archives and History for the next quadrennium.

Our computerized program is progressing slowly but surely. This program, when finished, and it will take a few years, will contain invaluable information on ministers, churches and other historical data.

Plans are being made to hold workshops in our Conference on "The Wesleyan Spirit." These workshops will train local church leaders about our Wesleyan heritage and enable them to assist their local churches in the Conference-wide emphasis on evangelism.

Beginning in 1994, the Commission on Archives and History will give UM ministers grave plaques to families of deceased ministers, if they desire to have one.

Our NC Conference Historical Society, under the able leadership of the Reverend W. Arthur Warren, is doing much to support the Commission and its work. The society meets twice a year. They produce an excellent newsletter, which is available to its members. You can join during this Annual Conference for yearly dues of $7.00.

The work of the Local Church Historian was taught at the 1991 January workshop. We were pleased with the attendance.

Two suggestions our Commission leaves for the next quadrennium: 1) Keep up with the electronic process of record keeping and storage of historical data, and 2) the Commission, in order to meet the mandate of the Discipline, must have more space for storage and research.

Our 1991 meetings were held at St. Paul, Goldsboro, and Salem Church, Belfast, Goldsboro District.

CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS, COMMISSION ON

In the Gospel of John it is recorded that Jesus, the hour of his arrest at hand, lifted his eyes to heaven and prayed for "...those who believe in me...that they may all be one" (John 17:20). As the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, we have sought to be faithful to this prayer.

It is difficult to be one. Issues of church polity, doctrine, and tradition have fragmented the Christian witness. These divisions are very real and cannot simply be glossed over or ignored. For example, it is difficult to see now how we might reach a common understanding with Baptists over the issue of infant baptism! At the same time, as United Methodist Christians, we must realize that our competition, our struggle, is not with the "Baptists down the street," but with those forces in our society which would trivialize or deny God. The mandate of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious concerns is to seek ways in which our essential unity, our faith in Christ, might be seen amidst the diversity and division of our time.

To this end, the Commission has studied and publicized issues relating to the process of Covenanting, an endeavor under the auspices of the Consultation on Church Union. The United Methodist Church is currently involved in prayer and study with eight other denominations in finding ways to witness, worship, and serve together in the world. Documents from the Consultation on Church Union have been shared with all the churches in the Conference, and the Commission is in the process of preparing study materials for use in 1993.

A new program for the Commission is its involvement in a United Methodist-Episcopal dialogue in April, 1992. It is hoped that this meeting will be a springboard for further discussions and will become national in scope.

The Commission continues its support of the NC Council of Churches in its efforts to foster cooperation among different denominations and understanding of different faiths.

Finally, the Commission would like to encourage local churches to be aware that activities involving mission, worship, and evangelism also involve issues of Christian Unity. For example, when two churches of different denominations join together for Easter Sunrise Service, it is indeed a Worship Event, but so too is it a Unity Event. When such events happen, then the prayer which Jesus Christ prayed so long ago begins to be answered, and our Christian witness to the world cannot help but be strengthened.

CHURCH AND SOCIETY, BOARD OF

Empower and evangelize the poor. That is our Wesleyan heritage. John Wesley asked of every enterprise, including the evangelistic one, "how does it benefit the poor?" Those interested in a re-reading of Wesley around this subject will delight in Good News to the Poor, (John Wesley's Evangelical Economics), by Theodore W. Jennings, Jr., Abingdon Press, Nashville, TN, 1990.

Members of the Board of Church and Society have been exploring the implications for a church that has largely set aside such thinking, a church content to let it become a historical curiosity. One key finding is the continuation of the Annual Conference's Task Force on Systemic Poverty. The work of this group is at the forefront of raising our consciousness and articulating the best response of the church to the poor, and to the systems that contribute to further entrenchment of poverty.

The "charge" of this board is to interpret society's "zones of pain" to the church at large, and seek to discover ways that the church can be in ministry to the hurting. The marginalized, left out, impoverished, and forgotten of society are the ones we lift up, the ones for whom we advocate change, the ones to whom we are called to be merciful. We find a charter for doing so not only in The Discipline, but in the Scriptures themselves. As we close this quadrennium, we take a moment to celebrate and to mourn.

- We celebrate with the "hungry" that are fed, through church-wide and local church initiatives, through CROP Walks, soup kitchens, and open pantries. We must mourn the debate in church and society surrounding who these ahungered poor are, and the growing penchant to blame them for their grinding poverty, rather than working even harder to claim our identity among the blessed merciful.

- We celebrate with the "thirsty" the gift of clean water, flowing from good wells and the generous hearts of the faithful. We must mourn our neglect and pollution of the waters, even the good earth, made to teem with life, that we might enjoy their plenty forever.

- We celebrate with the "strangers" that are welcomed into our midst, for ours is a nation made up mostly of immigrants, and it is ours to remember that. Where exiles like we once were are shown hospitality, we rejoice. We must mourn the turning away from our shores and our churches the alien, the sojourner, the foreigner. We must also mourn with the Native American communities and peoples that are treated as strangers in their own land.

- We celebrate with the "naked" who are clothed through local church and ecumenical "clothes closets" and clothing drives. We must mourn for the naked who are farther than our sight or imaginations will reach. We further mourn our penchant to give of our "excess" to these poor, and not of our "substance."

- We celebrate with the "sick" who are visited, through the goodness and mercy of people called by Christ. We must mourn the sick who are still neglected, even shunned, especially those afflicted with Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrom (AIDS).

- We celebrate with the "imprisoned" who are visited, through Yokefellows and the countless local church works of mercy. We further give thanks for the work of the Prison Committee of the Annual Conference. We must mourn the ongoing struggle to claim the humanity we share with the imprisoned.

From Mary's Magnificat and the parable of the Last Judgement to the mind of John Wesley, we name and celebrate the places and peoples where God is already at work, and mourn the ways in which we do not fully share these tender mercies. There is good news for the poor, and healing for the broken, and liberty for the oppressed. Let us rejoice, and share the good news!

EDUCATION, BOARD OF

In Second Timothy 2:15, Paul admonishes us to Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. (KJV)

With Paul's admonishment from our Lord in mind, we, the Conference Board of Education, have committed ourselves to provide for you the workshops, labs, training events, and seminars necessary for Christian growth to all persons within our NC Conference.

Our youth have grown spiritually and in their ability to interrelate within the diverse cultures that make up our Conference through such ministries as the Annual Conference Session for Youth (ACS), Junior and Senior High workshops, Youth Rally Day, Camping Ministries for all ages, to name a few, with overwhelming attendance at each event. Our thanks go out to the Reverend Ray Warren for the fruitful ministries rendered across the board to our Conference youth.

Join me in commending our Older Adult Task Force for conducting Older Adult Symposiums in seven of our twelve districts, and according to evaluations, all produced fruitful results.

In the past Conference year, our Ministry Training Teams sharpened their skills, and provided expertise in all age levels of education to many local churches throughout this Conference. I take this opportunity to say thank you to each team member for invaluable unselfish ministerial support to our commitment to become Vital Congregations.

The Children's Ministry Team at conference level is second to none in The United Methodist Church, and we applaud them for another exciting year of nurture and spiritual growth for our children. Through innovation and vision by Ray Warren and his team, the Confirmation Class with our Bishop was probably the best in many years.

We, the Education Board, ask your continuous prayers and support as we work together to build Vital Congregations < = > Faithful Disciples of Jesus Christ.

ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee, as it carries out its work and mission, has both a blessing and a burden. Our blessing is that we are able to help the people of this Conference celebrate the rich diversity of the children of God which constitute our membership. To this end, we sponsored a "Festival of Sharing" in the Fall of 1991 with the theme, "Celebrating Our Richness in Diversity." One of our blessings is to provide opportunities for all people of this Conference to learn more about and foster appreciation for the different racial ethnic groups that make up our Conference.

Our burden as the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee is to reach all United Methodists within this Conference with the challenging biblical calling for us to be an inclusive church. To this end, we lift up the Comprehensive Plan as mandated by The Book of Discipline and monitor the effectiveness of Boards and Agencies in meeting the reprioritization of goals, objectives, and strategies as outlined in the Comprehensive Plan.

Resource and training events are another way that the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee helps the racial ethnic churches in our Conference. In the Fall of 1992 we will help in sponsoring a "Sharing Our Faith" event which will have an evangelism and education focus.

While our primary work and mission is in advocacy and monitoring, the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee provides support for programs and activities which advance the cause of Christ through a more inclusive church. This year we hope to help Good Shepherd Church in Durham, our Conference's most ethnically inclusive church, with its ministry to those with handicapping conditions. Furthermore, we hope to help the Chatham Hispanic Ministries in Siler City as this church carries out its calling to help migrant workers with housing needs as well as spiritual needs.

We thank all those in this Conference who have been bold in following God's vision for a completely inclusive church. Sometimes the progress is not as rapid as it should be; yet we remain hopeful that God's vision will be realized as we follow the leading of the Holy Spirit. We give special thanks to those boards and agencies who have taken seriously our calling to be an inclusive church through their elections of officers, setting of goals, and planning objectives for future implementation.

Together let us celebrate our richness of diversity. Let us celebrate that God calls all - whether Korean, Hispanic, African American, Native American, Caucasian - to minister to each other with the love of Christ Jesus.

Mack McMillan, Chairperson

EVANGELISM, BOARD OF

It is good to be a part of an Annual Conference which sets evangelism as the priority for programs and ministry. The Board of Evangelism does not view this as our reaction to declines but as an affirmation of faith and renewal to presenting Christ Jesus as Lord and Savior.

Over this last year, many Districts held workshops on Visitation Evangelism, Faith Sharing and assisting the Sunday School in reaching the un-churched. The Board of Evangelism has offered monies to each district to assist in their training events. Once again we have sponsored persons to attend the workshop at Frazier Memorial UMC in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Board of evangelism is committed to the local church. The Media Center resources, the training of individuals within our Conference, the Conference Prayer Calendar, all are to glorify God and help the local church to be effective in ministry.

The Board commends to the Annual Conference, Neal Salter and Tommy Tyson as approved Conference Evangelists. They may serve the churches in preaching, teaching, and training.

Christ Jesus has blessed us with an increase in our membership roll. Our churches had 8,542 new persons; 3,029 of them by profession of faith to join the ministry of the church. May we be reminded that these persons have effused our congregations with new life, vitality, and joy.

In prayer, let us continue to be open to the indwelling of the Holy Spirit and be faithful disciples to our loving Lord.

David J. Goehring, Chairperson

GLOBAL COVENANT COMMUNITY, TASK FORCE ON

In 1989, the NC Annual Conference embarked upon the initiation of a covenant relationship between our Annual Conference and the Methodist Church of Peru. Since that time, this relationship has grown and continues to be sustained through the activity of a number of our Conference churches. Our Task Force has continued to affirm the importance of these kind of global partnerships, particularly between our own affluent North American Church and Christians of the Third World. For us in the First World the burning theological questions is: "Is there life after death?" For brothers and sisters in the Third World it is: "Is there life after birth?"

Those congregations within our Annual Conference which continue to accept the challenges of sustaining these kinds of global covenants understand that an important part of responsible and devoted discipleship is "accompanying" Christians who are suffering in other nations or circumstances. The North American UMC must not be willing to simply require of its members their "prayers, presence, gifts and service," and ignore the steadfast and demanding qualities of a discipleship that is global.

The Methodist Church of Peru continues to be a witness in the midst of a country of mass suffering. Sixty percent of the population of Peru is trapped in a situation of critical poverty, increasing by five million people in one year. Infant mortality, preventable diseases such as tuberculosis, malaria, and cholera are increasing. The violence from Sendero Luminoso, a Maoist terrorist organization, has entered its final stage, now directed toward the church and international church workers. These factors make our "walk together" all the more challenging each year.

We look forward this year to the visit of the bishop of the Methodist Church of Peru, Bishop Pablo Mamani. He has accepted our invitation to be present at Annual Conference and to itinerate around our Annual Conference for a few days, before and after our session. In addition, it is our hope that plans will be fulfilled for a young man from our Methodist Church in Peru to attend Methodist College in the fall.

We invite you to seek ways to be involved in this covenant relationship, or to develop similar partnerships with other brothers and sisters around the world. We are reminded of Isaiah's assurance: "...if you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday. The Lord will guide you continually...and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. And your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to dwell in." (Isaiah 58:9b-12)

Mark W. Wethington, Chairperson

HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES, BOARD OF

Psalm 103:2,3 - Bless the Lord, O my soul and forget not all His benefits; Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases.

Christ's life was consumed with His desire to comfort and heal others. As His followers, we MUST continue to be His hands and feet. If we love Him, we will obey his commands and follow his example.

If your church does not have a Health and Welfare chairperson, we earnestly request that one be elected. This is a position which should undergird the total work of your church. This person should be the most capable, compassionate person in the church whose calling is to be of service to others and to our Lord.

Are all persons in your congregation kept aware of the Golden Cross Fund? This provides help for persons who have excessive medical expenses which they are totally unable to pay. In 1991, 41 families from ten districts were assisted. $21,090 was distributed. With this money went the message that The Methodist Church loves others and cares for them. We know that many are still unaware of this help.

If your church is not accessible to elderly and handicapped persons, please celebrate Access Sunday on the third Sunday in October to inform them and acquaint them with their responsibilities to ALL persons.

Special offerings urged are: The Thanksgiving Offering for the Methodist Home for Children and a Mother's Day Offering for The Methodist Retirement Homes.

Asbury Homes, Inc., is ready to proceed with this invaluable service to persons with handicapping conditions. Please pray with us that an adequate location for our first home will be made available soon. If you know of a lot which might be available, let us know.

Duke University Hospital is still a recipient of our support for the chaplaincy.

On the local level, our members are working to help in the areas of alcoholism and drug abuse, Alzheimer's and aging parents, programs and services for senior citizens, spouse and child abuse, ministry to prisoners and their families, support for those who have lost jobs or need financial advice, hospice care, hearing and eye problems, and many other areas of service.

We must continue to serve those children helped by our Methodist Children's Home, and those elderly friends and acquaintances who occupy our Methodist Retirement Homes.

Christ constantly admonished us to "love one another," and we can show this love in no better way than to meet their physical, mental, and emotional needs.

Helen Inwood expresses our task in a poetic manner.

"Let me be a voice for the speechless, Those who are small and weak. Let me speak for all helpless persons, Who have no power to speak. I have lifted my heart to heaven, On behalf of the least of these - the frightened, the homeless, the hungry. I am voicing their pleas. If I can help any person or respond to a desperate call, I will know that my prayer has been answered, by the God Who created us all."

Recommendation by the Board of Trustees of Methodist Home for Children

The Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children recommends that the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children consist of 24 elected members and 3 ex-officio members. The reduction to 24 members would be done through attrition after Conference approval. The 3 ex-officio members would be the Bishop of the North Carolina Conference or his designee, the Chairperson of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries or the Board's designee, and the President of the Methodist Home for Children Alumni Association.

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross Ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to those of our fellowship who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross, we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of greatest emotional stress and financial need.

This past year (1991) Golden Cross assisted 41 families from 10 districts in our Conference. The total amount of money available for medical assistance was $38,030.72, which included $27,793 budgeted and $10,237.72 carried over from 1990. We approved requests for $22,482.39 and disbursed $21,090.48.

As you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form.

As part of the NC Conference, you have been gracious in making these funds available for this worthy ministry. The church and its members are grateful for your support in times of extreme need. God Bless you.

The Methodist Home for Children

In 1979 the Annual Conference and the Methodist Home for Children (MHC) launched out into a bold faith venture to significantly address the needs of troubled children and families. We had discovered that every troubled child has a troubled family. Helping the child requires taking seriously the child's family. In order to reach the family of child in care, we decided to use the resources of the campus to move to community based care.

A faith venture always involves risk of failure. As Christians, we accept the risk of failure because we are called not to be successful, but to be faithful. To be faithful to our mission to minister to troubled children, it was necessary to be able to access their troubled families. That is why we took the risk of leaving the campus setting in Raleigh and distributing our work throughout the area of the Annual Conference.

It is a spiritual reality that when an endeavor is motivated by faithfulness, rather than by success, the results are often perceived as the blessing of God. God has, in fact, blessed this bold faith venture. We have not failed. This ministry is helping troubled children and youth overcome problems and, in many cases, be reunited with their families. We have been led to develop effective measures to address problems resulting from individual and family dysfunction enabling resolution of issues while avoiding placement and helping the family remain together.

As word of the effectiveness of this ministry has spread, sister agencies and conferences across the nation, as well as in NC, seek our counsel. MHC is reaching out to others to assist in replicating the quality of the service we do.

When we set out on this faith venture in 1979, we focused all of our resources on accomplishing the goals of the transition. By 1984 we could project that being faithful was going to call for additional resources. We could estimate at that time that by 1990 total income from endowment income, contributions and fees for services would not be sufficient to carry forward the full reach of the program. This prediction proved to be accurate. We have reported this projection to the Annual Conference on a regular basis.

In 1989-90, MHC board and staff conducted a strategic planning process to address this issue. The plan set forth the need for a major Development Campaign designed to underwrite the full range of evolving services.

A feasibility study was done in 1990 and intense preparations have been made to position MHC for the Development Campaign. Today there is unprecedented concern across the land for the predicament of children, youth and families. The staff and board of directors of MHC share strong confidence that we have solutions for a broad range of these problems. The time has now come to launch this Development Campaign.

The strategic plan adopted by the board of directors identifies the major goals of the campaign.

- To underwrite Family Life Education and Counseling. The time has come to secure endowment for this crucial service.

- To position the Residential Program for providing contract services and the expansion of specialized foster care.

- To establish an Institute of Applied Research in serving children, youth and families.

- To establish a Center for Dissemination of successful strategies for serving children, youth and families.

We are ready to set forth in detail how these campaign goals will affect the future. We are aware that the public is intensely interested in supporting those who have answers for addressing the profound distress affecting families in our society. We have answers.

The constituency that we serve is in possession of large discretionary resources. There are many demands for these resources: To build civic centers, athletic complexes, dormitories, libraries. But some of these persons in possession of these discretionary resources really care about addressing the needs of troubled children and families. It is our high resolve to identify such persons and to inform them of our confidence in being able to successfully address these issues and to invite their response.

This Annual Conference has been consistently supportive of this bold faith venture all through the years. We need you to continue your help in this Development Campaign. We enlist you to help us to tell the story so that those who have the means can join us in addressing the number one social need of our time: the stability and health of the family.

A GLIMPSE OF 1991

The total number of children and youth in residential care in 1991 was 118. That is up from 98 in 1990. Another 230 children were seen in counseling by Family Life Staff.

288 families were served in direct care and another 850 families received education through family life education workshops. The MHC Site Development Division provides program disseminating services to four child care agencies in other states, operating 13 group homes serving 102 children and their families.

The MHC board has requested that the Annual Conference approve the down-sizing of the Board from 36 elected members and 5 ex-officio members to 24 elected members and 3 ex-officio members. This action is being recommended for adoption by the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. This action is recommended as a result of careful study.

The board has reorganized itself so as to better serve the functions of assessment of services and planning. This reorganization is facilitating the forthrightness of Board members to give leadership in the Development Campaign. This reorganization also changes nomenclature: Trustees are now called directors. The board is headed by a chairperson. The executive director has become president of the agency and department directors are now titled vice-presidents.

MHC provided crucial data drawn from five years of experience in family preservation services designed to intervene into families in crisis so as to assist troubled families to deal with problems while remaining together. This data was used by the NC Legislature as support for the Family Preservation Act of 1991. This new law directs that in-home family preservation be available in every county of NC as a first resort in addressing the needs of families where children are at risk of placement. This is to be accomplished by 1995.

The new Family Preservation Act calls for an Advisory Committee on Family Centered Services. This committee has been formed and Rufus Stark has been appointed by the Governor to serve on the committee.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

Over the past two years, The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., has been studied and analyzed by several committees as a result of Conference action. This ministry has been questioned and surveyed to determine if it is being prudently managed; to determine what is its legal relationship to the Conference, and what is the theological basis for its continued existence. These issues have been dissected by Methodist from all walks of life, both clergy and laity.

In 1988 the General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopted a statement on aging as proposed by the Task Force on Older Adult Ministries: "Aging is a life-long process from birth to death that encompasses the whole span of life and not merely that of its final stages. Our understanding of older adulthood rests on the theological grounding that is a creed of faith applicable to all other stages of life. The God of our Christian pilgrimage is revealed to us in Jesus Christ, our Savior and Redeemer. As United Methodists, we join other Christians in affirming that God is our Creator, the Giver of life, Who calls us into divine-human fellowship and Who continually challenges us to new possibilities. We believe that we are under the providential care of the Eternal from birth to death.

Yes, each delegate to the Annual Conference in June 1992 will determine the future of this ministry which was founded over 36 years ago because Methodists had a vision. They had the foresight to understand that the aging process is a part of God's plan of creation. They shared the good news of Christ's redemption giving hope and purpose to life. They helped translate this message through words and deeds which have stood the test of time and dissension.

It is clear that the services rendered by The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., represent a very significant ministry of this Conference and is in response to Jesus Christ's directive for all of His followers to be involved in healing and caring services. The cost for caring for persons rises and pressures by state and federal government to maintain or reduce reimbursement continues. Yet, The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. is not alone in this dilemma. The non-profit, church related ministries which engage in healing and caring for people of all ages are faced with increasing competition from the private sector and reduced reimbursement from third party payor. Thus, there is a greater need than ever before for the church to re-assess and affirm its financial commitment to seniors.

A renewed vision will have to be developed and implemented to continue providing quality care to an ever increasing number of older Americans, particularly those without adequate funds to maintain a life of dignity and well-being. The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., alone cannot support these deserving individuals.

The support of the churches of the NC Conference continues to be essential in order for The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., to provide continuing care for the aging. The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., has always had at its core a belief that the spiritual component of life is very important in later life and needs to be reinforced. We are thankful for the United Methodists throughout our Conference who help us create the unique family and community spirit which has been the hallmark of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc.

The financial support provided by the Conference in this calendar year will be approximately $386,743. It is only through this indispensable support that we are able to provide the charitable and benevolent program that has existed since the inception of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. We are aware that the Conference cannot provide more funds than it receives for this or any of its other ministries. There must be a reawakening at the grass roots level of Methodism in order to provide this ministry to its older members.

A very significant amount of uncompensated care was rendered to our residents during the fiscal year of 1990-91. Our revenue loss from partial payment, contractual discounts and benevolent funding was $1,289,000. Contributions from Conference apportionment, individuals, Methodists and non-Methodists, interest income and bequests have enabled us to make up this significant shortfall.

Yes, our Disclosure Statement which is provided to prospective residents has been amended to reflect that the Conference is not financially responsible for the legal debts of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. This document delineates all aspects of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., including services provided, cost of such services, financial statements, projections of future costs, etc. It is available for anyone who requests a copy from any of our facilities or the corporate office.

We cannot continue to survive by just maintaining our status quo. Surely, the magnitude of this ministry compels United Methodists throughout this Conference to realize our needs must be re-evaluated. The care which makes the life experience of our residents dynamic and meaningful cannot be accomplished in some of our antiquated buildings, which are becoming increasingly difficult to maintain. Providing an environment and a continuum of services which permit the individual a maximum amount of freedom and support to live life to its fullest cannot be accomplished without adequate funding.

Be objective, yet be compassionate and allow your consciousness of concern to be reflective of our Master, Jesus Christ. The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., is in business to meet the needs of the aged of God's people. We urge you to accept the vision which will ensure that this ministry will continue to be available.

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Once again, this time at the end of the quadrennium, the report from the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry is one of high optimism and eternal gratitude. The gratitude goes to Almighty God for His love and grace to the colleges of this conference and to the public university and college campuses of NC for His beneficent loving kindness as we, His people, observe the continuation of the resource of the Christian spirit's actions among students of the various campuses. Every college and every university through their campus ministers and chaplains, report higher commitment of the students to Christ and His Kingdom. Every campus is witness to greater attendance, more numerous displays of faith and good works in their programs, their worship services, and their multitudinous avenues of services to others.

The church-related colleges are in excellent financial shape. They report new buildings, banner enrollments, higher faculty and staff salaries, new benefactors, increased alumni support, and greater community involvement in college activities and greater college participation in community and church activities. While still relying strongly on the church support in the retirement of their capital debts, an obligation made years ago on the confident expectation of the church's financial support through the conclusion of the long-term obligation, the colleges are optimistically looking to the day when those respective debts no longer are burdening their operational abilities.

The leadership of the colleges is at an all-time high in terms of preparation and demonstrated ability to lead. The relationship between the Church and the campus and the campus is at it most beneficial in years. The public educational institutional campuses report a similar response by the students in relationship to their campus ministers.

The most noteworthy announcement to be made during this college year is the resignation of J. Allen Norris, Jr. as president of Louisburg Junior College. Having served long and with distinction, he has chosen to surrender voluntarily his post at Louisburg and pursue additional service to the Church as the Treasurer of the NC Annual Conference. There is little doubt but that the Annual Conference will elect him to this position. Our thanks go to him for his distinguished service, as he lead as a layman and as a churchman on the local, state and national scene. The Board of Trustees of the College will make a diligent search and select a proper successor to Dr. Norris.

Finally, and as usual, the Board of Higher Education thanks most sincerely and cordially, the Annual Conference for its support, both financial and moral, for its continuing backing. Each of the colleges and campus ministries pledges its ever-present high level of service to God, His Church and this Conference, as we seek to serve Him in the most commendable manner possible.

With this report, I bid you a fond farewell. Since 1984, I have served on this board, and since 1986, I have had the honor of being its Chairman. I thank you and the Board for incomparable privilege.

James E. Vann, Chairperson

Campus Ministry, State Commission on

The State Commission met in Winston-Salem October 7, 1991 and heard a presentation by David Riffe on "Effective Campus Ministry." He suggested eight guidelines for ministry which the commission endorses for all our ministries: 1) The development of an identifiable, supportive student Christian community, which offers opportunity for emerging student leadership. 2) The central thrust should be intentionally and self-consciously Christian, concerned with issues of faith and spiritual development. 3) There should be a variety of programs including worship, social issues, faith development, and service projects which include ecumenical and cross-cultural dimensions of life. 4) The space should be appropriate for the particular nature of the campus ministry program. 5) An adult group beyond the student group which provides moral and financial support. 6) The ministry is to the total academic community in terms of pastoral care and prophetic inquiry. 7) There should be adequate and regular publicity on the campus and to supportive constituencies. 8) A person, minister or lay person, should be employed who understands the nature of both the church and campus, and who will serve as facilitator, resource person, counselor, and administrator/manager.

This year we have completed an evaluation of the Wesley Foundation at Chapel Hill. We will continue this process until every ministry has been evaluated and look forward to what we can learn from this experience. We hope it will provide information which can be shared with other ministries and also give support to those persons who are providing campus ministry. We are also doing what we can to support ministries who need or are planning new facilities or significant maintenance.

We are looking into the possibility of adding another full time ecumenical ministry at Wilson Salem State University by combining our current commitment with that of several other denominations which are interested in providing a cooperative ministry there.

We are grateful for our campus ministers and the variety of ministries they offer in many different settings.

The Candler School of Theology

My tenure as Candler School of Theology's seventh dean began on July 1. During the past ten months I have identified three priorities which will shape our efforts in the coming year: engagement, enrollment, and endowment. Engagement with the church, a stable enrollment, and a growing endowment must undergird our mission on educating men and women for ministry.

At this critical time in both the life of the church and in theological education, we are committed to a revitalization of our engagement with the church. We take seriously our relationship with local churches and annual conferences, seeking the wisdom offered by the church as we provide research and scholarship to enhance local church ministry.

We also have given special attention to our enrollment. As the church faces shortages of clergy, men and women must be assisted in their decisions about how to answer God's call to them to ministry. Assisted by a network of alumni/ae, we have made a new commitment to serving prospective students by supporting them in their seminary decisions.

One way we will support new and continuing Candler students during the 1992-93 academic year is by maintaining the 1991-92 tuition level of $8,000. We are committed to making a Candler education, which is one of the best in the nation, as inexpensive as possible. Coupled with our growing resources in scholarships and grants, the tuition freeze helps us honor that commitment.

Candler's endowment must increase if we are to keep theological education affordable. We continue to benefit from the seeds sown by former Candler development officers, and we are working to establish relationships that will bring future endowment income in the areas of scholarships, faculty chairs, facilities renovation, and continuing education.

We welcome and encourage the partnership of alumni/ae and friends in our mission of education and service, and we are deeply grateful for the abiding support of local churches through the Ministerial Education Fund. Your gifts to Candler through the MEF are investments in the called and committed men and women who will serve this conference as pastors, Christian educators, and dedicated laypersons.

The largest of the UM seminaries, Candler School of Theology offers a comprehensive program of theological studies designed to enhance the seminarian's understanding of the church and ministry in the modern world and his ability or her ability to work meaningfully and creatively in a Christian vocation.

Candler School of Theology offers: ■ A supervised ministry program integrating academic training with the practice of ministry. ■ An internationally recognized faculty with expertise in a variety of academic disciplines and ■ A university atmosphere which promotes interdisciplinary dialogue and inquiry.

Degree Programs: Master of Divinity (M.Div.), Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.), Master of Theology (Th.M.), Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.), Doctor of Sacred Theology in Pastoral Counseling (S.T.D.), Joint Degree Programs, Juris Doctor/Master of Divinity (J.D./M.Div.), Juris Doctor/Master of Theological Studies (J.D./M.T.S.), Master of Business Administration/Master of Divinity (M.B.A./M.Div.), Affiliated Organizations: The Aquinas Center of Theology, Atlanta Theological Association, Georgia Association for Pastoral Care, Lutheran Theological Center in Atlanta, Mission Resource Center of the United Methodist Church, Scholars Press, Urban Training Organization of Atlanta, Centers, Institutes, and Workshops: Annual Church Music Workshop, Approved Course of Study School, Candler-Gottingen Exchange, Center for Continuing Education, Center of Ecumenical and Multicultural Education, Center for Religious Research, Center for Research in Faith and Moral Development, Lay Theology Institute, National Institute in Church Finance and Administration, Program in Black Church Studies, Rollins Center for Church Ministries, World Methodist Evangelism Institute, Students (1991-1992): Total enrollment: 564, Full-time students: 371, Part-time students: 193, Tuition (1991-92, 1992-93): $8,000, 98 percent of all first degree students received scholarship or grant assistance; average scholarship: $4,200.

The Divinity School of Duke University

Duke Divinity School continues its traditions of academic excellence and faithfulness to the Gospel of Christ in educating men and women for lay and professional ministry.

Over the past year the Divinity School has engaged in efforts to develop a stronger global perspective in its curriculum. A faculty team--comprised of Mary McClintock Fulkerson, Frederick and Kristin Herzog, Russell Richey, and William C. Turner, Jr.--traveled to Peru in May 1991 to investigate and discuss the establishment of an exchange program with the Comunidad Biblico-Teologica, a Methodist Seminary in Lima, Peru. The exchange is part of the covenant relationship which exists between the Iglesia Metodista del Peru and the North Carolina Conference. In January 1992 the faculty team received a grant from the Association of Theological Schools to fund collaborative research with the Peruvian faculty.

The Divinity School has experienced numerous changes in its faculty and administration in the last year. In fall 1991 Richard Hays, formerly of Yale Divinity School, joined the department of New Testament, and Miriam Anne Glover-Wetherington joined the pastoral psychology department. Teresa Berger, a faculty member since 1985, received tenure as associate professor of ecumenical theology. D. Stephen Long was appointed director of continuing education. Professor of New Testament Dan O. Via retired in 1991 after seven years on the faculty. This year Professor of Theological Bibliography Donn Michael Farris will retire after forty-two years of service as Divinity School librarian, and Harriet Leonard will retire after thirty-two years reference librarian. Roger Loyd, now at Perkins Theological Seminary, will join the faculty this summer as professor of theological bibliography.

The Divinity School mourns the loss of alumnus and bishop-residence W. Kenneth Goodson, who died last year at his home in Winston-Salem. A memorial service for him was held September 30, 1991, in Duke Chapel. Bishop Goodson's death came shortly after the loss last June of Professor Emeritus Robert L. Wilson, who directed the J.M. Ormond Center for over twenty years. The Divinity School continues its search for a new director for the Ormond Center, which provides research and planning services, particularly in the area of rural church development. The Ormond Center is supported in part by the Ormond Fund, which was established by the North Carolina Conference in 1951.

While many theological schools are experiencing a decline in applicants and enrollment, the admissions office of Duke Divinity School reported a thirty percent increase in the number of applicants during 1990-1991, and in the fall 1991 semester admitted the largest entering class in its history. The enrollment in the Divinity School for the 1991-1992 academic year was 459 students (353 M.Div., 16 M.R.E., 28 Th.M., 18 Special Students, and 44 M.T.S.).

HUNGER/HUMAN NEED, TASK FORCE ON

The continued rise in the number of needy families within the bounds of our Conference demand that we be responsible stewards of God's grace and gifts. Methodists in the North Carolina Annual Conference can be proud of our responsibility and compassion!

Our CF&A has designated $25,000.00 to alleviate human suffering and hunger. Our new procedures allow each district to determine application priorities and grant amounts. We hope the necessitated smaller grant amounts will encourage increased use of grants in local church operations, food pantries, clothing closets, and the like.

We speak for the needy of North Carolina when we offer our thanks to the CF&A and to the people of our Conference. The love of Christ has come from your hands and hearts!

LAITY, BOARD OF

During the past year the Board of Laity has continued to evaluate, fine-tune, monitor and supervise the programs that have been developed over the years as well as examine some new possibilities for the empowering of the subcommittees - January Workshop, Lay Speaking, Lay Shepherding, and Spiritual Formation are responsible for the main areas of work for the Board.

The January Workshops were successfully held in all districts on two Sunday afternoons. These workshops continue to provide an opportunity for district-wide fellowship and excellent basic training for local church lay leaders. The January Workshop subcommittee carefully studied and recommended to the full Board of Laity that a new structure be implemented for the January workshops which would enable the districts to have more input and leadership in the workshops, and would make the leadership more accessible to the local church. The Board of Laity approved the recommendation, and following some modifications, the CCOM is recommending to the Annual Conference that a pilot program be implemented that will allow, but not require, the districts to field test the program.

The Lay Speaking Program continues to furnish training at the basic and advanced levels for the laity. The districts continue to improve in their planning and in their offerings for lay speaking. Conference Summer School continues to offer courses in advanced training for certified lay speakers. The Board of Laity approved a proposal to have the names of the certified lay speakers listed in the Journal.

Conference Summer School provides intensive training for both clergy and laity, as well as a special time of Christian fellowship.

The Lay Shepherding Subcommittee felt that it had completed the task originally assigned to it and recommended that the subcommittee be discontinued. The recommendation was approved by the full board.

A grant for $500 has been received from The National Association of Conference Lay Leaders to assist in funding a program to train spiritual leaders in the local church. It is anticipated that this will be a long term program centered on self-study, prayer, theology, and leadership.

The Board encourages recognition of Lay Persons of the Year in all local churches on Laity Sunday. District Lay Persons are selected from this group, and the Conference Lay Person of the Year is chosen by the Board from the District Lay Persons. Only one person from each of the twelve districts is eligible for the Conference Lay Person of the Year. At each level, the purpose of the program is to recognize the Christian ministry, witness, and leadership of the laity and to encourage the active participation of all United Methodists in the ministry of all believers.

District Lay Rallies continue to be well attended, to be moments of inspiration, challenge, fellowship, and a time to honor the outstanding laity across the districts.

The Board of Laity wants to support, encourage, and enable the laity of the NC Conference to reach their full potential as ambassadors for Christ - as they are in ministry in their church and community.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

We are pleased to begin this report with the fact that the North Carolina Christian Advocate won four Certificates of Merit at the 1991 meeting of the UM Association of Communicators, covering virtually every aspect of the Advocate's responsibility as the official publication of the WNC Conference and the NC Conference. The awards were for (1) General Excellence, (2) Editorial Content/Writing, (3) Layout and Design, and (4) Use of Illustrative Material. Two of the judges made the following comments about the Advocate: (1) "A very attractive newspaper that should please all of its readers. An excellent publication." (2) "An inspiring and informative publication. Great work for a two-person staff."

We are excited about the prospects of increased circulation if the two conferences continue their promotional efforts for at least the next two years. During the early years of my editorship of the Advocate, we had this same kind of promotion and advanced the circulation from 13, 800 to slightly more than 29,000. It took a concerted three-year effort to produce these results. It was at the point of reaching this 29,000 mark that the Post Office Department, in 1979-80, announced a sharply upward, 16-year, incremental postage increase schedule for second class non-profit publications. In an effort to absorb this sizable, annual postage increase, the price of a subscription to the Advocate was moved from $5 in 1980 to $10 in 1985, with the resulting adverse effect upon our circulation. However, with the passage of time, the $10 rate is now in line and should not hamper our subscription campaign efforts. By the way, it costs more to mail the Advocate than it does to print it from "raw" copy to printed newspaper. Currently, many of the districts in the WNC Conference are staging Advocate rallies while the districts of the NC Conference are holding Advocate workshops. Current circulation is 15,511 with 9,434 subscribing families in the Western North Carolina Conference and 6,077 in the North Carolina Conference. This means a readership of at least 30,000.

It is good for everyone to be reminded at least annually that the Advocate is the only means our local churches have of keeping in touch with one another across the state from Murphy to Manteo, sharing ministries, exchanging ideas, and encouraging one another as fellow pilgrims in the journey of faith.

In spite of the fact that the Advocate depends upon its endowment funds' growth and interest quotients to provide it with operating capital, the endowment, as of this writing, stands as $414,115.04 with $202,868.06 of this being in the Methodist Board Fund and $211,246.98 being in the Finch Fund. We are greatly indebted to the many persons, both clergy and laity, who continue to contribute to these endowment funds. With both conferences facing "tight" money situations, we are increasingly grateful for the endowment income. As of this writing we are running the maximum number of advertising inches allowed by our second-class non-profit postal status and if this continues, it bodes well for our financial future.

We appreciate the support of the Church's leaders in both conferences as well as those in the rank and file whose subscriptions tell of their appreciation for this vital, Christian ministry.

As a staff we want to thank everyone for their help and encouragement, not the least of who are our regular feature writers for whom writing for the Advocate is a labor of love.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC. PROPOSALS

- A. That a subscription campaign for the North Carolina Christian Advocate be conducted in the Conference in February 1993.
- B. That each local church be asked to accept as its minimum goal of Advocate subscriptions 10% of its membership.
- C. That the Advocate offer special subscription rates for churches in which every resident family subscribes to the Advocate and for churches in which every family on the Administrative Board/Council subscribes and for churches which reach 5% of their membership as subscribers.
- D. That each local church be asked to report to the 1992 fall Charge Conference the number of its subscriptions and a brief statement of its plans for the 1993 February Subscription Campaign.
- E. That each local church be urged to nominate to the 1992 fall Charge Conference a person to be its Advocate representative and that this person be a member of the Administrative Board/Council of that church.
- F. That the Advocate continue seeking funds for its endowment portfolio.

MISSIONS, BOARD OF

If I were asked to give a "mission vision" for the future, I would predict that the people in the pew will increasingly want a "hands on" experience of being in mission. Our NC Conference Board of Missions provides opportunities that make this possible, both at home and abroad.

Our home ties with Herbert and Mary Zigbuo made us painfully aware of their circumstances when they were sent home from war-torn Liberia. They were able to return to Africa in July with plans to resume their work at Ganta UM School soon after. Their pleas for help for the elementary school and students (the Indiana Conferences sponsor the Jr. High and Sr. High Schools) and their outlining of needs led to the Board's adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED, that the NC Conference Board of Missions sponsor Ganta UM Elementary School in Liberia until the year 2000, or until it becomes self-supporting (whichever occurs first) in the following ways:

1. VIM work teams for the repair of buildings and sharing of teaching skills with teachers
2. Project funds for repairs

3. Scholarship funds for children
4. Scholarship funds for teacher training
5. School book and equipment collection and shipment
6. Childrens' school bags, teacher bags, and health kit preparation and shipment
7. Funds and equipment for agricultural training
8. Publicity and interpretation to inspire the Conference to commitment in their ongoing support

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, the Board of Missions will accept requests from Ganta UM Elementary School in the categories listed, but will respond as good judgment and finances deem possible.

A sealer container filled with hospital beds, mattresses, a truck, clothing, school books and over 400 student and teacher school bags (prepared by UMW) with shipping funded by UMCOR left the US in November as a first tangible expression of our sponsorship. We are grateful to Mr. Ronald Gill, Wendell UMC, who has assumed the leadership position of the NC Conference coordinator for the Ganta UM Elementary School Project.

Gary Smith, Conference construction coordinator, continued to give direction and expertise to small church building needs. Churches assisted by him were Jerusalem, Duck, Iglesia Metodista Hispana, Spring Valley, Pleasant Grove, Bethesda, Ebenezer, Concord and Bolton. In many cases the help of Volunteers in Mission was utilized. Estimated savings to the Conference by this program was $182,000. This work is prioritized and overseen by a task force of the Board which has designed an application form for local churches which is available in the Conference Missions office.

CHURCH EXTENSION COMMITTEE

This committee continued to administer Spirit for Tomorrow funds for church extension according to stated guidelines. It also assisted new congregations with salary support during the first five years of a church's life.

Ten Dollar Club calls for 1991 were: Duck UMC (Elizabeth City District), Latin American Churches in Mexico, Costa Rica and Panama, Resurrection UMC (Durham District), and Seaside UMC (Wilmington District).

EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION COMMITTEE

The third year of promoting local church giving to Advance Special projects through the concept of Rainbow Covenant Congregations proved to be the most successful yet. Nearly 140 local congregations achieved this distinction in 1991 by giving to at least one project in each of the five lanes of the Advance - world, national, UMCOR, missionary salary support, and conference. Advance special giving in 1991 increased $18,000 over giving in 1990, with the following breakdowns:

World Division	$266,460
National Division	44,440
UMCOR	102,559
Conference	125,076

Global Mission Partners, a new emphasis in mission giving, was introduced to our Conference in 1991. This new phase of giving encourages churches to go one step further in their commitment by sponsoring not only a US missionary, but also providing salary support for international persons in mission. Global Mission Partner churches must pay 100% of the apportionments, have an ongoing program of mission education, serve in local mission projects, and share the mission experience with neighboring congregations. Several churches in our Conference have already covenanted to be Global Mission Partners, the first being Carthage UMC.

Churches in the NC Conference provide salary support for 45 persons serving in the mission field all over the world.

A quarterly newsletter, Missions Muse, was published and distributed to share news and joy for the mission spirit that is alive and well and growing in our Conference.

VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

During 1991, NC UVMIM experienced a great deal of excitement and growth. Fifteen teams were sent abroad to Jamaica, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica, Panama, Honduras, St. Croix, US Virgin Islands, Haiti and Mexico. Projects included work on parsonages, churches, and schools, replacing bombed-out homes, repairing hurricane damage and providing medical personnel at a clinic. Wesley Fellowships at Duke, NC State, UNC-Chapel Hill, UNC-Wilmington, and ECU sent VIM teams in 1991.

Five in-country teams were sent to Alabama, Oklahoma, Atlanta, Miami and Chatham County. Projects included remodeling a house for a missionary couple, repairing homes with Native Americans, renovating homes for the homeless, providing Bible School for Haitian children and a youth work day at the Hispanic Center in Chatham County.

Four of the eight men who made up the "A-Team" to go to the African University in Zimbabwe were from our Conference, including team leader, Omar Fink. They began remodeling some buildings on the campus so that classes can begin there in March.

All together, the NC Conference sent out 301 team members and provided $202,268 in project monies and team expenses in 1991.

The 25 people from the NC Conference attending the rally at Lake Junaluska in June comprised one of the largest delegations attending. In September the second annual rally of the Conference held at Westminster UMC in Kinston was termed a success. One enthusiastic letter affirmed, "that was the most inspirational day I have ever spent at a church meeting in my entire life." This can be validated by anyone who has cared and shared in a VIM team experience.

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY

Working through three sub-committees, Urban, Town and Country and Ethnic Minority Local Church, the committee sought to evaluate programs applying for assistance and made grants to qualifying applicants. Among these were: Good Shepherd UMC, People with Special Needs Ministry, Chatham County Hispanic Ministry, Montgomery County Hispanic Ministry, and Hinton Rural Life Center. The committee began an evaluation of its own process with the idea of assisting fewer projects in a more significant way as its goal.

Our final fall board meeting in October was held at beautiful Duck UMC, built with assistance from the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign funds and the input of our Conference Construction Coordinator, Gary Smith, and the work of many volunteers. This is symbolic of what can be accomplished when we give, and work and pray together for the glory of God and the serving of His people. My gratitude is extended to the fine people of the NC Conference for their generous and ongoing support, and to all who have served on the Board of Missions in this quadrennium. This Board has been creative in program, compelling in witness, and firm in commitment to our Lord. It has been an honor and inspiration to serve with them.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

Growth. That was the key word and joy of the Commission in the past year. We grew in terms of outreach. Resident campers numbered 2,166 and over 4,000 people used Camp Kerr Lake, making 1991 one of our best years ever. Nearly one-half of our resident campers do not come from church households, making this one of our Conference's prime evangelistic fields. Our camps act on that opportunity by offering a systematic program of worship invitations to prayer and Bible study, and small group camping where the Gospel is lived out in community.

We grew in facilities. The Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign has allowed us to upgrade our sites at each camp. The growth continues. Camps Rockfish and Don-Lee continue to use new facilities and work is now underway (or soon to be) at Camp Kerr Lake and Camp Chestnut Ridge. We are beginning the first stages of an adult retreat center at the Ridge. Generous gifts are allowing us to make plans for a retreat center at Rockfish as well.

We grew in program. We offered new opportunities for adults. We have begun to work with the NC Easter Seal Society to reach specific populations customarily served by that group. Retreat usage of our camps continues to increase. There is sustained interest in our ministry to children and youth.

We grew in support, delighted with the news of a future gift of 1 million dollars! The gift is from the bequest of a United Methodist in Texas who has similarly endowed all the conference related camping programs throughout the Church! We are thankful for such vision and loyalty. The gift will actually come to us in 2000.

We grew in appreciation of you, the people of the NC Conference. You have enabled us to do great things for God in the out-of-doors. We thank our Lord for you and gladly appreciate those who lead our ministry. We are glad that you, the people of our Conference, help us recruit committed Christian young adults who serve as staff at our camps. Our three manager directors, Mr. Bill Howington (Chestnut Ridge), the Rev. John Farmer (Don-Lee), and Mr. Dennis Tawney (Rockfish), serve us well. We are consistently thankful for their energy and vision, as well as, their day-to-day ministry on behalf of each of us.

The Commission has grown closer to our Associate Director, the Rev. G. Paul Phillips and his family during this past year. We thank God for Paul's faithful ministry to camping during the illness and death of his wife, Dee. We pray God's blessings on him, a man we lovingly admire.

And, having served as Commission chair, I thank you for the ways you have helped me to grow. I am grateful for all those with whom I have worked: the Rev. Paul Phillips, our managers-directors, the local camp committees, and, of course, the Commission's members and officers.

May God continue to bless us as we grow closer to one another and to Him through the beauty of creation and the grace of Christ Jesus.

PRISON MINISTRY AND PRISON REFORM, COMMITTEE ON

The 1988 General Conference approved a mandate on Prison Ministries and Prison Reform, calling on The United Methodist Church to become intentional in its ministry to persons who are incarcerated. As a part of that mandate, each Annual Conference was encouraged to establish its own vehicle to fulfill this mandate. In 1990 the NC Conference Board of Church and Society proposed a resolution requesting the NC Conference Council on Ministries to authorize an ongoing Committee on Prison Ministry and Prison Reform, to be organized under its direction and responsible to it. The Committee was so approved and organized and on February 5, 1991 held its first meeting. The duties of the Committee are as follows:

- 1) Survey existing prison/jail ministries within the Annual Conference for the purpose of determining the scope of involvement with the Conference as well as to provide models for future involvement by districts and/or local congregations.

- 2) Coordinate existing involvement in prison and/or jail ministries with our Annual Conference.
- 3) Develop strategies for greater involvement in existing ministries as well as developing and funding new ministries where such do not currently exist.
- 4) Promote Conference, district, and local church involvement in and support of ecumenical prison/jail ministries wherever feasible.
- 5) Develop and publicize within the Annual Conference resource and resource persons to assist in strengthening involvement in prison ministries and prison reform.
- 6) Periodically gather and publish through appropriate avenues with the Annual Conference data on prison/jail ministries in which United Methodists of the Annual Conference are or may become involved.
- 7) Investigate current alternatives to incarceration and advocate alternatives for non-violent prisoners, e.g. house arrest, intensive probation, work release, restitution.

The Committee is blessed with fifteen concerned and enthusiastic members from across the Conference who have firsthand knowledge of the needs and of this ministry and visions of solutions to match each challenge.

The committee met three times during 1991 and have:

- 1) Initiated a conference wide church survey.
- 2) Established a speakers bureau available to districts and churches.
- 3) Established a resource center for related publications and study materials.
- 4) Published an awareness flyer to publicize the need for and resources to support new and expanded activities for this much needed area of ministry.
- 5) Engaged in educational programs to increase our level of awareness and improve our vision of effective ways of witness in the area of ministry.

During our first year the Committee received frequent support and encouragement from Bishop Minnick, the Cabinet, and Dr. Robert McKenzie, and is indebted to the Conference staff for their assistance in all our efforts.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

As this quadrennium comes to a close, we are reminded of our church's theme, "Celebrate and Witness: Celebrate God's Grace - Witness for Jesus Christ". We on the Commission on Religion and Race want to celebrate and witness to you, the success of our Annual Conference during this quadrennium. We are very happy because of the great work that has taken place within our Annual Conference. Looking back, our Commission celebrates with the Church, the New Korean ministries in Raleigh and in Fayetteville. We also celebrate the new Afro-American congregations in Raleigh and Durham. We celebrate the Hispanic Ministry in Siler City. We celebrate the ministry of Good Shepherd in Durham, which intentionally reaches out to persons with handicapping conditions. We celebrate the new Native American congregations in Fayetteville and Pembroke. These new congregations are vital to the continued growth of our Annual Conference. We want to thank the Annual Conference for its' commitment to these ministries.

With new congregations comes the need for new leadership. To become truly inclusive we need leadership that is inclusively oriented. We celebrate the efforts by our Annual Conference to recruit and train persons with an interest in ethnic, handicapping and women's issues.

Globally in Methodism this is a very important year. This is the year of General Conference. Much legislation will be passed this year that will affect women, persons with handicapping conditions and ethnic persons. We celebrate the four ethnic persons that you have chosen, who will be part of the delegation going to General Conference. We know they will add much expertise to the collective decision making abilities of our delegation.

We also want to thank those persons who have faithfully served on boards and agencies of this Annual Conference for the past quadrennium. They have thought and acted inclusively many times; we thank you for that.

The Commission also deems it necessary to thank those ethnic persons who themselves have faithfully served our church boards and commissions. Your presence has helped to achieve the success that we celebrate today. We trust that you will continue to faithfully serve as you are called upon by the Church.

Finally, our celebration is tempered by the injustices of the past. We cannot help but to remember the Saints of old, some who have given their lives for the cause of justice and peace. May their souls rest a little easier as they see the beginning of justice roll down. In their memory, we join with our Native American brothers and sisters in calling for "A New Beginning."

Let us confess our sins and pledge to God that "we" will never be used again to pervert the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Today the Commission on Religion and Race celebrates God's grace and we witness for Jesus Christ. For it is Christ working through His Church that is making us make the difference. Shalom!

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

For as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same functions, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually, members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them. (Romans 12:4-6) And who knows, maybe COSROW has come into this Conference for such a time as this.

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women is charged with moving the church toward full and equal responsibility and participation of women in its total life and mission. In the NC Conference COSROW seeks to perform its function through service as advocate, catalyst, and monitor of activities and issues affecting women.

Out of our understanding that in Christ all persons are one with differing gifts, the mission of the NC Commission on the Status and Role of Women was written:

To initiate creative methods to redress inequities in the church.

To ensure inclusiveness in programming and administrative functions of the church.

To foster an awareness of issues, problems, and concerns related to the status of women.

To ensure the full participation of women in the church.

To help the church empower women for their ministry and mission in the world through providing spiritual and educational support.

COSROW has been involved in a variety of activities designed to carry out its mission. Emergency needs were provided for families during the winter of 1991. Scholarships have been provided for women to attend meetings; Clergy Women's Consultation, Women, Faith, and Economic Justice Conference, SEJ BMCR Meeting, National BMCR Meeting, and the August Training Session for Church Leaders.

District Representatives took on more active roles in their District Councils on Ministries meetings. Reports of their work highlighted the February and September meetings.

District Representatives have been involved with: task forces on inclusiveness; surveying local churches that have had women pastors to get some idea of their acceptance in order to facilitate the open itineracy process; visiting churches to explain the role of COSROW; responding to needs of families in Hamlet in the wake of the plant fire in that city; surveying DCOMs to identify women who chair committees, boards, and determine which DCOMs provide child care; and yes, some representatives are still trying to get an announcement of DCOM meetings so that they may attend.

A special back page of the NC Advocate designed by Nancy Best focused on unique ministries of lay women. The publicity helped to interpret the work of the Commission.

The Ethnic Women's Seminar held on September 14, 1991 at Methodist College in Fayetteville was certainly the highlight of the Commission's work in 1991. Nearly 100 Black American and Native American women and three (3) men were provided the opportunity to experience freedom as whole persons in Jesus Christ as they participated in the seminar. The theme was: "Building Self-Esteem and Self-Confidence". The morning session included a unique workshop experience conducted by Edna Duffy of DuffyLit Dance Studio in Cleveland, Ohio; Bible Study by Marilyn Whaley Winters, Interim Deputy General Secretary of the National Division, GBOGM, New York; Sharing Our Cultures was facilitated by Dorothy Phelps Jones of Durham.

Participants were asked to beware of "demons" that could rob them of the freedom to know God in the Bible Study. A clever use of the Dr. Seuss story Sneetches, helped participants understand what a positive self-concept can do for women.

The worship service, a message in dance, was described by Miss Duffy as "an optimism that uses the pessimism of life as raw materials out of which it creates its own strength". Dance numbers focused on current issues and conditions in our world - The Homeless, The Faint of Heart, I'm By Myself, I'm Troubled, The Young and the Restless, Mother-Daughter, Happy Homemakers, and Shouts.

The afternoon session included eight workshops and outstanding ethnic leadership from our own Conference. Workshops and leaders are: Dress For Success and Confidence - Brenda Johnson, Fayetteville; Managing Time and Stress - Vevely Malloy, Laurinburg; Leadership Styles and Skills - Jimmie Shuler, Durham; Building Self-Esteem and Self-Confidence - Lena Brooker, Raleigh; Single Women in the UM Church - Dora Dorsey, Raleigh; Spiritual Discipline & Women in Ministry - Doris Fox, Rockingham; and Unique Experiences in Worship - Edna Duffy, Cleveland, Ohio.

Resources provided during the seminar included: an inclusive language worship resource entitled "Ecumenical Decade - 1988 - 1998; copies of materials on all ethnic groups in the UM Church; copies of "The Flyer", COSROW's national publication; and numerous handouts from the individual workshops. Evaluations of the seminar were overwhelmingly positive!

The Commission is grateful for all the support we received last year and ask that you continue to keep us in your prayers as we face struggles and joys in the days ahead.

STEWARDSHIP, BOARD OF

It has been said: "If I give so that I will be rewarded... God is Santa Claus. If I give so that I claim an exemption on my tax form... God is a CPA. If I give so I can impress my friends... God is my PR agent. If I give to avoid punishment... God is a bandit. If I give so that I can express my love and so that others may hear the gospel... God is God!"

The task of the Board of Stewardship is to help the local church in their ministry of giving - time, talent, prayers, participation. We recognize that all that we are and have control of is merely a loan- we are God's stewards. The biblical teaching of stewardship is practicing our responsibility to be wise managers of all God-given resources.

The following resources are available to help carry out a year-round stewardship program:

- 1) Media Center has video helps:

Beyond Mere Words was developed with the ethnic minority church in mind.

Resources for Christian Stewards was prepared to show what materials are available for the Church.

The Joy of Generosity was developed from a video discussion of Stewardship Leaders.

Tithing: Gimmick or Gift is a video of discussion by national stewardship leaders earlier this year.

- 2) New Financial Resources available in book form:

Celebrate Together by Donald Joiner (Local church financial program)

Letters for All Seasons (collection of letters used in local church financial program)

Putting God First: The Tithe by Norma Wimberly

- 3) Trained Local Church stewardship consultants are available. At a local church's invitation, these persons will come to your church and help you plan ways for meeting your specific stewardship/financial needs. There is no cost for this initial meeting. Should additional meetings be needed, the local church will provide travel on a mileage basis. Mr. Bill Norton in Conference Council on Ministries office is the contact person.
- 4) Our Conference has a general Church Stewardship associate, Dr. Bruce Taylor. He has received extensive training and has a broad grasp of resources available.
- 5) In the area of Gifts and Wills, we have the Rev. Douglas Byrd with the Methodist Foundation. He is ready to assist individuals and local churches in setting up Endowment Programs, Gifts and Wills seminars, and planning investments that will benefit the ministry and mission of The United Methodist Church.

SYSTEMIC POVERTY, TASK FORCE ON

PREAMBLE

"No man can be obedient to God's will...without becoming wealthy" sounds like a 20th Century proponent of the Theology of Prosperity. The speaker was the Rev. Thomas P. Hunt; the year 1836.

The Rev. Hunt was not alone in his uniting of God and money - either in his own era or in ours. His statement represents an unresolved dilemma in the Judeo-Christian tradition. On the one hand we have sacred writings which depict a God who speaks and acts on behalf of the poor and yet our institutionalized religion has on more than one occasion chosen wealth and power over poverty and service.

OUR JOURNEY

This Task Force sees at least two strong dimensions to what we have done. (1) Understanding poverty requires experiencing the situation of the poor, directly or indirectly. (2) We have come to see many of the same manifestations of poverty systems in the structure of The UMC itself. This contrasts sharply with the Wesleyan tradition which John Wesley himself beckoned us toward and yes even "required." From Wesley's practice, we learn that solidarity with the poor is not one program among others, but is the norm of all activity of the people called Methodists; of those who seek to embody scriptural Christianity. Even the work of evangelization must meet the test: How does it benefit the poor?

THE SYSTEMIC NATURE OF POVERTY

We frequently speak of "systems" in reference to life in society. For instance, we speak of the political system, the economic system, the medical system, the educational system, and the transportation system. In spite of our frequent use of the word "system," when we begin to speak about poverty and wealth we most often explain them in terms of individual motivation and responsibility.

If one person or a few people are out of work, homeless, hungry or poor, this might well be explained in terms of individual motivation and behavior. However, when hundreds, thousands or millions are unemployed, homeless, hungry, or poor, we must ask what it is about our relationships with one another that causes such widespread inequality.

The ways in which we arrange ourselves determines the quality of our relationships and how authority, power, and resources are distributed. We call these relationships our social arrangements or social systems. The degree to which we are uncomfortable discussing the systemic nature of poverty speaks to how ingrained are the individualistic interpretations of poverty and responsibility.

LEARNING BY EXPERIENCE

It seems that only a few catch the vision of the importance of caring about the poor as a "preferential option." We see this in how much time is spent in activities that could be quite well described as "maintenance" activities. We believe that as more of us people called Methodists begin catching a vision of systemic poverty, we will begin to see the benefit to our whole Church. This happens when we begin to find ways to be in "solidarity with the poor."

Some local congregations are rediscovering this Wesleyan understanding of learning by experience. We were encouraged that the Layperson of the Year award at last Annual Conference, was made to a person who was concerned about the needy. She was sensitive enough to the needs of a certain group to see that need (for an after school program for latch-key children). Now, we understand that this ministry is an integral part of the ministry of her local church. It will be interesting to learn how this ministry continues to enrich the entire ministry of that local church. In other locations, some may experiment with dealing with other symptoms of poverty such as illiteracy or other educational efforts.

OUR NEXT TASK

We are now seeking to discover local churches where there are programs going on that are serving directly the poor in wholesome ways. We would like to discover many across the conference, perhaps a few in each district, that can serve as examples of how to serve and contact the poor in fact. We will discover local churches who already have in place programs that place themselves in contact with the needy. We will then want to encourage others to use those good examples as suggestions for engaging in activities that will give them contact with the poor.

As a church increases its contact with the poor, it can then through them begin to learn through experience some of the ways in which the systems of poverty work to keep the poor, poor. Then the possibility might present itself of the poor becoming part of our congregations. We have said that we are concerned about membership decreases in our church; but would we be ready to welcome the poor into our membership? Would we want to organize new congregations specifically for the poor? How would they be financed? Would they have to be self-supporting and pay conference apportionments, etc?

Maybe this is racing ahead too fast. For in the first place, we should not be in solidarity with the poor in order to increase our church membership. Eddie Fox and George Morris in their book Faith Sharing, warn us against a motivation rooted in the hope of reward. They use the language of Kierkegaard and describe this as "double-mindedness." If a person wills the good for the sake of reward, s/he does not will one thing but two. This would not be Purity of Heart (Kierkegaard's book title cited). So they and we should be dubious of those who wonder, "what's in it for me." So our concern for the poor needs to be clearly rooted in love.

THE WORK AHEAD

There is much left to be done. The work of this Task Force has just begun. This Task Force was organized around the principle of wide representation from those boards and agencies which quite naturally already have some connection to the needs of the poor. To now, this has worked well in that a wide range of perspectives relating to the poor among our elders, minorities, children, urban dwellers, and rural people has been held before us. However, inasmuch as each one of us already had an obligation to another board or agency, often there was not much additional time nor energy for the work of this Task Force.

Therefore, we are recommending that the membership of this task force be increased to include additionally some specific persons who have some first-hand experience at working to become in solidarity with the poor. Perhaps this Task Force should report occasionally to the Cabinet in order to increase the visibility of this important work. As we noted in Wesley earlier, solidarity with the poor is not one program among others...but the norm. Why? Wesley's views on visiting the sick, etc., can be summarized this way. In visiting the marginalized, we invite them to transform us, to transform our hearts, to transform our understanding, to transform us into instruments of the divine mercy and justice.

WORSHIP, BOARD OF

As we come to the close of the quadrennium, the Board of Worship of the NC Conference offers this report with rejoicing and thanksgiving for the opportunities we have been able to share with the people of this Conference and to offer vision for the future.

The past four years have been monumental in the area of worship for all United Methodism. There is a new United Methodist Hymnal which the Board of Worship has helped to introduce this new resource to local churches through workshops and hands-on training events. The response was marvelous and we continue to make ourselves available to assist those who may have questions. The original plan of three teaching teams has been expanded, along with the focus into Worship Training Teams. Under the direction of Reverend Carol Goehring we are equipping these teams to go into local church settings to assist them in envisioning, developing, and achieving effective and dynamic worship experiences.

The Board of Worship has been privileged to assist in the planning of several worship services at the conference level. Our goal has been to offer worship settings and experiences that glorify Jesus Christ and bring worshippers to know Christ's presence among us. We have been intentional in our efforts to be inclusive in the selection of worship leaders, choirs, and resources in these services and look forward to sharing in this privilege in the future.

We are pleased with the response and growth of the Handbell Festival, which is put on by the Fellowship. Under the leadership of Mark Gourley, Fellowship president, this event has become totally self-supporting and has a wonderful following. The Board of Worship commends this event to all churches.

The Board of Worship is currently in discussion with the Duke Divinity School Continuing Education Department about offering events to assist in the interpretation and use of the new United Methodist Book of Worship. We look forward to 1993 as the year when these continuing education events will be offered.

In looking forward to a new quadrennium and the Board of Worship's involvement, we have developed a Mission Design Statement for this board. It is as follows:

God, the Divine Mystery, revealed God's self uniquely in the Incarnation of Jesus Christ, and continues to be revealed in the proclamation of the Word, the celebration of the sacraments, and the life of the world. Confronted by God's self-revelation, human beings become part of Christ's Church as they worship God through confession, adoration, sacramental act, and commitment of life.

The Board of Worship of the NC Annual Conference will seek to meet the worship needs to the Annual Conference, districts, and local church.

Again, the Board of Worship offers itself for service to the people of the NC Conference and to the glory of Christ. We invite your input and comments.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

Introduction: Bishop Minnick, Delegates, and guests, I greet you on behalf of the twelve District Superintendents, and pray God's richest blessings upon you.

We the District Superintendents join the pastors and lay members of the Annual Conference in expressing our deep gratitude to Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr. for his commitment and compassion, for his vision and his leadership, for his gentle and loving spirit, for his openness to hear all sides of every issue, for his deep concern for the well-being of each pastor and each local church and for the pastoral manner with which he leads our conference.

The twelve District Superintendents have worked with the 859 pastors and the 838 local churches of our conference to encourage and equip them to offer the compassionate and redeeming grace of our Lord Jesus Christ to the members of our congregations and to the citizens of the mission fields on which our local congregations are located. In many places the church is alive and well, in other places it struggles against great odds, but in every place there are faithful pastors and lay persons who bear witness to the Lordship of Jesus Christ in their lives.

You know much about the Cabinet Members, but you may not know: That we participate in a daily Bible reading and prayer covenant with one another - That we open each cabinet meeting with prayer, with a devotional, and with prayers for pastors, lay persons, and local congregations from each district who have special concerns - That we agreed to accept only half of our 1992 salary increase because of our concern about the churches of the conference paying only 88.1% of their apportionments for 1991, and our desire to make some statement about our sense of fiscal responsibility - That we hold an annual spiritual life retreat - That we all held retreat and/or continuing education experiences for our pastors - That we had an annual evaluation/consultation session with each pastor serving in a local church - That we consulted with the PPRC of each charge where a move was anticipated - That we consider it a sacred and awesome responsibility to seek in the appointive process to meet both the needs of the pastors and of the local congregations, and to find a match which bring joy and fulfillment to clergy and laity - That in the making of each appointment we seek to take into account the missional needs of the charge, the abilities of the pastor, the years of service, the extenuating circumstances, and the salary - That 43 of 145 pastors on the moving list asked to be appointed to specific geographic areas because of the special needs of their families - That two churches and 24 pastors asked for reconsideration after the first set of appointments made in April - That all the District Superintendents consider the appointment making process the most stressful part of their task - That we participated with others in responding to the work of the Into the 21st Century Committee, and if the recommendations of the Committee prevail, we look forward to having less time tied up with Board Meetings and more time available to be a facilitator in the local congregation - That we held over 573 charge conferences - That we helped to offer training experiences of lay persons in each district.

Some matters that greatly concern the Superintendents: The necessity to close several churches - The great number of laity who seem not to understand UM polity, and who therefore want to run their local congregation as if it had a congregational form of polity and a call system, not an episcopal form of polity and an appointive system - The increasing number of pastors who seem to have forgotten their vow to go where they were sent, and their efforts to set severe geographic limitations upon their appointments - The information passed through the grapevine which sometimes prejudices pastors or laity about the attractiveness of an appointment before an introductory visit can even be held - The failure of our conference to adequately visualize its benevolent ministries, with the result that laity give to many local and world ministries, but often fail to accept 100% of their apportionments on benevolences.

Some areas and issues that we would like to see addressed: Where there is a good match of pastor and people, we need to develop an acceptance of longer appointments, with the norm becoming not two to four years, but six to eight years - There is an increasing use of part-time or bi-vocational pastors, and with the rising cost of a full-time ordained minister, we must train and be prepared to use more bi-vocational persons if we are to provide adequate and affordable pastoral leadership for small membership churches - We need to do a better job of educating and motivating our people in the areas of evangelism, stewardship, Methodist polity, and benevolent giving - We need to reclaim our sense of connectionalism in Methodism - We need in the next six months a strong finish to our Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign to help us with new church development and with expanding our camping ministries to children, youth, and adults.

Positive signs of vitality & ministry we see in the life of our Annual Conference: The increased interest in Bible Study, including the use of the Disciple, Bethel, and other Bible Study programs - The evangelistic efforts of many pastors and laity - The net growth in membership for our Conference - The increasing number of laity, youth, and clergy who are finding spiritual renewal through the Emmaus Walk - The increasing number of laity and clergy attending Frazier Memorial Seminars and other special training events for local church leaders - The employment of Gary Smith by the Conference to assist local churches and VIM teams with building projects - The sense of direction and mission that many churches have experienced through their participation in the Conference Vitalization Project - The increasing number of local congregations who are coming to see themselves as missionary outposts on one of the richest mission fields in the world - The work of the Into the 21st Century Committee and its emphasis on the need for the Annual Conference to direct more of our time and energy to the strengthening of the local congregation - The mission saturation events held in the past year and planned for the year ahead - The generous financial and personal response of laity, clergy, and local congregations to special needs like Hurricane Hugo or the Los Angeles Riots - The many building programs underway in each district - The sense of servanthood exemplified by many clergy and laity (youth and adults) through their increasing participation in Habitat for Humanity, Appalachian Service Project, Volunteers in Mission (in the Conference and abroad), Medical Work Teams, Stephen Ministries, and other avenues of service.

Conclusions: An addendum is attached to this report highlighting a few of the significant things that local churches, laity, pastors, and superintendents have done in each District to advance the cause and ministry of Jesus - There are many problems to deal with in the NC Annual Conference, but there are many signs of progress, for the spirit of Christ is alive and well in local congregations, in the hearts of laity, and in the lives of clergy across our Conference - Thanks be to Christ for his love, grace, and power which sustain us in our quest to be faithful disciples and missionary outposts on the mission field of eastern NC.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

In 1927 John Wilbur Jenkins wrote a biography entitled James B. Duke: Master Builder. In a chapter on the establishment of The Duke Endowment he wrote, "Forty millions to education, charity and the relief of human sufferings - a perpetual endowment, that, increasing annually, will eventually reach eighty millions - was the princely gift which James B. Duke made to his native state and section." Mr. Jenkins continued in the same chapter to write, "What will Mr. Duke do with his fortune?" was a question that had been discussed for twenty years. Here was the answer."

It was an incredible gift, but what has transpired since the signing of the Indenture is more incredible. Instead of growing to $80,000,000 as indicated by John Jenkins in his book, the corpus of The Duke Endowment is now well over $1,000,000,000. Even more unbelievable is that in the 68 years since the signing of the Indenture, The Duke Endowment has made grants of over $1,000,000,000 to beneficiaries. Yes, in May 1992 The Duke Endowment made a grant that put it over the $1,000,000,000 mark.

While Mr. Duke gave close scrutiny to his business enterprises, he also was very careful as he planned who the beneficiaries of the trust being established would be. In the Indenture Mr. Duke wrote, "I might have extended this aid to other charitable objects and to other sections, but my opinion is that so doing probably would be productive of less good by reason of attempting too much." He specified that the beneficiaries would be not-for-profit hospitals and child care institutions in the two Carolinas, rural United Methodist churches of the two Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church in NC together with retired ministers and widows and children of deceased ministers in those Conferences, and four educational institutions - Duke University, Davidson College, Furman University and Johnson C. Smith University.

This report is about just one of the beneficiaries, the rural United Methodist Church in NC.

Rural United Methodist churches, "those churches located in the sparsely settled rural districts of the state of NC and not in any city, town or hamlet, incorporated or unincorporated, having a population in excess of 1,500 people, according to the then last Federal Census" are eligible to receive grants in two areas. The Building Rural Churches Program assists churches in new church construction and in major renovations to existing church buildings. Over the years the Trustees of the Duke Endowment have established certain guidelines that must be met before churches can apply for the grants. These guidelines assure the churches of getting quality buildings while, at the same time, not overextending themselves by incurring debts that inhibit the normal activities of the congregation.

Another innovative program to help rural churches is the Weatherization of Rural Churches. In cooperation with the NC Alternative Corporation The Duke Endowment has bought materials so that churches who might not otherwise be involved in building programs are able to receive financial support from The Duke Endowment toward making their buildings more comfortable and energy efficient. Through May 1992 The Endowment has made grants of $737,252 to 332 churches.

One area of great concern has been to insure that rural United Methodist churches have adequate pastoral leadership. A number of programs have been developed through various field placements to help students in Duke University Divinity School afford an education, thereby increasing the number of trained pastors available to rural churches. Students are assigned to churches for 10 to 12 weeks in the summer and on the weekends during the school year. These programs have an advantage in that they not only provide scholarship money but they also give the student an opportunity to gain experience by being in ministry. In addition, student pastors serving churches are eligible for grants toward their tuition from The Duke Endowment.

Pastors who are serving in rural churches need the opportunity to refresh themselves for better ministry. Scholarships are provided for them to attend continuing education events planned through Duke Divinity School. It is even possible for pastors to have an extended time of continuing education attending Duke Divinity School as B. N. Duke Fellows for one month over a three-year period or for a study leave of three months.

Another broad area under the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program is parish development. Through parish development churches are able to request money to help start new and innovative programs within the local churches or parishes. A variety of projects have been funded through this program.

Finally, a third major facet under the rural churches program is the fulfillment of Mr. Duke's concern for the superannuated pastors ("worn out preachers" as he referred to them) and widows and dependent children of deceased pastors. Each December pastors who retire from either of the NC Annual Conferences and who have had at least five years of service in one of those Conferences are eligible for Superannuate Grants. At the present time these grants amount to $29 for each year the pastor served in one of the Annual Conferences. Widows of deceased pastors receive 75% of the service year amount and children receive 25%.

A final report indicating the amount that these various programs received this years is listed below:

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

Bishop Minnick, delegates, and guests - I bring you greetings from the members of the Committee on Episcopacy. As you have already heard this week, there are many exciting forms of ministry in action in our NC Conference! It is great to be a part of this NC Conference!!

This is my last year to share our report with you, but EACH year I have encouraged you to share any concerns you had with our committee. We appreciated hearing from you during the quadrennium. Your affirmations, your concerns, your suggestions have helped us, we think, to be a more effective committee. We have been appreciative of Bishop Minnick's willingness to listen to your concerns and also his willingness to respond to needs when appropriate.

Bishop Minnick, we do thank you for these past eight years of your leadership of our conference. You have been sensitive to our need for inclusiveness, our need to expand our vision of mission to include not only our local church but our world, our need for new churches in new growth areas of our conference, our need for improvement and expansion of our camps - a crucial ministry not only for children but for youth and adults. One of your talents which you have shared with our Annual Conferences and other groups is your talent for teaching Bible Studies. You have helped scriptures "come alive" in a very special way. We are very proud of your new role as President-elect of the Council of Bishops and 1993 will bring many opportunities and challenges as President of the Council of Bishops. We also feel that it was a tribute given when you were chosen to preside at General Conference.

Mary Ann, we thank you for your thoughtfulness, your graciousness, your caring ways. We appreciate your involvement on the Task Force on Children's Ministries.

Our committee on the Episcopacy had a special responsibility this year. In Paragraph #507 of our Discipline is stated "A bishop may be recommended for assignment to the same residence for a third quadrennium only if the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, on a two-thirds vote, determines such assignment to be in the best interest of the jurisdiction." In our October 1991 meeting, we asked Bishop Minnick IF he would be willing to return for another quadrennium. He stated that if the committee is convinced that his style and leadership in ministry would be beneficial for another four years, he would be happy to return. Our committee had received cards and letters from members of our conference supporting his return. We thank YOU for these. The vote was unanimous in favor of Bishop Minnick's return. Then we needed to identify to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy that Bishop Minnick's reassignment to the Raleigh Area would be in the best interest of the Jurisdiction! We have mailed a letter to our Dr. J. Allen Norris, who chairs that Jurisdictional Committee, with the rationale we feel should be considered. Both Dr. Norris and Dr. Belton Joyner who are on the Jurisdictional Committee will speak in our behalf. Just remember that a two-thirds vote of the entire Jurisdictional Committee is necessary. Please be much in prayer for the Jurisdictional Committee that they might be open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. May we accept their decision with grace and dignity and move into the NEW quadrennium with excitement and joy as we continue to be in mission and ministry in the NC Conference.

GENERAL COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

It is indeed a great opportunity and an important responsibility to represent our NC Conference on the General Church boards and agencies. Those who represent us serve the General Church and our own Conference in that they provide the linkage that is necessary for our connectional church to provide a holistic ministry.

The General Council on Ministries accomplished several significant ministries during this quadrennium. Some of the accomplishments include:

- Evaluating and reviewing the performance of the general program agencies and the manner in which they respond to the needs of local congregations and annual conferences.

- Providing general oversight for The Advance for Christ and His Church.

- Establishing a Committee on Connectional Issues to study the structure of the church.

- Engaging in extensive research and planning in order to provide essential information to general agencies and annual conferences and identifying societal issues as they emerge.

- Providing training for new council directors and new district superintendents.

- Providing coordination for the report of the Advisory/Coordinating Committee on Older Adult Ministries, on Prison Ministry Prison Reform and Developing Congregations for Deaf Ministries which call the church to respond to the needs and aspirations of those persons.

Recommending the continuation of the quadrennial theme, Celebrate and Witness: Celebrate God's Grace - Witness for Jesus Christ

These examples of ministry show the response of the General Council on Ministries to the referrals of General Conference and the disciplinary responsibilities. It has been a rewarding experience for Dr. Reginald Ponder and me to serve as members. The UMC is large and complex but through this connectional church we are able to provide outreach and nurture in a manner that is more effective than many of us realize. We should be proud of how the connectional church serves us and how it provides us the opportunity to serve.

LAYPERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

The NC Conference Board of Laity request that each local church select a Lay Person of the Year and recognize the recipient of this honor on Laity Sunday. There are literally thousands of United Methodists across our conference that are deserving of this honor. Every UMC in the NC Conference has several members deserving this recognition and award. It becomes a very difficult task to select only one person to be so honored in the local church. We realize and emphasize that the lay person being honored is certainly most deserving, but also that in honoring one we are symbolically honoring all Laity of that local church.

The criteria that the local church committee uses in making the selection should include

1. That he or she be a member of the local church.
2. The selection should be based on a person's contributions to the church, community and society for the year nominated (October to October), not for prior year's (years') achievements.
3. The person should be selected early enough to be honored or recognized on Laity Sunday which takes place in the month of October. The presentation should use the same type of award from year to year.
4. The Christian way of life of the nominee should be highlighted as it relates to his/her work in and for missions in the church, community and world.

These Local Church Lay Persons of the Year are then nominees for the District Lay Person of the Year in their district. The district selection committee then must struggle with the difficult task of selecting only one person. The Board of Laity is pleased to provide information about these recipients for you in your package of materials and to call their names on the floor of the Annual Conference. Would those present please stand as their name is called and remain standing until I complete the list.

BU - Ruby W. Tilley of Walnut Grove UMC; DJJ - Hugh Miller Bryce of First UMC in Henderson; EC - Frances Goodman Shannonhouse of Riverside UMC, Fayetteville; Karen Merrill Barkmen of Haymount UMC; GO - Valerie Triplett Arends of New Hope UMC in Goldsboro; GR - Charles O. Jenkins of Robersonville; NB - Ervin Chappell of St. Peters UMC; RA - Paula Dille of Highland UMC; RO - Samuel T. Nance of First UMC in Rockingham; RM - Phyllis J. Horton of St. Paul UMC; SA - Esther Burke of Goldston UMC; and WI - Mary Alice Whitfield of Pine Valley UMC.

Each of you is an outstanding United Methodist Christian who provides excellent role model of a lay person living a dedicated life of service. To each of you, on behalf of the NC Annual Conference, I express appreciation and thanksgiving for your faith and commitment that has been an inspiration to your local church, to your district, to the Board of Laity, and to your Annual Conference. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless you in his service and in the building of His kingdom.

These District Lay Persons of the Year were the nominees for the Conference Lay Person of the Year. The Selection Committee for the Board of Laity then had the task of making a final selection. After extensive discussion, a selection was finally made. We are very pleased to make this presentation, recognize the 1992 Conference Lay Person of the Year and sharing some of their ministry and commitment with you.

The recipient of the 1992 Layperson of the Year was remarkable in her service during the last year. During the Gulf War she coordinated mailings of small gifts of encouragement, such as five pound tins of peanuts to approximately fifty persons related to her church. At home she coordinated activities for military dependents, such as a brunch that encouraged fellowship and provided information about the nature of life in Saudi Arabia.

Throughout the year she has recruited, coordinated volunteers for work teams, office services, child care, mailings, meals, and every other kind of activity that happens in a seven day church. Each week she recruited lay readers to participate in the worship services.

She works as Director of Volunteer Ministries and spends as much time at the church as a paid staff person. She has been invited to assume a paid staff position. As she refused to accept a salary her comment was, "How can I take pay to ask others to volunteer?" She sings in the Fellowship Choir, plays several instruments in musical groups, acts in theater productions, teaches Bible study every Tuesday night, and has coordinated the work teams of the Fayetteville District.

She is a wife and mother of four children. Her family is active in the UMC. She participated in the Mission Conference at Lake Junaluska, January Workshops, Disciple Bible Studies, Camp Rockfish, Methodist College programs and the UMW programs.

She edits and produces her church's general newsletter. She serves on the Board of Directors of Urban Ministries and energetically tries to provide clothes for the closets, good for the cupboards, and wood for the woodpiles. She does not simply announce the need - she gets what is needed and with her own vehicle delivers it.

In December, 1991, she identified, coordinated, and in many cases purchased clothing, gifts, and good for needy families. Approximately $40,000 was distributed to the poor of her county. She was instrumental in raising $25,000 of that money and directly responsible for distributing approximately $15,000 in charitable funds.

I am pleased to announce that the 1992 NC Annual Conference Lay Person of the year is Karen Merrill Barkman of the Fayetteville District.

To my knowledge this is a first. When the selection was made by the selection committee, I discovered that Karen and her extended family had planned a vacation on Long Island in the center of Casco Bay in Maine. The only connection is by ferry and it was impossible for her to be here with us today to receive the award. On her behalf, will Ed Tindell, a member of the Annual Conference from Haymount UMC, please come to the stage and accept the award for Karen. Also, I would like for Karen's pastor, district superintendent and district lay leader to come to the stage for the presentation.

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: We, the members of the NC Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, are pleased and privileged to present to the NC Annual Conference our report for 1992.

It includes recommendations of sixteen (16) persons to be elected to Probationary Membership and fourteen (14) persons to be ordained as deacons as well as seventeen (17) persons to be elected to full membership and ordained elders. The report also includes many other persons covering a wide range of ministerial relationships.

I was alarmed by the following statistics gathered from a poll of pastors published in the April 24, 1992 issue of Newscope:

80% believed pastoral ministry adversely affects their families, and 33% said that being in the ministry is an outright hazard to their loved ones.

90% felt they were inadequately trained for ministry demands, and 70% said they have a lower self-image now than when they started out.

37% confessed having been involved in inappropriate sexual behavior with someone in the church, and 70% do not have someone they consider a close friend.

On the other hand, I was encouraged when I considered the process administered by the Board. Yes, it is our function, if I may borrow a recent political turn of phrase, "to weed and to seed." For the good of all concerned, there are times when we must withhold recommendation. Yet the process now in place is designed primarily to nurture growth through an admittedly rigorous examination of the candidate's expectations of, commitment to, preparation for, and effectiveness in ministry. While this process does not presume to preclude the sort of frustration and failure behind those poll results, it does provide an early opportunity for the candidate to address such issues before he/she becomes a statistic.

The goals of the process are ordination and conference membership. In his incisive volume, The Yoke of Obedience, Dennis Campbell writes:

"Ordination is God's act in the church. In the laying on of hands with prayer, the gift of the Holy Spirit sets the ordained apart for the service of leadership in the faith community...Ordination is a theological reality in which the church asserts its trust that God will give the ordained grace for the specific ministries of Word, sacrament and order...Ordination involves relinquishment of the self to God and the Church of Jesus Christ. Ordained men and women are marked as persons whose lives are defined by service, and whose commitment to God and God's world takes precedence over self-interest."

Or as John Wesley expressed it in his Service of Covenant Renewal, "I am no longer my own, but thine."

The duties of the Board are varied and far-reaching. They are outlined in ¶733.2 of The Book of Discipline, 1988.

The following reports from various committees of the board not only provide further insight into its work, but they also indicate the diligence and commitment which the Board members bring to their many tasks.

A special word of appreciation and commendation is expressed to the Reverend Dr. Kermit L. Braswell, Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Jefferson of the Office of Ministerial Relations. This report would not be possible apart from their superb administrative skills!

Miscellaneous Requirements: The Board of Ordained Ministry would remind the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the North Carolina Annual Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic steps found in The Book of Discipline.

FULL-TIME LOCAL PASTORS not holding the M.Div. degree must complete ONE of the following:

1. Local pastors in progress or serving prior to 1988 must complete at least the five-year Course of Study.

2. For full-time local pastors, the Board recommended that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our full-time local pastors (1980).

OR

3. Complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

For ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP, the Board recommended that the academic requirement be raised to four-year Baccalaureate degree (1974).

For PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP, each candidate must complete the following seminary level courses to be eligible for interview, effective June 1988.

1. A course in preaching that includes a practicum, laboratory, or field experience in the preparation, delivery, and evaluation of sermons.

2. A course in public worship that includes the theory, theology, and practice of planning and leading public worship.

For FULL CONNECTION, the Board recommended that only those persons who had completed the M.Div. degree (or its equivalent) in seminary be elected to full membership (1975). Attention is called to the course requirements contained in ¶424.3c of The 1988 Book of Discipline. Candidates must complete the Methodism courses PRIOR to the interview:

1. United Methodist Polity
2. United Methodist Theology and Doctrine
3. A History of Methodism

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has the responsibility to assist the clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference in any of the following categories:

1. Discontinuation
2. Leave of Absence
3. Retirement
4. Sabbatical Leave
5. Termination of Conference Membership (Surrender of Credentials)

Upon request of the Pastor, the Cabinet, or Board of Ordained Ministry, the Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in his/her conference relationship. The committee provides support by posing questions and giving counsel. The committee then acts upon the request and makes recommendations to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In each situation, the person requesting the change must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Committee on Conference Relations, through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting, would remind all those in the various categories of Conference membership, other than effective, to adhere carefully to the guidelines that apply to that category. This is particularly true with those on Leave of Absence whose exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is placed. Pastors on Leave of Absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (geographical and membership) of that Charge Conference.

On April 29, 1992, the persons who will be retiring from the NC Conference at its session in June, 1992, along with their spouses, were feted at a luncheon in Goldsboro. Following lunch, the retirées were informed about many matters related to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This event, held annually since 1987, has proven very helpful to those who are retiring.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1988 Book of Discipline, ¶445.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education throughout their careers, including carefully-developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational activities." The Discipline, ¶445.2, further states that "in most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education program should allow for Study Leave at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with the charges or other agencies to which they are appointed, as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1988 Discipline, ¶423.2).

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) It establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) It seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides "study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium." Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. 1988 Discipline, ¶445.2.

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Minister: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of Conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and Conference-related agencies and institutions and ABLC categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

In providing grants, the Conference will place limits as follows:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

2. For a one-week event, $150.00 will be the maximum grant; for a two-week event, $300.00.

3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4. The Conference may fund no more than 75 percent of the cost of any Continuing Education event.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation.

2. Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

3. The district superintendent will send the pastor's Continuing Education report to the director of Ministerial Relations on an annual basis so that this report can be placed in the pastor's permanent file (and possibly on computer). This information will include course title and Continuing Education credits.

4. It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

IDENTIFICATION AND ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

The identification and enlistment of persons for ministry is a primary responsibility of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (§733.2a).

Identification and enlistment of prospective ministers for the church, including ethnic groups and women, should be the result of continuous and intentional study of the short-, medium-, and long-term needs of the constituencies of the church. This responsibility constitutes a team effort of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Bishop and Cabinet, the Council on Ministries, the District Committee on Ordained Ministry, and the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations in the local congregations. Response from Conference ethnic caucuses will prove helpful in addressing the particular needs of the ethnic groups within the life of the Conference.

The North Carolina Conference Enlistment Committee will be recruiting persons to attend the national "Exploration '92" event to be held in Louisville, Kentucky at the Galt House, November 13-15. Young persons who are prospects for the ministry are encouraged to explore what ministry is about. This Conference is open to persons from their junior year in high school through age 25.

The intention of the Enlistment Committee is to raise the consciousness of our constituency that identification and enlistment is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church - laity, clergy, pastor-parish relations committees, and district superintendents. Therefore, we will be intentional in the next year to seek to maintain and register prospective persons for the ministry. A conference-wide event will be held in the future.

Lawrence E. Johnson, Chairperson

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

The purpose of the Ministerial Education Fund is to enable the Church to unify and expand its program of financial support for the recruitment and education of ordained and diaconal ministers and to equip the Annual Conferences to meet increased needs in this area (Discipline, ¶921). The Ministerial Education Fund helps assure support for the United Methodist seminaries, for persons seeking degrees in theological schools, and for ordained and diaconal ministers in continuing education.

The local church contribution to the Ministerial Education Fund divides two ways. Seventy-five percent goes to the Division of Higher Education and Ministry in Nashville and is distributed among the United Methodist seminaries for operating expenses and for scholarship aid to minority and special students. The remaining twenty-five percent remains with the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. These funds provide scholarship aid for ordained and diaconal ministerial training, continuing education, and recruitment for ministry. The Board of Ordained Ministry expends most of these funds to provide scholarships for ministerial candidates who meet eligibility requirements.

Please note one operational change. Ministerial Education Fund grants were formerly loans, which were paid back by years of service in the Annual Conference or by principal plus interest cash repayments. The Board of Ordained Ministry now makes these grants solely as scholarships. This action reflects two things: 1.) the vast majority of the former loans were repaid by years of service and 2.) those not repaid at all were almost impossible to collect. This situation was most unfair to persons who were conscientious and repaid their loans. The Ministerial Education Fund Committee now screens each applicant and feels that its judgment as to the fitness of the candidate for such a scholarship means that our Annual Conference supports our own candidates for ministry in a fair and helpful fashion.

The Ministerial Education Fund provides crucial financial support for the training and continuing education of ordained and diaconal ministers. The Board of Ordained Ministry thanks the churches for their support of the Ministerial Education Fund.

NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

Ten continuing education seminars, two provocative lecturers, and inspirational worship highlighted the 1991 Pastors' School and Convocation at Duke Divinity School. Pastors could choose from a varied menu of course offerings such as ethics, baptism, world religions, preaching, drug abuse, and computers. The James A. Gray Lecturer, Fr. Paul Cioffi, charmed his audience with wit and keen insight as to the development of church architecture through the centuries. Tex Sample, the Franklin S. Hickman Lecturer, used a narrative, folksy style to elucidate how the church ministers to those on the cultural right. Charlene Kammerer and Bishops Joseph Bethea and Thomas Stockton were Convocation preachers. Once again the partnership of the two NC Annual Conferences and Duke Divinity School produced an excellent pastors' school and a splendid continuing education opportunity.

Mark your calendars for the 1992 pastors' School and Convocation at Duke Divinity School, October 26-28, 1992. Professor Harry Stout of Yale University will deliver the James A. Gray Lectures on the history of preaching in America. Dr. Stout won critical approval for his study of Puritan preachers. He is an outstanding lecturer. Dr. David Lowes Watson, newly appointed to Wesley Theological Seminary, will bring the Franklin Hickman Lectures. Dr. Watson is well known for his work on the Wesleyan emphasis on accountability and discipline and its practical consequences for the contemporary church. Dr. Watson, a Duke graduate, will lecture on pastoral leadership styles, drawing on Wesleyan influences. Another exciting array of continuing education courses and fine preaching will make Pastors' School another excellent event.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Board of Ordained Ministry of the North Carolina Annual Conference requires psychological assessment and evaluation for all persons seeking membership in our Annual Conference. The Committee on Psychological Testing and evaluation is charged with carrying out this responsibility. Members of the committee during 1991-92 have been David Banks, John Harwood, Glenda Johnson and Robert Pullman. In addition, in February Fred Roberts was replaced by P.D. Midgett.

The two-fold purpose of psychological testing and evaluation is to provide nurture for those seeking conference membership and to assist the Board of Ordained Ministry, acting on behalf of the Annual Conference, in the selection of candidates with optimum psychological adjustment for effective ministry. Our intent is personally to benefit candidates seeking conference membership by providing them information, feedback, and guidance toward psychological health and wholeness. At the same time, we seek to assist the Board of Ordained Ministry in their selection process through the early detection of behavior patterns which may pose potential barriers to effective ministry.

On a national level, psychological testing and evaluation of United Methodist Ministerial Candidates is increasingly coming to be seen as ONE part of an overall process of discernment of those persons' readiness for ordination and ministry.

For all persons seeking Probationary Membership and for all those applying for transfer to the NC Annual Conference from denominations where the candidate's status after transfer will be the Probationary relationship, the following tests are required: Personal Data Inventory, Incomplete Sentences, Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and 16 PF (back-up to the MMI). Probationary members of other annual conferences wishing to transfer into ours must release information on their psychological testing to the Transfer Committee of this board.

The cost of psychological testing and evaluation of those United Methodists from within the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry. The cost of the testing and evaluation for those seeking transfer will be borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

For over a year this committee investigated all testing services known to us in this region in order to secure the most cost-effective testing of our candidates. We concluded that the bid of the Methodist Counseling Center in Charlotte best meets our needs. Therefore, the Board of Ordained Ministry voted to contract with that center for testing in 1992 and 1993. Further, we express our very deep gratitude to the Career and Personal Counseling Service at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg for their gracious and devoted service in testing and evaluating our candidates for our conference for approximately the past decade.

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

In ¶1417.3 of The Book of Discipline, 1988, we read: "each Probationary Member shall have an Elder in Full Connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation." This Residency in Ordained Ministry Program has served to meet this guideline plus it has also served the purpose of providing collegiality and support for each one who has been involved in the program. The participants have been meeting in clusters and we endeavor to keep them in the same cluster for the duration of their Probationary period, and we also try to keep them with the same leader. This really does provide quite a bit of support. The Cluster Leaders this past year have been: Milton Mann, Sam Loy, Susan Lindblade, Robert Redmond, Edith Gleaves, and Robert Wallace. There has been another section of the Residency in Ordained Ministry Program that has been coordinated by Joseph Mann and Albert Fisher.

My thanks to each of these splendid leaders of these fine ministers we have coming up in our Conference!

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTION ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

Gratitude, excitement, and anticipation are key words in the life and activities of the SEJ Administrative Council.

Gratitude...to each of you for your support, for your attendance at program events, and for your continued prayers and encouragement.

Excitement...because there are new and innovative programs and ministries. There are improvements to the Assembly grounds and facilities and Anticipation...as we give grateful thanks for the past and what has been, we look to the future with anticipation, with renewed strength, and with commitment to be more Faithful Witnesses for Jesus Christ.

We are glad to be able to report another successful year for the SEJ Administrative Council. With the naming of members to the Strategic Planning Committee, chaired by Bishop Thomas B. Stockton, exciting plans began to take shape.

Primary was a review and development of our missional statement. Our work as council members and staff this past year has been the fulfillment of this purpose which encourages and admonishes us "to extend the hospitality of God to all." Being God's servants, celebrating and witnessing has been our theme.

Communicating "who we are and what we do" is crucial to the SEJ Administrative Council and its continued success. Our public relations department continues to be involved in a number of activities to inform better the members of the SEJ about the purpose, goals, and programs of the Administrative Council. One of our communication pieces is the SEJ United Methodist which is published at least four times each year.

We continue to be grateful for the support of the Junaluska Advisors appointed across the jurisdiction to help us promote program, facilities, and activities. The Junaluska Associates continue to give support through their budget and through the endowment program.

New marketing and development strategies are being developed and put into place to help us to be better stewards of monies entrusted to us and to share goals, purpose, and program with the entire SEJ.

The Lake Junaluska Division of the Council has good news to report. The number of persons being served in the facilities at Lake Junaluska Assembly has increased over previous years. Many needed improvements have been made possible to the maintenance reserve fund including new maintenance equipment. Renovation of Stuart Auditorium began this fall and is on schedule for late-March completion.

Volunteer work teams from Tennessee, Mississippi, and Kentucky have been on-site to provide assistance in building and repairs. We continue to use Marriott Food Services and have recently obtained a new director and new manager. The hydroelectric plant began producing electricity in August. Improvements to the buildings and the grounds continue as funds are available.

We are pleased that Dr. Israel Rucker has been named program consultant to the Gulfside Assembly and that Reverend Celia M. Cox from the North Alabama Conference has joined the SEJ Administrative Council staff as the associate executive director for program.

Reverend Bob Mangum, director of the SEJ Association for Native American Ministries (SEJANAM) began work July 1, 1991. His work within the Mission and Ethnic Concerns area will focus on the development of new ministries with SEJ Native Americans. New proposed ministries for Korean Americans are being considered by the SEJ.

Dr. Evelyn Laycock and husband Bill began work as of January, 1992, in new program development. Evelyn is serving as the director of the Lay Ministry Training Center.

New programs developed include Strategies for Sunday School Effectiveness, Choir/Music Weekend for Small Churches, Dimensions of Spirituality in the Black Experience, Sharing the Biblical Journey, and New Life Sunday School Teacher Training.

We continue the task of developing and implementing creative programs to strengthen and enhance the ministries of the local congregations, districts, and annual conferences.

Our new video The Heart of the Jurisdiction tells only a portion of the story of the vital ministries of the seven agencies across the SEJ.

Hinton Rural Life Center has undergone major renovations to allow them to serve more people at the facility. In addition to their on-going ministries, Hinton has begun a new home construction program in the local community, an intentional spiritual renewal ministry based on Wesleyan models, and clergy training at the Ministerial Course of Study School at Duke Divinity School and other seminaries to enhance pastoral service in rural and small membership congregations.

The Commission on Archives and History continues to provide services to local churches, groups, and individuals. Major accomplishments have been the preservation of the Lake Junaluska papers; the refurbishing of portraits of Bishop Walter R. Lambuth and Belle Harris Bennett, and an outreach program with residents of Brooks-Howell Home in Asheville.

The SEJ Protestant Hour Commission (formerly Commission on Communications) has had a successful year and will offer a new format for the Protestant Hour for 1992 with three UM preachers.

The Intentional Growth Center in 1991 had an increase in numbers of programs and participants. Innovative programs include spiritual growth, professional growth in ministry, personal growth, and Elderhostels. Several programs and events are held across the SEJ in local churches, districts, and annual conferences. We continue to support the "Born Free/Stay Free" drug prevention program and new arrangements for support and participation are anticipated for 1992.

SEMAR (Southeastern Methodist Agency for Rehabilitation) ministries include ministries with the deaf and hard of hearing, with persons who are blind, and with persons with mental retardation. SEMAR is providing leadership and consultation with an ecumenical group in Winston-Salem to develop a residential facility for adults with AIDS. This is a pilot project and may become a model for other programs across the southeast.

UMVIM (United Methodist Volunteers-In-Mission) continues to be involved in many mission projects and work teams. One of the most exciting is the involvement with the Africa University in Zimbabwe.

During 1991, the Gulfside Assembly has experienced several building improvements and renovations. The Gulfside Staff is developing new programs including Elderhostels. We are always excited about and grateful for the work and ministries carried out by Gulfside and are happy to share this ministry with the South Central Jurisdiction.

We have had a steady increase in our Endowment Funds over the past three years. This has enabled us to provide for some of the budgeted revenues to be raised from gifts and investments. We continue to be grateful to the members of the SEJ for support of the Administrative Fund and the Missional Fund. Much of our report of the programs and ministries is made possible by your generosity.

We as your management team are committed to being responsible stewards of all the resources entrusted to us. We trust you will see the need to continue your gifts through the apportioned Administrative Fund and through the asking of the Missional Fund. We need both of these avenues of financial support on the program and ministries of the Administrative Council.

Let us move with confidence into the future to become "Faithful Witnesses for Jesus Christ."

SPIRIT FOR TOMORROW CONTINUATION CAMPAIGN

In the four years of the Spirit for Tomorrow Capital Funds drive, great strides have been made in achieving the visions of the campaign. As of April 1, $4,650,664 has been raised for two programs of evangelism: Church Extension and Outdoor and Camping Ministries. Through individual and local church pledges and major gifts the North Carolina Conference has supported these two causes. Fourteen churches have received grants from the Spirit for Tomorrow funds. All four camps have received funds for major new facilities or renovations. A camps maintenance endowment fund has been established and has grown to over $200,000.

More than 200 churches have paid in full their pledges to the Spirit for Tomorrow. If individual clergy, lay persons and churches remain faithful and pay their pledges, we will exceed our original goal of at least $8,000,000. In the six months we have remaining in the campaign, the Continuation Committee urges you to fulfill the commitment you or your church made to the Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign.

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

ST. MARK'S UMC - KINSTON

The 1991 session of Annual Conference conveyed the property to the Boys and Girls Club of Lenoir County with the stipulation that certain repairs be made and that the property be used as a Boys and Girls Club. Since that time the Boys and Girls Club has determined that they are not able to comply with the stated restrictions. They have conveyed the property back to the Conference Board of Trustees. Currently, there are two parties interested in purchasing the property.

HALL'S CREEK UMC - PASQUOTANK COUNTY

At the Cabinet Session of September 9, 1991, action was taken to approve the "Abandonment of the Hall's Creek UMC property." (Disc. #2548.2) The District Trustees were unable to find a Methodist Congregation to use the property or a congregation of another denomination to purchase the property. A request has been received from the Hall's Creek Community Ruritan Club for the Conference to donate the property to their club.

The Board of Trustees recommends that the property be deeded to the Halls Creek Community Ruritan Club, with the stipulation that:

This conveyance to grantee is absolute only for so long as the grantee continue to exist and to function for the purposes of operating the Ruritan Club and other activities consistent with "charitable, tax exempt status," as defined in the Internal Revenue Code, and only for so long as grantee continues to maintain the property in good condition for its intended purpose, and should the grantee at any time fail to so exist, or to so maintain the property for its intended purpose, then title to the property described herein shall revert to grantor, its successors, or assigns.

LONG TERM PLAN FOR METHODIST BUILDING CAPITAL MAINTENANCE

Funds for maintaining the Methodist Building annual needs have historically been generated from rents. This will not be adequate in the future. As the building ages, major repairs have been necessary. During the spring of 1992, the air conditioning cooling equipment was replaced and funded by the Council of Finance and Administration with supplemental appropriations. Additional improvements to create a HVAC system (in lieu of the current dual duct heating and cooling system) to improve air flow and heating/cooling efficiency are needed. It is apparent now, that a comprehensive plan to fund future major repairs should be developed. Components of the building such as the plumbing, roof, elevator, parking lot, heating boiler, etc. could need expensive repair in the future.

The Methodist Building was last appraised for insurance purposes in 1991 for $2,293,719 at replacement cost. The building is currently being depreciated over a 40 year life which is equivalent to three percent per year. The following five year plan is recommended by the Trustees for inclusion in the annual budget to fund Methodist Building Capital Maintenance at the rate of three percent of replacement cost per year: 1994 - $50,000, 1995 - $69,000, 1996 - $69,000, 1997 - $69,000, 1998 - $69,000.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

This past year, our 37th, again reflects a very favorable performance for the United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated. For the year ending December 31, 1991, net dividends paid to unit holders were $2,026,126, an increase of $10,454 over 1990. Our net assets grew to $35,096,124. This was an increase of $3,811,299. This significant increase was realized from three areas: 1) $731,166 from gain on security transactions, 2) Increase in unrealized appreciation of $1,513,639, and 3) $1,566,494 in reinvestment of dividends by current unit holders and new units issued.

As I prepared this report, I reflected on the growth of United Methodist Foundation, Inc. over the past ten years. Our net assets on December 31, 1981, were $10,367,405 as compared to $35,096,124, an increase of $24,728,719 or 239%. Dividend income has increased $911,472 or 82% from $1,114,654 in 1981 to $2,026,126 in 1991. The net asset value per unit was $1.68 on December 31, 1991.

1991 was a very unusual year in the investment community. Most of our appreciation in equities occurred in the 60 days from January 15 to March 15 and the month of December. Otherwise, the equities had a very lackluster year.

First Union National Bank's Trust Department continues to manage the investment portfolio (exclusive of mortgage loans) and continues to exceed the guidelines as set forth by the Investment Committee. Oxford Mortgage Corporation of Raleigh is our investment counselor for mortgage loans. They have done a very good job for us as it has been very difficult to find quality mortgage loans during the current economic downturn. The few opportunities we had were very carefully investigated.

The unqualified audit by McGladrey & Pullen for the year ended December 31, 1991, is on file in the Conference Treasurer's office for review by any member of this conference.

There were other changes that affected the United Methodist Foundation. We were all saddened by the tragic accident and untimely death of our treasurer, Herb Stout. Herb's experience and knowledge of the Foundation will be missed. Sharon Strother has done an excellent job assuming the duties of acting treasurer. We also look forward to working with Allen Norris as he moves into the Treasurer's office.

Secondly, the United Methodist Foundation received the organizational/management study report from our consultant, McGladrey & Pullen. The report had some excellent recommendations on how the Foundation might be more efficient and better serve our unit holders. These recommendations are being implemented in a timely manner and will also help the Foundation officers and directors in the management objectives for the future.

After a thorough study by the Investment Committee, we moved into the area of Global Investing. We have hired three firms -- Interinvest Investments, Brandes, and Murray Johnstone -- and placed $1,000,000 with each firm. They have been given investment guidelines similar to First Union National Bank's Trust Department. As we move into the 90's the world market is much closer together, and we must look at additional investment opportunities. These new investment managers will meet with the Methodist Foundation at our semi-annual meetings. This is a very exciting area for our Investment Committee.

The Office of Planned Giving has been under the supervision of The Methodist Foundation since 1979. The Reverend Douglas Byrd, who serves as Executive Director of the Methodist Foundation, spends a great deal of his time with individual donors, local churches, and institutions in this very important area of stewardship. His outstanding leadership has helped the United Methodist Foundation continue to experience exceptional growth as it seeks to serve the stewardship needs of the NC Conference, local churches, institutions, and other causes of the Church. This growth can be seen in the increased assets of the Foundation and in the number of individual accounts which serve the needs of donors and investors as well as the needs of the varied causes of the Church. Over the past five years these accounts have increased in number from 54 in January 1987 to 155 as of the close of 1991.

Benefits for higher education come from many of these accounts which include investment accounts for some of our colleges along with 38 permanent endowments which provide earnings for 25 to 50 scholarships each year.

Camping and day-care scholarships, local benevolences, special local church programs, church property care and maintenance, and support for special age-level ministries are made possible in and through local churches with benefits from 28 endowment and investment accounts.

Clergy pensions, health and welfare ministries, campus ministries, conference/national/world missions, outdoor ad camping ministries, rural churches, stewardship services, and numerous special projects across the Conference benefit from other endowment and investment accounts.

The investment partnership of United Methodist Foundation has afforded the opportunity for long-term and permanent funds to be invested in ways that adhere to the social principles of the Church while maximizing investment return and minimizing investment cost. Our Annual Conference offices and boards, four of our Conference institutions, and a number of local churches are presently participating in this investment partnership which is open to all churches, institutions, and causes of the Church.

Christian stewardship education and cultivation (with an emphasis on gifts of accumulated and accumulating assets) continue to be a major focus of the Foundation. Stewardship sermons have been preached, stewardship classes taught, and special stewardship presentations made across the Conference area. Workshops and seminars have been conducted in local church settings. Stewardship consultation has been provided for local churches seeking to develop "planned giving" as an integral part of their stewardship program. Over 200 copies of PLANNED GIVING HANDBOOK (a useful resource for structuring and conducting a planned giving program) have been placed with churches across the Conference, and hands-on assistance has been provided in the creation of a Permanent Endowment Fund Committee in many of these churches. The workshops, seminars, consultations, and presentations are provided by the Foundation without cost to the local church.

Estate planning and gift planning assistance has been provided to individuals resulting not only in gifts and gift plans to benefit the Church but also in personal and cost-effective benefits for the individual donors. A great deal of interest has been shown in life income gifts and gifts through life insurance. Over $850,000 has been placed in life income trusts with the residual benefitting the Church; and over $1,250,000 in life insurance gift plans are in place to benefit designated causes of the Church. Many of these gifts and gift plans will resource permanent endowments of the Church.

The Foundation files note many significant gifts which thoughtful and generous United Methodists across the Conference have put in place through their wills, and during the past year many churches and institutions have been the beneficiaries of bequests which matured. A strong emphasis continues to be placed on persons including the Church in their will as an important part of their estate planning.

As United Methodist Foundation looks forward to its stewardship opportunities and challenges in the years ahead, it is with renewed commitment to . . .

+ "providing wise and prudent investment of long-term and permanent funds of the Church and its many and varied missions and ministries . . .

+ offering creative stewardship education and opportunities that focus not only on giving from current income but also from accumulated and accumulating assets .

+ providing competent assistance to donors who want to benefit the Church and its causes . . .

+ offering information, consultation, and resources for churches and institutions as they seek to create an environment conducive to generous giving through sound stewardship procedures."

At our meeting in August a nominating committee will be appointed to nominate the officers of the United Methodist Foundation for the forthcoming quadrennium. I feel the United Methodist Foundation is meeting a critical need of stewardship to the NC Conference and that the current year will again reflect continued progress and outstanding performance.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

Bishop Minnick, delegates and guests: The past year has been a full time for me in serving the UMM as their Conference president. The Lord has blessed all of us and especially me, as I traveled around sharing the work of each district and participated in their programs and outreach. Yes, we are men in mission.

We had our Conference Annual Meeting last November at St. Paul's UMC in Goldsboro with 150 men present, about twice the previous year. Bishop, thank you and the nine district superintendents who were able to be there to celebrate with us. Our theme was "Men in Evangelism" and Dr. Wallace Chappell, the Conference evangelist from the WNC Conference, was our keynote speaker. He challenged us to hear the Good News and rededicate our lives to living for Christ and telling others about him.

Last year we reported making plans to promote the potato project through the "Meals for Millions" challenge directed towards involving each local fellowship to enlist each man to give $10 for this Hunger Project. District interpreters were recruited and trained to present the program to local fellowships. They were received well, so let me recap briefly our giving to the project.

In the calendar year of 1990 the men of NC gave $900 and in the first six months of 1991 they gave $1500. Training of interpreters took place in June of last year. From July through April 1992 (10 months) the men have given $9100. We look forward to the total exceeding $15,000 for calendar year 1992.

This past year our district organizations have been functioning well for the most part. We now have all twelve presidents in place. We have 236 local fellowships chartered. We have four newly chartered units and four rechartered units that had let their charters lapse in previous years. We hope to have at least 250 chartered fellowships by the end of 1992. This is making good progress towards the Discipline paragraph 264 mandate that "each church or charge shall have an organized unit of UMM chartered and annually recertified through the General Board of Discipleship to provide another channel for involving men in the total ministry of the Church." Lay leaders and pastors, we could sure use your help in accomplishing this most ambitious goal, but just dream a little of the impact this could make in the Church today.

Another area of our Men's program is EMS, Evangelism - Mission - Spiritual Life, which focuses us on our overall goals of UMM. Evangelism involves us in witnessing for Christ and sharing the Good News through scouting and the Moving Member Program. Mission involves us in men in mission beyond our local church such as building churches in the SEJ by volunteer work teams and giving monetary support and supporting the Living Prayer Center at the Upper Room on a National scale, spiritual life encourages men to deepen the spiritual aspect of our life by developing a fellowship of consent, concern and cooperation. All of this is supported when you become a member of EMS by giving the fee of $15 per man payable annually when your fellowship recertifies their charter. We encourage you to join now by completing the form on the back of the EMS brochure.

Our fourth outreach program is in helping to build churches all over the SEJ I mentioned earlier. The program is much like Volunteers in Mission, where we raise the funds and supply the work teams to build churches where there is already an established congregation but they are unable to finance a building program in addition to the current expenses. Some financial support was given but not near what we are capable of doing or what is our Conference's fair share relative to the jurisdiction UMM. Please pick up a brochure at the UMM table outside and use it to contribute. A second church is under construction now at Panama City, Florida. Work teams are also needed so you can still be a part of that effort. It is really rewarding to each person who has a part in helping to build churches for God's kingdom.

Thanks to each local fellowship who helped to make this Conference UMM's program the success it has been this past year. You are the backbone of this Conference UMM. I would like to recognize our Conference executive committee who work so well for us. We express our appreciation to all the district presidents, Tom Walden, our vice-president, Carol Hayes, our staff representative, Caswell Shaw, our Cabinet representative, Frank Hubbard, our Conference coordinator for Meals for Millions Program, and Ernie Wendell, our SEJ UMM past president, who has give us to much leadership and encouragement. These are the people who have been guiding the Conference UMM and we thank you each and may God richly bless you. We are continuing many old programs and giving emphasis to new ones. All to the glory of God who is our inspiration and for whom all our efforts are given.

Thank you and may God bless you.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

Bishop Minnick, members of Annual Conference and guests, I am pleased to bring this report from the over 26,000 United Methodist Women of the North Carolina Conference.

As we come to the final year of this quadrennium, we continue our Theme: FAITHFUL DISCIPLES--JOYFUL SERVANTS, stressing in 1992 SERVING OUR LORD. This theme has been incorporated into all that we have done and will do.

The vitality of North Carolina Conference United Methodist Women has been evidenced by growth in membership, pledging, and increased attendance at Conference and District Events. Christian Personhood Retreat had the largest attendance in recent years, and 39 and Under Event broke all records with 208.

We have seven avenues for Undesignated Giving. A Unit that participates in all seven is designated a SEVEN-STAR UNIT. In 1990 there were 3 units, in 1991 there were 72@

Our budget for 1992 is $540,266.00.

Our Scholarship Committee has approved 16 scholarships totalling $6,310.00.

During the past year we have had excellent opportunities for Leadership Development. On the Conference level we had District Officer in Training (DO-IT) Day in November. The NC Conference Leadership Workshops in January had widespread response in each District. The District Teams held training sessions for local units in January and February. The Women's Division did an in-depth United Methodist Discipline Workshop on Christian Social Responsibility which was attended by Conference and District officers. The Women's Division also had a training event for first-time Conference officers, and Regional School for all Conference officers.

We will participate in Conference Summer School by: UMW Leadership Workshop; Study Displays; Decorations and menu for the Middle East Dinner; Registration; Plenary Session on THE CHURCH IN SOLIDARITY WITH WOMEN Friday evening.

In response to our Campaign for Children we have initiated an annual MOTHER/CHILD RETREAT. This year it will be at Camp Don Lee, September 12 and 13. This is an opportunity for mothers/grandmothers/godmothers and children to share spiritual growth, love, and fellowship.

As an outgrowth of a 1991 UMW statewide seminar on Incarcerated Women held in Burlington, we have become involved with a new program called PRISON MATCH (Mothers and Their Children). The purpose of PRISON MATCH of N.C., an interfaith program, is to provide mothers, who are incarcerated at the NC Correctional Institution for Women, and their children with the support and resources necessary to maintain and strengthen family relationships and to help break the cycle of children following their mother's path to prison. At this time we are working to provide an alternative, non-threatening, child friendly visiting area at the prison. Our 1992 LOVE OFFERING will go to this project.

Basic to all that we do is our PURPOSE which states:

The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

LET'S CELEBRATE!

Let's celebrate the YOUTH of this Conference. Let's celebrate the CCYM, a group of dedicated youth who have shared a faith in God and an attitude of willingness to do what must be done to keep youth ministry and events going strong. Let's celebrate Youth Service Fund that has maintained a national standing by raising $11,000. Thirty percent of this money went to the National Youth Ministry Organization, and seventy percent benefited projects designated by the 1991-92 YSF Task Force, such as Boys' Harbor and Covenant House, which I had the pleasure of visiting in April. Let's celebrate Youth Rally Day, held at Rocky Mount First Church, that had a record-breaking attendance of 1200+ youth.

But even though there is much to be celebrated, there is much concern in my heart.

I brought on stage today a balloon to represent the adults, one for the youth, and one for the children of this Conference. To get your attention I popped the "youth" balloon. The void left in my triangle represents the void left in the conference if there were not a strong youth ministry program. Many of you could share stories with me of your memories of days at Conference Youth Events. In fact, I am certain that many of you would not be sitting here today if it had not been for a conference youth event. Whether your memories be of Workshop, ACS, Rally Day, New York, weekends, or Saturdays spent at the Methodist Building, somewhere your life was touched. We need you to continue to help us touch the lives of young people.

The first and simplest thing you can do is SHARE THE STORY. When you receive youth brochures through the mail or at Conference or District meetings, take them back and share them with your youth. BE ENTHUSIASTIC as you tell the story of Conference Youth Ministry.

Second, BE OPEN TO CHANGE. The Conference Council on Youth Ministries struggles each year to plan events which successfully meet the needs of the youth. Sometimes this may mean change.

The "SAME OLD, SAME OLD" may not meet the needs of and attract today's youth.

Third, BE SURE YOU ARE REPRESENTED. It is vital that your local church and district are represented at all youth events. Annual Conference Session for Youth and Summer Breakaway will be held in July....are you going to be represented?

WE THANK YOU SINCERELY for all you do for the youth ministry program of this conference. IT DOES MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

I WANT TO SHARE ONE OF MY FAVORITE STORIES WITH YOU:

One day an old man was walking down the beach and saw a little girl picking up starfish that had washed ashore during a storm and one by one throwing them back into the ocean. The man walked up to the little girl and asked her why she was doing this because there were hundreds of starfish on the beach and such a little girl could never make a difference. With that, the little girl bent down and picked up a starfish and threw it harder than she normally did into the water. She then walked back to the man, cocked her head and closed one eye (just as little girls do) and said, "I made a difference in that one's life."

SOMETIMES WE MAY WONDER IF WHAT WE DO REALLY MAKES A DIFFERENCE. ALWAYS REMEMBER THE LITTLE GIRL AND THE STARFISH. WE ARE ALL LEADERS, AND LEADERS DON'T SIT AROUND AND WATCH THINGS HAPPEN--THEY GO FORWARD WITH MOTIVATION AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

Finally, LISTEN TO WHAT THE YOUTH ARE SAYING. Let me read you a quote from a conference officer and dear friend of mine as he shares his concerns about youth ministry. He says:

"We have been facing a hard struggle over the past two years due to a dwindling budget, dwindling participation, dwindling interest on a conference-wide scale, and outright negativity. We must continue questioning and restore a breath of vitality back into the Youth Ministries of the NC Conference. If we fail in this endeavor to stir up interest and optimism and if we are not open-minded to change, the sad result will be that Youth Ministries will simply cease to exist. I feel that our message of God's love, in a time when the youth are pulled in many directions at once, is too important to let die. I accepted my leadership position to give back to the Conference all it has given to me. I want to see the Conference survive so that it can reach out to the hearts and minds of many other youth. Let us break free from the slow death we are creating for ourselves through constant bickering between the different cliques within the leadership. Let us all join together because we are all working toward a common goal."

Emily Workman, President

VITALIZATION PROJECT, NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The NC Conference Vitalization Project has now completed three of its four years of work. The purpose of the project when it began in 1989 was to assist local congregations in clarifying their futures in mission and ministry as they seek to be vital congregations and faithful disciples. The plan was to assist 195 local congregations in their long-range ministry by clarifying their strengths and weaknesses, to build on their strengths and make them even stronger, to change their weaknesses into strengths, to be faithful disciples gathered in vital congregations to be in ministry in their local communities.

As the project moves into its final year the purpose is still to provide assistance to local congregations for clarifying their missional goals and objectives for long-range ministry.

The accomplishments thus far are:

1. 196 congregations have been assisted. (This is one more than the original goal for four years.)

2. 46 pastors have been trained to use Twelve Keys to an Effective Church.
3. 22 consultants have been trained and have experience working with local congregations.
4. Many of the trained pastors and consultants have used the fundamentals of the project in the local congregations they are serving.
5. More than 2000 people have been trained in district and conference workshops.
6. The Conference Council on Ministries staff and the Cabinet members have been trained by Kennon L. Callahan, author of Twelve Keys to an Effective Church.

One of the local congregations that participated early in the project was the Franklinton UMC. At this time I would like for the pastor, Reverend Michael Davis, to come and share with the Annual Conference the impact that the Vitalization Project had and continues to have on the Franklinton UMC:

Franklinton UMC Vitalization Project

Franklinton UMC in Franklinton was one of the first 81 churches to be chosen to participate in the Vitalization Project. Having just become a "Station" appointment, we were excited about the possibilities of expanding our ministry through this program.

Mrs. Pat Lykins, our consultant, arrived in February 1990 and together we created a "spark" which quickly grew into a flame of new ministry in our church.

1. We adopted a Concrete Missions Statement which focused on reaching out to our community through "intentional" ministry with children, older adults, and the homeless. This has been an invaluable guide as we plan ministry in our community.
2. We began a "Bingo" Ministry at the Louisburg Manor Retirement Home in Louisburg. Members from our congregation carry Bingo on Tuesday mornings or evenings to the residents of the Home. Many people have been deeply blessed by seeing others who care for them and who are willing to come and help them spend some time in an activity which they enjoy. Our church members have been blessed by reaching out.
3. We successfully carried out our plans to improve our worship experience by training our ushers, adding new visitor callers to contact first time visitors to our congregation within 24 hours of their first visit, and by hiring our first "paid" organist, who has helped us fulfill our plans to start a new Children's Choir.
4. We also worked to make our church more visible in our community. On March 2, 1991 on the 200th anniversary of the death of John Wesley, our UMM installed the first of four Church Welcome Signs around Franklinton. With pride we give thanks to say, "Methodism is alive and well in our town and in NC."

We thank God for the Vitalization Project which has meant so much to the ministry of our church and others. We deeply appreciate the leadership of Bishop Minnick, his Cabinet, Reverend Steve Compton, Mrs. Pat Lykins, and all the other consultants who have visited with the churches of our Conference to strengthen "our" ministry in Jesus Christ. Michael A. Davis, pastor

During the final year of the Vitalization Project there will be additional congregations assisted. Currently, 32 are scheduled bringing the four-year total to 220 local congregations assisted. The mentor program will continue with an additional 24 pastors being trained in Twelve Keys to an Effective Church. Early in 1993 there will be a workshop for large churches.

I express my appreciation to Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., for asking me to be a part of the Project Advisory Committee, the members of the Project Advisory Committee, Dr. Stephen C. Compton, team leader of the Project, to the consultants and mentor program participants who have been the working part of the project, and to all the members of the participating congregations. It is exciting and joyful to share in a project that helps our Conference to be a conference filled with more vital congregations and faithful lay and clergy disciples.

C. RESOLUTIONS

CHURCH/CHARGE STUDY ON ABORTION

WHEREAS in The United Methodist Church great confusion surrounds the moral problem of abortion.

BE IT REVOLVED THAT the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church urges all of its local churches/charges to study and discuss during the coming year the most recent Book of Discipline's paragraph on abortion and the Book of Resolutions, utilizing for study the variety of materials available across the United Methodist denomination.

THE ECONOMY

WHEREAS, John Wesley asked of every endeavor, including the evangelistic one, "How does it help the poor?" and

WHEREAS, the state of the economy in the United States and the world is cause for concern in the public and private sector; and

WHEREAS, during the decade of 1980-1989 the General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopted resolutions entitled, Advocacy for the Poor (1984), Appalachian Challenge (1988), Concern for Persons in Poverty (1980), and Economic Justice (1988); and

WHEREAS, unemployment and inadequate wages are contributing factors to a deteriorating economy, homelessness, and hunger; and

WHEREAS, the trade deficit with foreign nations has been cited as a contributing factor to the sluggish economy of the United States; and

WHEREAS, President George Bush, members of Congress, and other federal and state government officials have recognized the pressing needs for stimulating the economy through a variety of political proposals; and

WHEREAS, 1992 is a General Election in the United States:

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED:

That the North Carolina Annual Conference reaffirm the actions of the General Conference during the 1980s which relate to economic issues; and

That the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church supports governmental efforts that will stimulate the economy, assist the homeless, create jobs, and relieve the financial stress upon the poor and middle class; and

That the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church opposes economic activity that promotes prejudice against other nations and undermines the welfare of United States citizens; and

That the North Carolina Annual Conference encourages all persons to prayerfully and carefully examine the economic issues that affect our world and nation before voting in the 1992 General Election.

ENVIRONMENTAL EQUITY

WHEREAS, the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church state: We affirm all persons as equally valuable in the sight of God . . . We commend and encourage the self-awareness of all racial and ethnic groups and oppressed people which leads them to demand their just and equal rights as members of society; and

WHEREAS, Across the nation, a pattern has emerged of siting toxic waste incinerators, toxic waste dumps, solid waste facilities and other facilities that emit toxic air contaminants in minority and low-income communities as documented by fourteen studies including the United Church of Christ Commission on Racial Justice report Toxic Waste and Race in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Researchers found that communities and companies looking for sites for health threatening chemical or waste sites most often look in low-income, minority neighborhoods where residents are generally less informed and less organized. This is evidenced in the North Carolina PCB landfill now located in Warren County which is 66% minorities and the poorest median income in the state; and

WHEREAS, public perception of food grown and livestock raised around a hazardous waste incinerator has led agricultural consultants and buyers to tell Northampton County farmers that this perception alone has the potential to dry up the market for Northampton's farmers, further plunging this county in grinding poverty; and

WHEREAS, the state of the child in this county is already in serious jeopardy according to the NC Child Advocacy Institute Statistics between 1986-1990:

- third in NC percentage of children living in single-parent families

- third in percentage of children living in poverty (60.5%)

- seventh in infant mortality

- fifth in low birth weight and

- fourth in adult illiteracy and in 1991 this county had the largest percentage of "very poor children" in the state of North Carolina.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church is concerned about the current pattern of discrimination in waste sitings and opposes North Carolina contributing to this disparity by another siting of a toxic waste facility in a low-income, minority area of North Carolina such as Northampton County. The consequences of environmental pollution should not be borne disproportionately by any segment of the population.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church calls upon the General Assembly to require that the racial characteristics, median income, literacy rate and the NC Child Advocacy Institute Statistics in the county where any waste facility is proposed be included in the permit application thereby providing the state and governmental decision makers with a factual base from which to consider the discriminatory impact, if any, of a proposed site.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that copies of this resolution be sent to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, Senate Pro Tem, EPA, Executive Director of the Governor's Waste Management Board and Director of Planning and Policy Evaluation for the EPA.

IMPROVED OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH IN NORTH CAROLINA'S WORKPLACES

WHEREAS: People called Methodists have a long history of standing with those who labor;

WHEREAS: The 1908 Social Creed states, "The Methodist Episcopal Church stands...For the protection of the worker from dangerous machinery, occupational diseases, injuries and mortality;"

WHEREAS: The 1988 "Social Principles" of the United Methodist state, "We support social measures that ensure the physical and mental safety of workers, that provide for the equitable division of products and services..." (The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, 1988, par. 73. IV C, page 103)

WHEREAS: We in the Christian community of North carolina have been deeply saddened and troubled by the fire at the Imperial Foods plant in Hamlet, a tragedy that took 25 human lives and injured 56 more.

WHEREAS: We mourn this needless loss of human lives, and join other people of faith in our hope and confidence that such workplace disasters can and will be prevented;

WHEREAS: We believe that all people have a right to perform their jobs in safety, and that we have a responsibility as stewards of all of God's creation to ensure such safety. We further believe that Jesus' teaching to "love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12) applies to both spiritual and temporal life;

WHEREAS: We recognize that Christian life is life lived in community, and that Christ's teachings require that we love and be accountable to each other;

WHEREAS: The fact that about 2,000 of NC's approximately 180,000 plants are inspected each year suggests that at the current rate, plants would be inspected every 90 years. Federal guidelines call for 114 health and safety inspectors, NC has 29, of which 16 are fully trained to do inspections. We believe that our community is not fully performing the duty to love our neighbors as ourselves;

WHEREAS: Since 1980 the number of workplaces in North Carolina has risen by 50,000 while the number of inspectors and inspections has dropped drastically; and in 1991 North Carolina gained more new businesses than any other state, due in part to a system of inadequate enforcement concerning occupational safety and health;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church support better occupational safety and health in North Carolina by:

Calling for Improved Legislation to:

1. Require all employers who have a high incidence of accidents to institute a safety program, and if they have 11 or more employees require that they establish safety committees to improve their safety record;
2. Appropriate enough funds to hire sufficient OSHA safety inspectors to meet federal benchmarks;
3. Impose new sanctions on employers against firing employees for reasons including the reporting of a safety hazard or any condition which could adversely affect the physical health of the employees;
4. Make employers responsible for wanton disregard of worker health and safety standards;
5. Establish and fund a state supported Occupational Safety and Health Training Institute.

Calling on North Carolina's business leaders and public to make workplace safety and health a priority by:

1. Putting safety first in workplaces;
2. Respecting workers' rights to report violations and by being attentive to their health and safety needs;
3. Encouraging a dialogue among workers and managers concerning health and safety in the workplace;
4. Making a commitment to people over products.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we call upon United Methodist people to continue to minister to people afflicted by the Imperial Foods tragedy;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we send copies of this resolution to North Carolina's governor, lieutenant governor, labor commissioner, and senate and statehouse members of the annual conference area.

"LOW-LEVEL" RADIOACTIVE WASTE FACILITY

WHEREAS, "many of today's 'environmental problems' have their roots in humanity's short sighted use of God's creation," as stated in the 1988 Book of Resolutions;

WHEREAS, we, as Christian stewards have responsibility for using God's gifts for the benefit of all persons and other living things in the world community;

WHEREAS, North Carolina has joined the Southeast Compact consisting of eight states and has been selected from among those states to be the recipient and legal owner of all their "low-level" radioactive waste for a period of twenty years, a high proportion of that waste coming from over 30 nuclear reactors, with less than one percent coming from medical facilities;

WHEREAS, two sites in North Carolina have been selected by the contractor, Chem-Nuclear, and the state Authority as preferred sites, one in Richmond County and one on the Wake/Chatham border;

WHEREAS, both of these sites are in economically depressed rural areas with a high proportion of ethnic citizens whose lives have been disrupted since 1989 and continue to be disrupted to this moment;

WHEREAS, "low-level" radioactive waste includes wastes that are intensely radioactive such as plutonium, and wastes that have long half lives and will pose a threat for thousands of years and thus are a threat to living things now and will continue to threaten the well-being of our children's children;

WHEREAS, the transporting of radioactive waste is a danger to the area through which it passes;

WHEREAS, radiation accumulates in the body causing cancer and other health problems especially to the unborn fetus, to children and to women;

WHEREAS, there is no known safe level of radiation exposure;

WHEREAS, state appointed officials and the proposed operator cannot guarantee a zero-release facility (to date all low-level nuclear waste "disposal" facilities are leaking);

WHEREAS the statute mandating the building of "low-level" radioactive waste facility states that the site itself must contain the waste irrespective of man-made barriers;

WHEREAS, the hydro-geological suitability and license-ability of both the Wake/Chatham site and the Richmond site have been challenged by consultants whose expertise is widely recognized;

WHEREAS, there is need for continued study and implementation of strategies which make ground dumping of radioactive waste unnecessary and which reduce the transporting of waste from its site of origin;

WHEREAS, there are long term unsolved problems connected with nuclear energy production;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT

1) individual church members, groups within the local churches and church agencies be encouraged to avail themselves of every means of becoming informed about the production and storage of "low-level" radioactive waste, about the siting process as it continues in the State of North Carolina over the next several years, and about alternatives to the creation of this waste;

2) a list of resources be distributed to the churches of our conference, the list to include the names and addresses of statewide environmental organizations such as the Clean Water Fund of North Carolina, the Sierra Club, the Conservation Council of N. C. Physicians for Social Responsibility, and the Blue Ridge Environmental Defense League, also such local environmental citizen's groups as Richmond County FORRCE (For Richmond County's Environment) and Ground Zero in the Chatham/Wake area, and, additionally the three legislatively mandated County Site Designation Review Committees as well as the government appointed "Low-Level: Radioactive Waste Management Authority and the proposed contractor, Chem-Nuclear;

3) District Councils on Ministries be encouraged to appoint a council member to plan for collection and dissemination of information on this topic within the Districts.

(Editorial Comment: Below are organizations that supply information about radioactivity in relation to health and well-being of people, the history of radioactive waste sites, current activity across the US, present and pending federal changes, and alternatives to dumping, as well as the siting process in NC.)

THE "PEACE DIVIDEND"

WHEREAS: We are Christians, one in the Spirit, one in the Lord, known by our love;

WHEREAS: The changing world order has brought into clearer focus the nature of many pressing needs;

WHEREAS: Some of those pressing needs include national emergencies in healthcare, education, environmental issues, infrastructure repair, poverty, homelessness, and a ballooning deficit;

WHEREAS: Additional needs include world emergencies in hunger, drought, environment/weather, uprootedness, and oppression;

WHEREAS: The 1990 budget bill created a "wall" between defense and domestic spending;

WHEREAS: Changes in defense spending are being used for the sole purpose of reducing the federal deficit that soured in the 1980's, and not to address crises in human need;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church express it's grief that the outcries of humanity and the earth itself continue to be ignored or deferred by our federal government;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we support efforts of the United States Congress to discover ways to address needs in creative and compassionate ways, even as we in the church seek and discover ways to express that creativity and compassion;

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that we share our grief, our concern, and our hope with North Carolina's congressional delegation.

REGARDING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE MEDIA AND VIOLENCE

WHEREAS the resolutions offered to this Conference focus on matters of policy by attempting to dictate perceived solutions to political bodies;

WHEREAS it is our role as United Methodists, in keeping with the principals of Christian action and conscience articulated by John Wesley, to provide and encourage response to social issues particularly those that are difficult to address through legislation;

WHEREAS we as United Methodists and indeed as a Nation are appalled by the rise in the rate of violence over the last twenty years;

WHEREAS we recognize a growing tolerance in our country for increased police action and decreased constitutional safeguards in an effort to meet the threat of violent crime;

WHEREAS the increase in violent crime has been paralleled by an increase in the graphic depiction of violence and the irresponsible use of weapons, particularly firearms, in the film, video and television media;

WHEREAS we recognize that many of our members own firearms, and put them to lawful and constructive uses;

WHEREAS we recognize a distinction between the ownership of firearms and the irresponsible or criminal misuse of firearms;

WHEREAS we believe that this depiction of violence has warped our entire society by creating a willingness to resort to violence, particularly by those who have lost hope, who have resorted to a criminal lifestyle, or who exhibit a mental imbalance, creating a sense that a person can improve his self image and his standing among his peers by resorting to violence ("a big man carries a big gun");

WHEREAS in particular, firearm violence is a type of violence that has been repeatedly and graphically depicted by film, video and television, and has numbed us to the appalling use of firearms in crime;

WHEREAS we recognize that local, state and federal governments have a limited ability to address this issue due to the constraints of the first Amendment to the United States Constitution that preserves our cherished rights of free speech as well as religious freedom;

WHEREAS we recognize that film, video and television are powerful tools which can instruct our land in sound Christian morals and values, particularly those which center on the family;

NOW THEREFORE, we the North Carolina Annual Conference strongly urge the film, video and television industries to:

1. Limit the depiction of violence on television, particularly firearm violence;
2. Limit the depiction of gratuitous violence, and the casual disregard for human life;
3. Limit the depiction of irresponsible use of firearms and other weapons; and
4. Substantially increase the positive presentation of the Christian family, and of Christian moral values.

SINGLE ADULTS

WHEREAS, single adults comprise forty percent of the adult population,

WHEREAS, demographical studies project that by the year 2000, one in two adults will be single, making singles one of the fastest growing segments in the United States,

WHEREAS, the fastest growing segment of this population are singles again (divorced and widowed),

WHEREAS, this segment of our population crosses all ages, races and nationalities,

WHEREAS, this population represents a unique opportunity for evangelism and church growth,

WHEREAS, we are called by God to respond in faithfulness to the challenge of ministry to and with single adults as a way of living out our commitment to Jesus Christ,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that a singles task force be established by the 1992 Annual Conference and maintained by the Conference Council on Ministries, Board of Education to develop and implement a plan to respond to the challenge and opportunities for ministry with single adults.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we as an Annual Conference, do support and encourage the development and implementation of such a plan that will be reported back to the 1993 Annual Conference.

D. PETITION TO THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL

DECLARATORY DECISION FROM THE NC CONFERENCE

"I move to petition the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision of the effect of Paragraph 531 (Consultation and Appointment Making) on Paragraph 516 (Working with Ordained Ministers); with response to the question, 'Does the consultation process conflict with the authority of the Bishop to make and fix the appointments?'"

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business:

The Conference was established to handle transactions for the operations and programs sponsored by approximately 840 churches in Eastern North Carolina. The Conference also administers the Annual Conference and collects funds from the general and jurisdictional conferences and forwards these funds to the designated recipients. Fund transactions included within this report represent all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

To ensure observance of limitations placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes.

The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Conference are reported in two Board-designated self-balancing fund groups:

- Annual Budget Funds, which are represented by various annual funds, are determined by the Annual Conference, and all funds are raised by member churches.
- Special Funds, are funds created by the Conference for special purposes.

Other accounting policies:

Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, another reasonable basis was used.

Church properties assumed by the Conference Board of Trustees as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Investments are recorded in the financial statements at the lower of aggregate cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is based on specific-identification basis.

Investments are combined into one investment pool for cash equivalents. Earnings are allocated to funds specifically approved by the Council on Finance and Administration based on average ownership interest in the pooled funds. Earnings for all other investments are recorded in the fund owning the assets.

The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Fund Balances will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $25,000 to be maintained as a compensating balance. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds invested in this program each business day are available for immediate withdrawal the next business day. Invested cash in this program at December 31, 1991 is $968,000 and is included in cash in the accompanying fund balance sheet.

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981 the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide pension benefits for Clergy as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1991 is based on 12½ of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan and who receive plan compensation equal at least equivalent to 60 percent of Conference Average Compensation or 60 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation. Funding is based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation.

Beginning January 1, 1990, the employers of plan participants collect the required contributions for defined contribution plans described above from the plan participants and remit all collections directly to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1981. On January 1, 1992 the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $290 was $25,000,947. Current expense for prior service liability was $1,791,346. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period.

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Accounts receivable of $430,846 from the Foundation represent dividends due to various funds of the Conference for 1991. Accounts payable of $1,908,095 to the Foundation represent payments of 1991 pension expense by the Foundation on behalf of the Board of Pensions. Transfers for these balances are made according to the unit investment policies of the Foundation.

Note 8. Commitments

The Conference provides group health, life and dental plans for Conference employees and local church pastors and lay employees. The Conference has elected to self-insure the health and dental plans with an administrative services only (ASO) contract. Under this program the Conference paid claims of $2,980,826 in 1991. As of December 31, 1991, the Insurance Fund has reserved fund balance in the amount of approximately $653,900 for incurred but unreported claims.

Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statements of net assets of the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 1991 and 1990, and the related statements of operations and changes in net assets for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Foundation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. The Foundation also receives gifts and bequests on behalf of the member organizations.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities:

Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

General:

The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 1991 and 1990 were as follows:

	1991	1990
Cost of purchases:
U.S. Government securities	$ -	$ 4,067,907
Short-term investments	16,976,262	13,539,335
Other securities	9,901,267	6,927,648
	$26,877,529	$24,534,890
Proceeds from sales:
U.S. Government securities	$ 5,542,177	$ 3,862,154
Short-term investments	14,912,934	15,196,549
Other securities	7,334,992	4,593,344

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also recorded during 1990 the cash surrender value of approximately 20 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and fund balance.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $1.68 at December 31, 1991 and $1.57 at December 31, 1990.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of United Methodist Foundation. Incorporated is to maintain a balance between the current income needs of the Foundation and growth of principal and income in the future.

Safety of Principal

Although safety of principal is an important consideration, bonds or other debt instruments are to be used primarily for current income and common stocks are to be used primarily for principal enhancement.

Specific Quantifiable Objective

The specific quantifiable return objectives of the Foundation shall be a minimum total return of 8% per year, net after expenses, over a reasonable period of time, which, under normal market conditions, is expected to be achieved over any cumulative five year period. Current income on an annual basis shall not be less than 6 percent.

Directed Commissions

The use of directed commissions is a helpful and sometimes necessary mechanism in order for the Investment Manager to secure information from outside sources, and it is not the intention of the Foundation to hamper the Investment Manager's use of these resources.

Asset Distribution

Except as noted under "Prohibited Transactions", investments are to be made in quality securities which, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, can best achieve the expected investment performance. The Foundation feels that a normal Equity-Debt ratio of 50/50 would be appropriate for their needs. However, this ratio may be varied at the discretion of the Investment Manager as long as the specified quantifiable objectives are realized. Any major shift of 20% or more must be discussed with the Investment Committee in advance. Fixed income securities are to be used to the extent necessary to provide relative portfolio stability and a high stream of current income. The bond portfolio should be strengthened to a maximum level of 60% of the total portfolio. Equities are to be used to provide potential for growth in principal and income.

Diversification

Although the Investment Manager has full discretion over the portfolio, the Foundation feels that individual investments, on the basis of cost, should not exceed 30% of the portfolio in any one industry or 10% of the portfolio in any single security. At the discretion of the Investment Manager, investments that have appreciated above these limits may continue to be held.

Delegation of Authority

It is expected that the portfolio under the Investment Manager's control will be invested in a manner consistent with the expressions in this statement. Within those limits, he has full control of assets. The Foundation does not expect to direct the purchase or sale of investments, but may advise when it has information regarding specific situations.

Quality of Securities

Only new purchases of bonds or other instruments of debt which are rated by Moody's and/or Standard & Poor's as "A" quality or above are to be used. Common stock holdings and/or common stock equivalents should be in (1) companies that have been rated in quality as "B" or above by Standard & Poor's, or (2) companies that are actively followed by the Investment Manager and are rated on a quality basis equal to or greater than Standard & Poor's rating of "B".

Measurement of Return

Investment performance should be measured in terms of total return, and not dividend and interest income alone. It is recognized that realized losses will occur in individual securities, even though each investment in the Foundation was made in the expectation of dividend income and/or capital appreciation. However, the measure of fund performance will be a total realized rate of return figure.

The total Foundation, as well as the fixed income component and equity component, will be measured by using the time-weighted rate of return method.

Liquidity

From an investment standpoint, (i.e. accumulating cash equivalents in anticipation of better investment opportunities), the Investment Manager may invest up to 25% of the account in short term liquid assets.

Prohibited Transactions

Investments or trading in private placements, letter stock, commodities, venture capital, puts, calls, straddles, hedges, shortsales, or transactions on margin are specifically prohibited. Covered options trading on no more than twenty (20%) percent of the equity portfolio may be used at the discretion of the Investment Manager. No investments are to be made in companies whose principal business is gambling, or the manufacturing or distribution of tobacco products or alcoholic beverages. The Foundation will not do business with or invest in banks making loans to the government of South Africa or its agencies, or who have operations within South Africa.

Investment Review

The Investment Manager shall meet semi-annually with the Foundation and may meet quarterly with the Investment Committee with time and place of meetings to be designated by the Foundation. Special meetings may be called as necessary.

Payment of Income

Income to be generated by the account is to be paid to the Foundation quarterly. At any time the income is insufficient, the Investment Manager will be advised.

Net Realized Losses

The Maximum net realized losses may not exceed $75,000 in any one year.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees
Board of Missions, Inc.
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of the Board of Missions, Inc., as of December 31, 1991 and 1990, and the related statements of revenues, expenses or distributions and fund balance for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Board's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Board of Missions, Inc., at December 31, 1991 and 1990, and the revenues, expenses or distributions and fund balance for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations:

The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are secured by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting:

The accounts of the Board of Missions, Inc. are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.

Other accounting policies:

Investments:

Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is determined on a specific-identification basis.

Property:

Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. All property consists of undeveloped land and depreciation is not recorded.

Note 2. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and market values as of December 31, 1991 and 1990 were as follows:

	1991	1990
Cost	$ 5,316	$101,390

Note 3. Line of Credit

During 1991, the Board of Missions entered into a one-year financing agreement with a bank to borrow up to $1,000,000, subject to review and renewal annually. This agreement is collateralized by deeds of trust on certain real property located in eastern North Carolina.

These funds are to be utilized by the Board of Missions for the specific purposes of granting loans to churches for building programs and acquiring undeveloped land for future church sites. The bank must approve the use of the loan proceeds which the Board distributes.

The Board of Missions has used this line of credit to grant loans to two individual churches for the purchase of church sites. One loan in the amount of $150,000 must be repaid to the Board of Missions in 120 monthly payments of $1,941. The second loan in the amount of $93,000 must be repaid in 10 annual payments of $14,812. Both loans have stated interest rates of 9.5%.

At December 31, 1991 the outstanding balance of the line of credit to the bank is $241,082 and is collateralized by the assignment of the first deed of trust on the two church sites. Interest on the outstanding balance is paid at prime plus 0.5% (9.5% at December 31, 1991). The bank does not require scheduled repayments of the outstanding principal balance.

Note 4. Donated Services

The Board of Missions receives all management and administrative services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

Note 5. Commitments

As of December 31, 1991, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $808,000 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.
